

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

EBENSBURG AND CRESSON RAILROAD. On and after Monday, May 16, 1864, trains on this road will run as follows:

LEAVE EBENSBURG—At 7.00 A. M., connecting with Balt. Express West and Thro' Accom East.

LEAVE CRESSON—At 10.45 A. M., or on departure of Thro' Accommodation West.

THE NEW EBENSBURG COMPANY.—Capt. R. Litzinger's company of volunteers for one year's service, the recruiting of which we noticed last week as going on rapidly in Ebensburg, left here on Thursday for Hollidaysburg.

On the following morning, they proceeded to Harrisburg, to be armed and fully equipped, and likewise to be incorporated in a regiment. Several new regiments are being formed at Camp Curtin, to one of which it is expected it will be attached.

The editor of this paper accompanied the company hence through to Harrisburg, and can truly say that a better looking or a better behaved set of men never came under his observation.

With regard to the former proposition, to see with to believe; with regard to the latter, we may mention that, at Hollidaysburg, remarking the volunteers to be gentlemen all, Pro. Mar. Lloyd contrary to his usual custom ordered the guards relieved from duty at the barracks, so as to give the inmates full freedom of the town.

The result was, not a single disturbance occurred, and at the appointed hour for leaving, every man was in the ranks, punctual as that most punctual of every-day affairs, railroad time.

It may astonish some to know that "raw recruits" can deport themselves like unto men, but it does not astonish us that these gained the approbation and applause of all with whom they came in contact.

No; for they comprise within their number men of the purest principle and of the highest talent, intelligent and good, and a little leaven, it is known, leaveneth the whole lump.

They cannot but make good soldiers, for history and common sense teach us that those who go into the fight on principle, and with a full and clear understanding of the issues involved, constitute indeed a nation's dependence in her hour of danger.

We hope, sincerely and truly hope, after having done their whole duty, that the boys may return safely home, each one covered with laurels of unfading brightness, to live in undisturbed peace and happiness forever thereafter.

An opportunity still remains open for a few more men to join this company. If a thoroughly educated military man as commander and a tip-top set of boys be of consequence, we offer them to induce those intending to volunteer to give Capt. Litzinger's company the preference.

OUR LOSS, BUT THE COUNTRY'S GAIN.—By reference to an announcement on today's outside, it will be seen that the "Educational Department" of The Alleghanian, conducted with signal ability since its inception by Mr. Samuel Singleton, ceases for a time to be a feature of the paper.

A true patriot, as well as a gentleman and scholar, Mr. S. thought it his duty to enter the service of his country in this dark hour of her need, and accordingly enlisted in Capt. Litzinger's company for one year.

ETCHINGS.—They have a summary way of dealing with bounty sharks from other districts at Hollidaysburg.

As soon as any of these gentry are discovered to be about, a committee wait upon them, inform them that they are trespassing upon forbidden ground, request them to leave, insist that they leave inside ten minutes, and impress it upon their minds that if they don't go leave, they will be gently ridden out of town on a rail, sharp end up!

"In order to secure a carrier during the school term," says the Altoona Tribune, "we have been compelled to change our publication day from Wednesday to Saturday."

Boys must be scarce down that way!...The duty on friction matches went into effect on Thursday. Hereafter every package of a hundred or less must have a one cent stamp attached before it can be sold legally.

Col. B. M'Dermitt, of this place, conductor of a freight train on the P. R.R., had his leg badly fractured at Blairsville Intersection on Saturday last, while coupling cars.

He was brought home for treatment...Lutz, the junior editor of the Shirleysburg Herald, was in town on Monday, and called to see us.

We found him a very agreeable fellow,—as most editors are,—and thoroughly sound on the political goose,—as all editors ought to be.

He prints a neat paper, and we wish him success...A camp meeting for this circuit of the M. E. Church was held near Armagh, Indiana county, commencing on Thursday of last week.

It was largely attended, and no doubt productive of much good. The original intention was to continue the meeting during several days of the present week, but we presume the heavy rains of Sunday and Monday worked to the end of necessitating an earlier adjournment.

THE DRAFT.—The following important circular relative to the draft has been issued: HARRISBURG, PA., August 30, 1864. (Circular No. 2.)

Keep up volunteering as much as possible after the fifth (5th) day of September, and let it be known that volunteers will be counted on the quotas of the present call up to the last practicable moment before the drafted men are accepted and sent to rendezvous.

By order of Capt. R. I. Dones, 8th Infantry, U. S. A. Sup't. It must not be inferred from this that the draft is or will be postponed.

We have the assurance that the reverse will be the case. But in most districts the Provost Marshals are not yet ready to commence drafting, and it is to afford every facility to volunteering that the order is issued.

If enough volunteers come forward to fill the quota of the State, of course the draft will be dispensed with; if not, the "wheel of fate" will be set in motion as soon as the different Provost Marshals can get in readiness, up to which time volunteers will be accepted and the Government bounty paid.

OUR QUOTA.—It gives us pleasure to lay before our readers the information that the quota of Ebensburg under the impending draft is filled. The men volunteering to credit themselves to the borough were principally our own citizens, and all members of Capt. Litzinger's company.

The quota of our near neighbor, Cambria township, is also filled. These, with probably Johnstown, comprise the only sub districts in Cambria county out of the draft.

DIARY.—WET WEATHER.—Saturday: rained pretty much all night. Sunday: rained pretty much all day, and incessantly through the night.

Monday: rained cats and dogs day and night. Tuesday: rained by the bucketsful until noon—when this diary is "closed up."

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.

COL. CAMPBELL AND ADJ'T. ROSE—MILITARY MATTERS—MAN REPORTED HUNG, AND ANOTHER SHOT—VARIETY.

JOHNSTOWN, September 5, 1864. Col. J. M. Campbell and Adj't. W. H. Rose, of the 54th P. V., returned home last week, their term of service having expired.

These officers have been in service three years, and have seen much arduous duty in keeping the Shenandoah Valley clear of guerillas, and latterly in the series of battles culminating in the late engagement near Winchester.

Col. Campbell was considered one of the ablest officers in his department, and for the past few months commanded a brigade. Adj't. Rose was wounded in the thigh during the battle of New Market, but is now fully recovered.

Capt. Lowman departed for Pittsburg—the rendezvous of his regiment—last week, with over 150 men. His company-rolls bear the names of some of the finest looking men in this section.

Capt. Butland's company, through some cause, failed to be mustered into service, and the greater part have returned home. A company is now being formed here, under the auspices of Capt. Mackin.

His rolls number over 50 men. There is a pretty well authenticated report here that Geo. D. Berlin, of this place, who was appointed by Gov. Curtin military agent to recruit negroes for Westmoreland county, was hung by guerillas in Tennessee a few weeks ago.

Also, a report that Jas. Eldridge, of Couch's Independent Scouts, was shot at Danville, in the attempt to arrest a deserter. This report lacks confirmation.

The horses attached to the Foster House hack ran off last week, and in their mad career tore down the awning posts in front of W. & R. Geis' store, the railing before Suppes' store, and were finally brought up by dividing at the Scott House sign-post.

Four small boys were in the hack at the time, and for a wonder escaped injury. Two soldiers were robbed in saloons in this place last week, of $200 and $100 respectively. The money I believe was not recovered.

Our quota here is now almost full, and were all the men credited to us who have lately enlisted here, we would be out of several drafts. There is a great demand here for labor to supply vacancies left by volunteers.

FROM OUR SOLDIERS. SHORT LETTER FROM CAPT. LITZINGER'S COMPANY—RAIN, TENTS, GENERAL SATISFACTION, AND NO ORGANIZATION.

CAMP CURTIN, HARRISBURG, September 4, 1864. To-day the rain has been incessant, though we now have what is apparently only a brief respite.

Yesterday evening we were provided with tents, after waiting in patience for about twenty-seven hours. Everybody seems to enjoy himself as best he can.

All seem happy.—Singing is the chief diversion of many. No attempt as yet has been made at organization, either regimental or otherwise.

We had the pleasure of greeting our townsmen, Col. Lytle, Col. McCoy and A. C. Mullin, Esq., this morning. Adieu for the present. GAMMA.
