NUTS TO BE CRACKED .- By reference to the printed proceedings of the Dem. Co. Convention of Blair county, held at Hollidaysburg on the 1st 10st., we find that a resolution was "read and unanimously adopted" to the effect that the said Convention do regret that "private business" compels Hon. A. M'Allister, representative from this district to Congress, to "withdraw from public life." In other words, they regret that Mr. M'A. refuses to become a candidate for nomination and re-election, in which case we are led to inter he would have been ecstatically declared the choice of the Democracy of Blair county. Was this resolution offered and adopted as a direct insult to R. L. Johnston, Esq., who was subsequently declared the choice of the Convention? Then why this attempt to make him play "second fiddle" to Mr. M'Allister by putting him before the people as "the next best man?" By the way, when we are on this subject, less than three months ago the Johnstown Democrat violently assured its readers that Mr. M'Allister was no Democrat, in that be invariably cast his vote in Congress with "the infidels of New England in their every effort to destroy the Union and Constitution," but, on the contrary, that he was an "Abolitionist." What does the Democrat think of this endorsement by his immediate constituents of Mr. M'Allister's "Abolitionism?" And ought not the tellow well met of the New England infidels and destroyers of the Union and the Constitution? An early answer is respectfully solicited.

IMPORTANT TO TEACHERS .- During Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, 3d, 4th, 5th, 6th and 7th October next, the semi-annual meeting of the Cambria County Teachers' Institute will be held at Summitville, one mile from Cresson station, P. RR. It would be well for all teachers throughout the county to be a good corps of drill-masters and lectuters on various educational topics present. During the sitting of the Institute, an will be such, and only such, as hold cerbetter. Besides the more usual branches, the examination will embrace the rules for Spelling, Phonetics, Principles of Elocution, Punctuation, Theory of Teaching, and Physical and Mathematical Geograthy. The County Superintendent is making a commendable effort to increase the standard of both provisional and profesminded people.

For Congress.-R. L. Johnston, Esq., of Ebensburg, was nominated for Congress on the first ballot by the Democratic Conference of this district, at Huntingdon, on Thursday last. Like Abraham Lincoln, Mr. J. is a self-made man, and has "hoed his own row" through life, and his nomwhich has so distinguished him and raised him above the level of the masses. Another marked resemblance we discover between Mr. Lincoln and Mr. Johnston consists in that both are most inveterate tained in the Chicago Platform! and determined punsters and story-tellers. Personally, Mr. J. is a fine fellow: socially, he is a good fellow; intellectully, he is a rare fellow; politically, he is an indifferent fellow. Personally and socially, he would grace any circle into which he night be called upon to enter; intellectually, he is fit for Governor; politically and will most likely support the Chicago and take your pick. ominees, platform and all, this campaign. We bespeak for him a hearing.

-The immortal J. N. Free writes us that he will visit Ebersburg to-day (Wedaesday,) and Wilmore to-morrow, to expatate on "Truth and Union." He should be welcomed with outstretched arms.

hardown December 8, 1879-1

ETCHINGS .- Last week the Dem. & Sent. could find room to print full five columns of intensely stupid endorsement of the Chicago Convention and "Little Mac," and a couple of other columns on indiffer ent subjects, but we search its length and breadth in vain for a word of cheer to those brave men who left this place two weeks ago in Capt. Litzinger's company for the wars. Indeed, the bare announcement of their departure does not even appear !-How is this? Is the Chicago Convention of more moment to the readers of the Dem. & Sent. than the going-out from among us of many of our best citizens?-Was the failure to give "the boys" the benefit of a paragraph a cut direct to both them and the cause wherein they engaged, and intended as an insult? Or was it all an unintentional omission on the part of the Dem. & Sent. ? These are questions which those readers of the Dem. & Sent. having friends in the company will do well to ask themselves Miss Martha Taylor, daughter of Hon. George Taylor, died at Shade Gap, Huntingdon county, on the 29th ult., in the 25th year of her age Hon. Louis W. Hall, of the Blair district, was nominated for re-election to the State Senate last week The Altoona Tribune says that Mr. Johnston, the Democratic nominee for Congress, is "a very clever and agreeable gentleman, wit philosophy enough in his composition to take a defeat in the proper spirit, as undoubtedly such a fate awaits him." That's the latest news from away from home .. The majority of the visitors at Cresson Springs, taking exception to the extremely cold weather we have been enjoying here on the mountain of late, have departed to their respective homes. That gay retreat will soon be a banquet-hall deserted, its lights all fled, its garlands dead and all but the landlord departed !....The Dem. & Sent. thinks it would be a wise arrangement to change the relative posi tions of Mr. Settlemoyer and Mr. Barker on the Union ticket, and run the former for Congress and the latter for Poor House Director. Thank you. It would scarcely Democracy of Blair county to be ashamed | be a wise arrangement in the Democracy of themselves to go and endorse a hale of Cambria county to trade off Col. Hasson and get a veritable jackass to "run" the Dem. & Sent., for a jackass of necessity must eat hay, and hay this winter is going to be $50 per ton-much dearer in pro portion than the bread the Col. will eat. On the score of economy, if nothing else, the Col. ought to be retained, at least until spring.

county, was visited by a most terrific storm, accompanied by rain, on Saturday fierceness of the wind. Our informant to the service of the Alarighty. says he has seen no storm of equal vioexamination of applicants for professional lence during a period of many years .certificates will be held. The applicants | Strange to say, no other section of the county appears to have been visited by tificates averaging one and one-half or it. Here, a distance of four or five miles from Jackson, we experienced none of the effects of it beyond a slight shower of rain lasting only a few minutes.

THAT MEETING .- The Democratic mass meeting held here on Tuesday was small in rumbers but great in enthusiasm. About three hundred of the "unterrified" sional certificates, and should, in this only were present. The speakers were effort, receive the support of all right- Messrs. Wm. H. Witte of Philadelphia, Potts of Johnstown, State Senator Wallace, R. L. Johnston of Ebensburg, and Cyrus L. Pershing of Johnstown. The purveyors of gingerbread and small beer did a good business throughout the day.

ABOUT THE SIZE OF IT .- The weather during the past couple of weeks has been exceeding wet and disagreeable. As this ination, like that of Mr. Lincoln, is the is not the season for the equinoctial storm, tpontaneous recognition by his party the superabundance of moisture can only friends of that great worth and ability be accounted for on the hypothesis that nature is weeping copious tears over the depravity of man in that he could deliberately and systematically promulgate so vile and unholy sentiments as those con-

NEW Goods !- James M. Thompson, at his store, P. SAD RAILROAD ACCIDENT-PERSONAL-OUR BOL-DIERS-THE PICNIC-DEDICATION OF CATHO-

Johnstown, September 11, 1864. A terrible railroad accident occurred near Beatty's Station, Westmoreland county, last week. The boiler of engine No. 273 exploded, killing the engineer, Clas. Gahigan, of this place, J. Jones fireman, and William Walters conductor, both I believe of Pittsburg. Some 500 sheep were also killed by the wreck of the cars. Mr. Gahigan was a very worthy young man. He had served in the three and nine months service, and had been promoted to engineer but a few days before this sad occurrence. Some defect in the machinery of the engine is supposed to have been the cause of the explosion. The remains of the deceased were brought to this place, and interred to-day.

Among late departures from our town, I note that of Andy Munson, late iron despatcher of the Mill, and James Quinn, erstwhile military recruiting agent for Cambria county. The former is now employed as military telegrapher at Broadway Landing, on the James river, while the latter holds the position of clerk with the Purveyor at Grant's Headquarters .-They are both deserving young men, and will adorn any position they are called upon to fill.

Capt. Morgan M'Donald and Sergt. Herd departed to rejoin their regiment, on Thursday last. The Capt. will not be fit for active service for some time.

The veteran furloughed soldiers of the 54th P. V. left here for the field again on Friday last. A large number of them donned the hymeneal yoke during their brief stay in town, thus furnishing a double incentive to bring this "cruel war" to a close as soon as possible. Among the marriages was that of Capt. John Suter, of Co. A, 54th P. V., to Miss Emma A. Vickroy, of this place. May happiness be theirs always.

The pic-nic for the benefit of the new Catholic Church came off as per announcement on Saturday. The weather was very threatening, but the attendance was large. While I am on this subject, I may state that the church is to be dedicated on Sunday, 25th iust. The Bishop of the diocese and fifteen priests have signified their intention of being present. Tickets of admission will be 50 cents, and strangers are invited to be present, with the assurance that the best seats will be se-A Tornado.-Jackson township, this cured for them. As this is without question the finest church in the diocese (outside of the city), it were well worth a visit night last. > FROM OUR SOLDIERS. LETTER PROM CAPT. LITEINGER'S COMPANY-BUDGET OF NEWS FROM "THE BOYS." Correspondence of The Alleghanian.

> > CAMP CURTIN, HARRISBURG, September 11, 1864.

On Friday night, The Alleghanian was received, and attained a high degree of importance and interest, It contained the news "from home," and hence was eagerly sought for, eagerly read and cagerly listened to by the boys.

We are still unorganized and unfilled, though we have been assigned to the 209th regiment, Col. Kauffman. We got some seven recruits in Harrisburg, who were mustered into service on Saturday morning and paid their local bounty, six of whom deserted under cover of night, robbing the seventh, who is still with us, of some four hundred dollars before leav-

It is hardly probable that we will leave here before the latter end of the week, if so soon as that. The boys are all in moderate health, though some few complain somewhat. We have had a surfeit of rain since coming here. The other night your correspondent suddenly found himself absolutely surrounded by the watery fluid, and of course had to execute a sudden "change of base." GAMMA.
