

ODDS & ENDS.

The following we clip from an exchange. It is old, but good, and will bear reading again: Do any of you know old Bill Lower?—He moved from Springfield to some point in Minnesota. Bill is tough, smart as a whip, keen as a brier, but then, like all us fellers, Bill loves to see the bottom of his tumbler at all times. Well, once there was a Methodist revival in town. Bill was there—and a little too full of his kind of spirit to hold much of the other kind. But he sat still. At last the sermon was ended, and the minister came down from his proclamation stand and said: "Now, I want all who love the Lord to come forward and be prayed for."

No one moved. In a minute he repeated: "Brethren and sisters, I want all who love the Lord, or wish to love Him, to come forward on the bench." No one moved. Then he looked mad, and spoke out rather quickly: "If there is a man in the house who is a friend to the Lord, I want him to come forward—if He has no friends, we will quit."

Just then old Bill arose, hitched up his trousers, and in a peculiar, half-sober voice, sang out: "Hold on there! I'm, I'm, I'm a friend of the Lord, or any other man, who hain't no more friends than He 'pears to 'ave in this section."

A Rochester paper says: "A gentleman just returned from Elmira reports an amusing and suggestive incident that took place in connection with the transfer of rebel prisoners to Elmira. Last Sunday, while a train filled with the prisoners on the way to Elmira was stopping a few minutes at Oswego, quite a number—some eight or ten—sympathizers with the rebels, who were in the train, stepped out to communicate with the prisoners, and distribute among them little presents of tobacco, &c., to prove to them that they were not without friends in the North. Their sympathizers became so absorbed in their intercourse with their Southern friends as not to notice the signal for starting the train, and before they were aware the doors were closed and under guard, and the train in motion. When it arrived in Elmira the Oswego sympathizers were marched out with the other rebels, and notwithstanding their expostulations, were compelled to take their quarters at Barracks No. 2, and they were still there when our informant left yesterday afternoon. They will doubtless be released at the proper time."

The substitute brokers from Detroit we lately played a sharp trick.—Some of them went into Canada and boasted of being bounty jumpers, telling hoarsely it was to "do" the Government. Smooth stories they told induced some of the Canadians to try the same dodge, giving the profits with those who had a through the ceremony. The result was that the enlisted Canadians found themselves in the ranks, with little opportunity of deserting, and that little attended with much danger. Some of them are now in front of Petersburg, wondering how the Americans can so easily do what is so difficult for themselves. It was a piece of very sharp practice on the part of the substitute brokers.

There are two different kinds of girls. One is the kind that appears best abroad—the girls that are good for parties, rides, visits, balls, etc., and whose chief delight is in such things. The other is the kind that appears best at home—the girls that are useful and cheerful in the dining room, the sick-room, and all the precincts of home. They differ widely in character. One is often a torment at home—the other a blessing. One is a moth, consuming every thing about her—the other is a sunbeam, inspiring life and gladness all along her pathway. The right education will modify both a little, and unite their good qualities in one.

Ishmael Day, the hero of the flag, who killed the rebel that dared to pull down "Old Glory," recently paid a visit to the President, with a letter of introduction from General Wallace. He told the President that the General had taken steps to indemnify him by levying a tax on the sympathizers with the rebellion in the vicinity of his destroyed property.—"Tell General Wallace from me," said the President, "that he is right, and to go ahead, and I will sustain him!"

July 30, 1860. MESSRS. EVANS AND WATSON: GENTLEMEN.—The small size No. 1 Salamander safe which I purchased from your agent, Mr. Adam B. Bar, in Lancaster City, on July 20th, 1858, has been subjected to a very severe test, which it withstood in a most satisfactory manner. This Safe, containing all my books, together with valuable papers belonging to myself and some to my neighbors and friends and representing a value of over Twenty Thousand Dollars, ($20,000) was in my Mill which was destroyed on the night of the 27th of July, 1860, and passed through the fiery ordeal unscathed. The Safe was on the second floor and fell to the basement of the Mill, and was subjected for six hours to an intense heat among the ruins, which was greatly increased by the combustion of a large quantity of grain confined within the brick walls. After the fire the safe was opened and the books and papers taken out in a state of perfect preservation, the paper not even being discolored. This fact was, however, to many bystanders a better recommendation of your Safer's that could be expressed in any other words from me. Yours Respectfully, [1861] SAMUEL RANCE. A large assortment of the above quality of Fire and Thief Proof Safes always on hand and for sale at low rates as any other firm, at EVANS & WATSON'S, No. 16 South Fourth st., Philadelphia. 1864. TINWARE! 1864. SHEET-IRON WARE. COPPER WARE. J. & H. HERRINGTON Desire to call the attention of the public to their new TIN SHOP now opened in the large brick building on the corner of Main and Franklin streets opposite the Mansion House, and next to the Banking house of Bell, Smith & Co., Johnstown Pa., where they purpose manufacturing all kinds of TIN, SHEET-IRON AND COPPER WARE. Their work will be made by the best workmen and of the best materials. They are determined to sell all kinds of ware at the cheapest rates, wholesale and retail. P. S.—All orders for SPOUTING attended to on the shortest notice and on reasonable terms. Johnstown, December 8, 1859-tf.
