

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

EBENSBURG AND CRESSON RAILROAD. On and after Monday, May 16, 1864, trains on this road will run as follows:

LEAVE EBENSBURG— At 7.00 A. M., connecting with Balt. Express West and Thro' Accom. East. At 6.40 P. M., connecting with Mail Train and Fast Line West and Ex. East.

LEAVE CRESSON— At 10.45 A. M., on departure of Thro' Accommodation West. At 9.15 P. M., on departure of Fast Line West.

ERCHINGS.—Punctual to announcement, on Wednesday last the greatest orator and logician of this or any other age, J. N. Free, popularly known as "the immortal J. N.," made his appearance in Ebensburg. He came to espouse the cause of truth and combat error, and fully intended so doing from the public rostrum, but owing to the fact that he was unable to secure a proper auditorium in town, and to the circumstance that it rained too hard during the day and night to admit of his speaking in the open air, he was obliged—obliged is the word—to lay dormant and refrain from easing himself of the burning words of wisdom wherewith he was fully surcharged. This was bad for the cause of truth, and a severe disappointment to our citizens, who had been counting high for many days on a feast of reason. He tells us, however, he will return here again in a couple of months, when (D. V.) he will most certainly speak his piece. The editor of "Godey's Lady's Book" gives notice that, owing to the enormous rise in price of everything appertaining to printing, he will be obliged to increase his subscription rates. The new terms will be announced in the November number. The attention of school teachers is directed to the notice of examination of teachers for Cambria township, to be held in Ebensburg on Saturday next. The winter session of the Eldersridge Academy, Indiana county, opens on the 12th proximo. This is one of the best educational institutions in this section of the State, and we earnestly recommend it to the patronage of our young men desiring to enter upon a thorough course of study. Tudor & Jones sell the best segars in town. Give them a call, ye who love "the weed."

STATE FAIR.—The Pennsylvania State Agricultural Society will hold its next fair at Easton, Pa., Sept. 27th, 28th, 29th and 30th, 1864. The most ample accommodations we are informed are being made. The grounds and buildings of the Farmers and Mechanics' Institute, where the Fair will be held, are among the largest and finest in the State. In addition to the buildings and sheds already erected, several very large tents have been secured; one for the floral and fruit department, and the other for the Fruit Growers' Society of Eastern Pennsylvania, who will hold their quarterly meeting upon the grounds at the same time. Their object is to discuss all questions appertaining to fruit growing, as well as to exhibit fruits of their own production. Their discussions are beneficial, and will add much to the general interest of the Fair. From present indications, the fair will be one of the largest ever held in the State.

WHAT DOES IT MEAN?—Says the Johnstown Tribune of Friday last: "The Copperhead Congressional Conferees for this District met at Huntingdon on Thursday of last week, and nominated R. L. Johnston, of Ebensburg, for Congress on the first ballot. Bob is a good fellow, but he can't go to Congress yet a bit. He is certain to receive the worst political defeat he ever got, and it will serve him perfectly right, for being found in such bad company. Rocking Tom Stiles' baby in a sugar trough, in the extreme corner of White township, won't save him this time." The Tribune speaks in riddles. We have heard of "Rock the cradle, Lucy," of the "Lone rock by the sea," and of a "Pocketful of rocks," but never of a rock in connection with Mr. Johnston and "Tom Stiles' sugar-trough. Won't the Tribune take pity on our ignorance and explain?

THE DRAFT.—In conformity with orders issued from the War Department, the draft for this Congressional district commenced at Hollidaysburg on Monday. Cambria was the first county drawn—on Monday and Tuesday. We expected to have a full list of the conscripts for this paper, but were disappointed. It will appear in our next.

An inhuman mother visited Indiana last week, stopped over night at a hotel, and the next morning went away in the cars, leaving behind her son, one year old, to be cared for by strangers.

BLAIRSVILLE, Sept. 16, 1864. Editor Alleghanian: The fall exercises of the "Blairsville Female Seminary" have just terminated, adding another laurel to the wreath of honor which decks this well known institution. After such a creditable display of knowledge accumulated during the past term, the young ladies, perchance, would feel somewhat chagrined if no one of the "admiring audience" should endeavor to make public a "curtailed" account of the proceedings. Believing also that many of your readers would be especially gratified to acquire some information concerning the "March of Female Education," we proceeded from a double sense of duty.—Mustering up all possible courage, a great amount of which was necessary, we were marked among the first arrivals of the "visitorial corps" on yesterday morning. By some mysterious instinct, we soon found our way to the recitation room, and seated ourselves facing a most formidable array of countenances radiant with the scintillations of knowledge. Everything conspired to charm. The most confusing mathematical problems were demonstrated with the utmost precision. The rapidity with which we were drawn thro' the intricacies of the languages, and the mazes of the sciences, was truly astonishing. One dreaming of our grandmothers' times would be forced involuntarily to exclaim—"O tempora, O mores!" From "military necessity" we were compelled to remain until the routine of the day had ended, being constitutionally unable to tear ourselves away from such alluring enjoyments.

This morning, we were again found early on the field of the preceding day's operations, and were instructively entertained by recitations in "Natural Philosophy," "Paley's Theology," and "Geometry." All the classes gave unmistakable evidence of their competent teachers having used all the means in their power to instill a practical education. The afternoon was passed in the reading of essays, and musical performances. Among the former, one entitled "Love rewarded" created considerable merriment on account of its comicality. The music appeared to be appreciated with much gusto, proving conclusively that the spectators were fit for other than "treason, stratagem and spoils." After a prolongation of the blissful sorrow of parting, the audience gradually melted away, allowing things to resume their accustomed monotony. A.

OUR PAVEMENTS.—We are pleased to see that many of our citizens are now busily engaged in relaying the pavements in front of their respective residences.—The number of worn-out and almost impassible pavements in town is a something startling. Indeed, it seems to be the rule to find them dilapidated and vile—the exception to find them good and trustworthy. This is due mainly to the fact that plank is to a great extent used in their construction, instead of stone or brick. Ebensburg used to be noted as a town neat and tasteful in regard to her streets and sidewalks. If there be any virtue in "Borough Ordinances," this reputation must be speedily restored to her.

OUR SOLDIERS.—We learn that Capt. Litzinger's company of one-year volunteers, from this place, has been recruited to the minimum number, and permanently attached to the 209th regiment P. V. The election of officers resulted as follows:—Capt. R. Litzinger; First Lieut., Samuel W. Davis; Second Lieut., Hugh Jones; Orderly Sergeant, Samuel Singleton. We hope to have the muster-roll of the company for publication next week. The 209th left Camp Curtin for "the front" on Friday.

It gives us pleasure to state that our friend and fellow-townsmen, Col. E. Frank Lytle, has received the appointment of Quartermaster of the regiment. There is here double cause of congratulation—to Frank, that he succeeds to so distinguished a position, and to the regiment, that they thereby secure the services of a man who is capable and efficient in an eminent degree.

A PERTINENT INTERROGATORY.—Speaking of the late Democratic Mass Meeting, the Dem. & Sent. says there were "from one-half to one-fourth of an acre" of people present. Would it not be more in accordance with the fitness of things to compute the number by the head, and say there were one, two or three hundred head of Democrats present?

An old man named Woolcater was run over and killed on the Hollidaysburg Branch, at Eldorado station, on Friday.

JOHNSTOWN SOLDIERS.—Capt. Powell Stackhouse's company has been assigned as Co. F, 198th P. V., Col. Sickles. Its officers are as follows: Capt. Stackhouse; 1st Lieut. George C. Fisher; 2d Lieut. Charles Louthen. Capt. Webster Lowman's company has been assigned as Co. K, 5th Penna. Heavy Artillery, Col. Gallope. The officers are as follows: Capt. Lowman; 1st Lieut. John B. Hay; 2d Lieut. David Hutzen.

SEASONABLE ADVICE.—The cold weather we have been experiencing the past few weeks is an avant courier of winter. Yes, the grim Frost King will soon be here, in all the glory of his icicles, and his hoary beard, and his chattering teeth. In view of this fact, would it not be wise in our readers to go to Thompson's store, Ebensburg, and buy some of the superior fall and winter goods he has just received from the city? We think it would.

"ALL FOR THE CAUSE."—Our friends should remember that we print all proceedings of Union political meetings gratis. Short and spicy descriptions of such meetings throughout the county during the canvass will always receive our fullest consideration.

SIGNS OF THE TIMES.—A vote was taken on the Fast Line West, Pennsylvania Railroad, on Wednesday evening week, which resulted as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Name and Vote. Lincoln 101, McClellan 39, Doubtful 12.

SHUT UP.—The Cresson "Mountain House," after a long and lively "season," was closed for the summer last week.

HIGHLY IMPORTANT TO BLACKSMITHS. Four-fifths of time and hard labor saved by using ISAAC C. SINGER'S NEW AND COMPLETE TIRE AND BAND BENDER. Patented March 10, 1863. Its chief advantages are: 1st. Having strong gear wheels to obtain power, one man can operate it to bend cold wagon tire, any size under 1 by 4 inches. 2d. Having movable collars, to hold the bar square on the portable rollers, it takes all twist out of the bar, while bending in a regular circle. 3d. It can be shifted to bend to any desired circle, from one up to twelve feet, in one minute. 4th. Having a movable centre post, which can be quickly taken off, tires and bands are easily taken out. 5th. The upper ribbed roller will always draw the bar through. 6th. Being gauged and numbered, a card with directions accompanies it. The Machine in good (oil the journals) running order, bolted upon a strong piece of timber, without leg or crank, for $25, or with legs and crank for $30. All cash orders promptly attended to. State and County Rights for sale. ISAAC C. SINGER. Ebensburg, April 14, 1864-tf.
