

ODDS & ENDS.

A new catechism has been prepared for the Democratic party, not exactly by authority, however, of which the following is the chief part:

"Who first recommended the draft? Gen. George B. McClellan.

"Who afterwards deemed it an honor again to ask its enforcement? Gen. George B. McClellan.

"Who recommended the Legislature of a sovereign State? Gen. George B. McClellan.

"Who has been the most conspicuous violator of State rights? Gen. George B. McClellan.

"Who suggested emancipation on the ground of military necessity? Gen. George B. McClellan.

"Who recommended the manumission of all the Slaves in a State or States long before the emancipation proclamation was issued? Gen. George B. McClellan.

"Who has declared that this war must be prosecuted until the rebel armies are overthrown, despite all military disasters? Gen. George B. McClellan.

"Who says that war is necessary to secure peace and Union? Gen. George B. McClellan.

"What party repudiates all these doctrines? The Democratic party.

"What platform is entirely antagonistic to all these doctrines? The Democratic platform.

"Who is the nominee of that party? Gen. George B. McClellan.

"What is his attitude if he accepts a nomination from such a party on such a platform? That of repudiating his own doctrines.

"How do you justify such stultification? Because deceit is necessary to success."

Our boat stopped to take a walk on the shore, a rooking fellow, with rapiers in his pockets and his upper lip hanging down.

A dandy, ripe for a scrape, nods and winks at all around, saying: "Now I'll have some fun; I'll frighten the greenhorn."

He jumped ashore with a large drawn "Bowie," brandishing it in the face of the "green 'un," exclaiming—

"Now I'll punish you—I've been looking for you a week."

The fellow stared stupidly at his assailant; he evidently did not know enough to be scared; but as the Bowie knife came near his face, one of his huge fists suddenly vacated his pockets and fell hard and heavy between the dandy's eyes, and the poor fellow was floundering in the Ohio.

Greeny then jumped on board our boat, put his hands in his pockets, and looking around, said:

"Maybe there's somebody else that's been looking for me a week?"

The last joke at the expense of the French Society for the protection of animals is to the following effect. A countryman, armed with an immense club, presents himself before the President of the Society and claims the great prize.

He is asked to describe the act of humanity on which he founds his claim.

"I saved the life of a wolf," replied the countryman. "I might have easily killed him with this bludgeon," and he swung the weapon in the air, to the intense discomfort of the President.

"But where was the wolf?" inquired the latter "what he done to you?"

"He had just seduced my wife," was the reply.

The President and the members, and then said:

"My fiercest satisfaction of being on that you have not know that the"

A man coupled with Sheridan's laurels, some petty genius, pleaded in extenuation a natural infirmity. "I should have made a considerable figure in the world, Judge," said he, "if I hadn't been a fool; it's a dreadful pull back to a man."

A locomotive on the North London Railway recently exploded at the Camden station. Its whole weight was twenty tons. It went over the telegraph wires adjoining street, and alighted between the rails.

Just in the nation since police, a few nights ago, a strange sight of a young man in a top hat, other being on a spree in the streets drunk.

The rebels in this fully. They know that they are being run in their interest, and they further know that union defeat will insure his election. Hear the Examiner on this very point:

South is to act the controlling part in the November election. The issue of November is to be decided by the armies in Virginia and Georgia. Lincoln's whole hope of re-election begins and ends in military success. The success must not be moderate, but great enough to promise a decisive influence in securing the objects for which he is conducting the war." Here is a direct admission on the part of the special organ of Jeff. Davis, that "military success" will be the death of McClellan and the Democratic party at the November election. If Lincoln "secures the object for which he is conducting the war," he will be triumphantly re-elected. What are Lincoln's "objects" in this war? Simply the overthrow of the rebellion.

A CARD.—WITMER'S BRIDGE, Lancaster Tp. July 30, 1860. MESSRS. EVANS AND WATSON: GENTLEMEN—The small size No. 1 Salamander safe which I purchased from your agent, Mr. Adam R. Barr, in Lancaster City, on July 20th, 1858, has been subjected to a very severe test, which it withstood in a most satisfactory manner. This safe, containing all my books together with valuable papers belonging to myself and some to my neighbors and friends and representing a value of over Twenty Thousand Dollars, ($20,000) was in my Mill which was destroyed on the night of the 27th of July, 1860, and passed through the fiery ordeal unscathed. The safe was on the second floor and fell to the basement or the Mill, and was subjected for six hours to an intense heat among the ruins, which was greatly increased by the combustion of a large quantity of grain confined within the brick walls. After the fire the safe was opened and the books and papers taken out in a state of perfect preservation, the paper not even being discolored. This fact was, however, to many bystanders a better recommendation of your safe's that could be expressed in any other words from me. Yours Respectfully, [seal] SAMUEL RANCK.
