

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

EBENSBURG AND CRESSON RAILROAD.—On and after Monday, May 16, 1864, trains on this road will run as follows:

LEAVE EBENSBURG.—At 7.00 A. M., connecting with Balt. Express West and Thro' Accom East. At 6.40 P. M., connecting with Mail Train and Fast Line West and Ex. East.

LEAVE CRESSON.—At 10.45 A. M., on departure of Thro' Accommodation West. At 9.15 P. M., on departure of Fast Line West.

OUT OF SEASON.—Snow! snow! snow! The mass of mankind not of "The Mountain" may doubt it; those living in the valleys and secluded nooks and corners may hesitate to believe it; and those whose lines are cast in places where the orange-tree blossoms and the mango bears the year round may brand the assertion as a d-d lie. Yet all this fails to affect the great truth that on Saturday last we of The Mountain were visited by a regular old nor'wester after the manner of a snow-storm.

ETCHINGS.—Major Harry White, 67th P. V., captured at the battle of Winchester fifteen months ago, and in close confinement in Libby Prison ever since, has been exchanged. He arrived home, at Indiana, on Friday evening last, and was welcomed a most enthusiastic reception by his old friends and neighbors.

THE MURDER OF ROBERT CARMON.

From the St. Louis Republican of 26th ult., kindly furnished us by a friend, we gather the following particulars concerning the murder of Mr. Robert Carmon, formerly of this place, but latterly a resident of Keystville, Chariton county, Mo., by bushwhackers:

FROM JOHNSTOWN.

SEVERAL FATAL ACCIDENTS—A SANGUINARY DISCUSSION—THE MARCH OF IMPROVEMENT. Correspondence of The Alleghanian. JOHNSTOWN, October 9, 1864.

A sad accident occurred here yesterday, by which an employee of the Cambria Iron Company, named Kleiber, lost his life. He was hauling a bale of hay on a wagon, when his horses became fractious, and he was jerked beneath their feet.

On Thursday, a boy named Knablespire was run over by a train of coal cars in Cambria borough, and killed. He was aged about twelve years.

Two soldiers belonging to the squad encamped on the Fair grounds here got into a difficulty one day last week concerning political matters, when one of them drew a knife and cut the other pretty severely.

The brick work of the new woolen factory, at Town's-end, is being rapidly pushed forward. A graded and paved street runs through the entire (in prospective) town. I doubt not ere long this will be one of the prettiest villages in Western Pennsylvania.

The new Presbyterian church will soon be completed, and will be one among the many great improvements that have taken and are taking place here.

FROM OUR SOLDIERS.

LETTER FROM CO. G, 209TH P. V.—NO MAIL—PROVISIONAL BRIGADE—HIGH TO A BATTLE—PRESENT POSITION—CASUALTIES, &c., &c. Correspondence of The Alleghanian. BERMUDA HUNDRED, Sept. 30.

The lover sighs, the father thinks of his wife and children, and the boy dreams of home and the fireside, as each waits in patience for the arrival of a mail from his native hills. For since we turned our backs upon Pennsylvania, on the evening of the 16th inst., until the present time, we have had no word from home.

I am still unable to give you either the brigade or division to which we are assigned, though, for the present at least, we form a portion of the 18th corps. The brigade consists of the 209th, 211th, 206th, 207th and 208th, and in the orders read is termed the provisional brigade.

YESTERDAY, about one p. m., one man was killed outright and another mortally wounded in Co. F, 211th, and a third severely wounded in the hip in the 139th N. Y., in the following manner:

—We learn that Provost Marshal Burke, of this county, had his arm broken and was otherwise severely injured by a man in the northern end of the county whom he was attempting to arrest.

The forgoing is false in every particular. Pro. Mar. Burke has not had his arm broken, neither has he been "otherwise severely injured" by a man whom he was attempting to arrest.

IN TOWN.—We are pleased to see our friend, Major James A. Skelly, in town, on a visit. He is enjoying good health, and looks every inch the soldier.

The cold weather of the past few days should admonish us all to go at once to Thompson's cheap store, Ebensburg, and lay in a supply of winter clothing, under-clothing, &c., &c.
