

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

EBENSBURG AND CRESSON RAILROAD.—On and after Monday, October 31, 1864, trains on this road will run as follows:

LEAVE EBENSBURG.—At 6.00 A. M., connecting with Pitts. & E. Ex. West and East Mail East. At 4.10 P. M., connecting with Pitts. & E. Ex. East and Mail Train West.

LEAVE CRESSON.—At 11.27 A. M., or on departure of Harr. Accommodation East. At 8.40 P. M., or on departure of Mail Train West.

COPPERHEAD ARGUMENT.—Herewith we print an anonymous letter addressed to Dr. G. W. Strohecker, of Chess Springs, this county. Dr. S. is an enrolling officer in the service of the Government, and is the same person that had a horse shot from under him, in the northeastern section of the county, one dark night not long since, by some miscreant unknown. The breathings-out of blood and slaughter the epistle indulges in are absolutely horrifying, and we would not be surprised if the marrow in the bones of many of our readers would become ice upon a mere casual introduction thereunto. With this forewarning, we transfer to our columns the letter in question:

CARROLLTOWNS, Oct. 13, 1864. G. W. STROHECKER—Sir: I write, not that I regard you in any way whatever, but to give you a little bit of advice and instruction. You know that the people of Cambria county took you out of your poverty and rags and made you what you are, in a pecuniary sense, notwithstanding all your demerits. You know you are incompetent to practice medicine. You know you are not fit to visit a decent woman. You know that you are not only vulgar, but low, and keep a bad house, and notwithstanding your knowing all this, and the people taking you up and doing so much for you, sir, you to reciprocate would rob them of the last treasure they hold dear.—You would bring calamities and distress upon every family, and even death. Is it possible that you intend to or have the bold effrontery to reside in this community? The people have borne with you and your abolition dogs until forbearance has ceased to be a christian virtue. You, sir, are the sole cause of all the trouble. You have carried lies to Hollidaysburg until you have got our loyal county polluted with Lincoln dogs, whereby you have fired the hearts of American patriots to that degree that nothing but blood will satiate, and we be to you, for you will be the first example. And I now warn you that unless all those soldiers are removed out of this county, and all those orders revoked by Monday next, there will not be left a remnant of them, you or your property, and I further do assure you that Lincoln cannot send men in sufficient numbers to save your dirty carcass. I warn you to heed this not lightly, but give heed fully, for by the eternal salvation of 3000 souls it must and will be fulfilled to the letter if every Lincoln dog is not removed.

A CITIZEN. The expressions "Abolition dogs" and "Lincoln dogs" of course refer to the provost guard stationed in this county.—Remember the stigma thus sought to be attached to your profession, brave soldiers in a just cause—bear in mind that you are classed by Copperheads (for only a Copperhead could write such a letter) in the same category with dogs! After this, if a Copperhead approach you with protestations of love and gratitude, spit in his face; and if that fails to double him up, why, enact the legitimate role of a "Lincoln dog" and bite him—that's all. We do not care to advert to this senseless piece of gasconade further than to remark that "all those soldiers" were not removed out of the county by the Monday designated, that none of them have since been either killed, wounded, or taken prisoner, and that Dr. Strohecker at very late advices was enjoying excellent health. The world moves on as usual, and all is quiet along the lines.

NEW SCHEDULE.—The following is the time of departure of the several trains on the Penna. Railroad from Cresson station, as per the new schedule which went into effect on Monday last, 31st ult.: West—Balt. Express leaves at 8.57 A. M. " Phila. Express " 9.57 A. M. " Fast Line " 9.48 P. M. " Mail Train " 8.58 P. M. " Pitts. & Erie Ex. " 7.34 A. M. " Emigrant Train " 4.55 P. M. East—Phila. Express " 8.40 P. M. " Fast Line " 1.53 P. M. " Fast Mail " 7.08 A. M. " Pitts. & Erie Ex. " 5.15 P. M. " Harrisb. Accom. " 11.27 A. M. [Don't stop.]

The new schedule for the Ebensburg & Cresson Branch RR. will be found at the top of these columns.

The mails are carried on the Pittsburgh & Erie Express West, and the Harrisburg Accommodation East. The mails for Ebensburg arrive here at 12.30, noon—depart at 6 A. M. Post Office closes at 8 o'clock, P. M.

KILLED.—There is a well authenticated report that Mr. Thos. P. Dumm, a member of the 9th Pa. Cavalry, was killed in a late skirmish with the rebels in Georgia. He was the Union candidate for Register and Recorder of Cambria county last fall, and was a most estimable young man.—We hope the story may prove incorrect, but fear for the worst.

FROM JOHNSTOWN. NOT KILLED, BUT WOUNDED—BILLY, DRAWN, BRICKBATS, AND BROKEN GLASSWARE—A BRAVE SOLDIER AT HOME—NEW CONDUCTOR ON THE RR.—REV. P. M. GARVEY.

JOHNSTOWN, Oct. 31, 1864. Correspondence of The Alleghenian. In these latter days of rumor and sensation, it is best to await the confirmation of any report before giving it to the public as reliable. I am led to this philosophical conclusion from the fact that Capt. O'Neill, of the 55th P. V., reported killed in one of Grant's late fights by all the papers, is not killed, but only wounded, and now in hospital at Annapolis.—The story of his death emanated from members of his own company, from which it was fair to presume it was correct.

A fracas occurred in a jeweler's shop here the other day, which led to rather serious results. A man had left his watch at the shop to be repaired, and on calling for it, he intimated that the charges were too much for the work performed. The jeweler, a brawny German, got angry at this, and struck at the owner of the watch, when the latter retreated to the pavement, and, pulling up a brick, threw it through the jeweler's window and show-case.—About fifty dollars' worth of damage was thus done. When the constable attempted to arrest the owner of the watch, the eye of that conservator of the public peace was also somewhat damaged. Assistance coming, the pugnacious party was ultimately safely landed in the "jug."

I neglected to notice the return to our midst of Col. John Linton, 54th P. V.—He is wounded, for the third time, but not so seriously that he is not able to be about. Col. L. is looked upon as one of the bravest and most skillful officers in Sheridan's department, and has done and is doing yeoman service for the cause of the Union. All honor to him!

Mr. Thomas Watt, formerly a clerk in the freight office here, has been appointed conductor on the Pittsburg & Erie Express, a new train on the Penna. Railroad which makes its first trip to-day. Tom will make a first class conductor, and in congratulating him on his preferment, we at the same time congratulate the railroad company that they have secured the services of so efficient and trustworthy a man. Rev. P. M. Garvey, for a long time pastor of the English Catholic congregation of this place, takes his departure for Ireland to-day, where he goes to make a brief visit to his aged parents, whom he has not seen for many years. A purse of nearly $700 has been presented him by his congregation, wherewith to pay the expenses of his journey.

FROM OUR SOLDIERS. LETTER FROM CO. C, 20TH P. V.—ALL QUIET—HOW THE SOLDIERS VOTE—A COUPLE OF INCIDENTS, &c.

BERMUDA HUNDRED, Oct. 19, '64. Correspondence of The Alleghenian. Within the limits of this department, nothing to my knowledge has transpired since my last letter worthy to be communicated. Yet the stillness is probably only the calm before the storm. The cool nights and frosty mornings and the falling leaf tell plainly that but a comparatively short time remains ere the severities of winter will put a stop to active operations. Knowing the character of our great chieftain, we feel assured that the time yet remaining will be properly used in pressing to the wall the armies of treason. And so let it be.

The following is the vote of our regiment by companies at the late election: Co. A, no. votes cast, 51 Co. H, votes cast, 39 Union majority, 14 Union majority, 17 Co. F, votes cast, 36 Co. E, votes cast, 52 Union majority, 14 Dem. majority, 18 Co. D, votes cast, 51 Co. K, votes cast, 25 Dem. majority, 1 Union majority, 9 Co. I, votes cast, 64 Co. G, votes cast, 89 Union majority, 31 Union majority, 19 Co. C, votes cast, 55 Co. B, votes cast, 34 Union majority, 55 Union majority, 18 Total number votes cast, 444; Union majority, 183.

As we left the State capital, and while passing through Baltimore, one would have thought the regiment composed almost wholly of McClellan's, so loud, so vociferous, so constant were the cheers and other demonstrations in behalf of the great military martyr. A modest Union man could do naught else than hold his peace. But behold the vote!

May I relate a couple of incidents? Some of the followers of the young defunct Napoleon had voted while at home against the right of soldiers to vote. They refused on election-day to exercise the privilege themselves, realizing the utter inconsistency of such action.

Deserters coming into our lines told of the hopes built by the rebels on the probable election of McClellan. Said more than one of these, "I will not vote for a man so well liked by traitors." Would not many at home do well to make the same declaration? GAMMA.
