VOLUME 6.

EBENSBURG, PA., THURSDAY, DECEMBER 1, 1864.

DIRECTORY.

LIST OF POST OFFICES.

Post Offices. Post Masters. Districts. Carroll. Joseph Behe, Carolltown, Chess Springs, Henry Nutter, Chest. A. G. Crooks, Taylor. Conemaugh, Washint'n. J. Houston. Cresson, Ebensburg. John Thompson, Ebensburg. Asa H. Fiske White. Fallen Timber, J. M. Christy, Gallitzin, Wm Tiley, Jr., Hemlock, I. E. Chandler, Johnstown, M. Adlesberger, Loretto. Loretto, A. Durbin, Munster, Andrew J Ferral, Susq'han. Plattsville, White. G. W. Bowman, Roseland, Stan. Wharton, St. Augustine, George Berkey, Scalp Level, B. M'Colgan, Sonman, B. F. Slick, Croyle. Summerhill, Wm. M'Connell, Washt'n. J. K. Shryock, S'merhill. Wilmore,

CHURCHES, MINISTERS, &c.

Presbuterian-REV. D. HARBISON, Pastor .-Preaching every Sabbath morning at 104 'clock, and in the evening at 6 o'clock. Saboath School at 9 o'clock, A. M. Prayer meeting every Thursday evening at 6 o'clock.

Methodist Episcopal Churen-Rev. J. S. LEM-MON, Preacher in charge. Rev. W. H. M'BRIDE, Assistant. Preaching every alternate Sabbath morning, at 101 o'clock. . Sabbath School at 9 o'clock, A. M. Prayer meeting every Thursday evening, at 7 o'clock.

Weich Independent-REV LL. R. POWELL, Pastor.-Preaching every Sabbath morning at 0 o'clock, and in the evening at 6 o'clock. Sabbath School at I o'clock, P. M. Prayer meeting on the first Monday evening of each month; and on every Tuesday, Thursday and Friday evening, excepting the first week in each month. Calvinistic Methodist-Rev. Mongan Ellis, astor .- Preaching every Sabbath evening at and 6 o'clock. Subbath School at 1' o'clock, Prayer meeting every Friday evening o'clock. Society every Tuesday evening

Disciples-Rev. W. LLOYD, Pastor .- Preachng every Sabbath morning at 10 o'clock. Particular Baptists-REV. DAVID JENKINS, astor.-Preaching every Sabbath evening at o'clock. Sabbath School at at I o'clock, P. M. Catholic-Rev. M. J. MITCHELL, Pastor .-Services every Sabbath morning at 101 o'clock and Vespers at 4 o'clock in the evening.

EBENSBURG MAILS.

MAILS ARRIVE. 124 o'clock, A. M. Eastern, daily, at 124 o'clock, A. M. Western, " at 8 o'clock, P. M.

Eastern, daily, at 8 o'clock, P. M. The mails from Butler, Indiana, Strongsown, &c., arrive on Thursday of each week, at 5 o'clock, P. M. Leave Ebensburg on Friday of each week,

The mails from Newman's Mills, Cartown, &c., arrive on Monday, Wednesday and Friday of each week, at 3 o'clock, P. M. Leave Ebensburg on Tuesdays, Thursdays Ad Saturdays, at 7 o'clock, A. M.

RAILROAD SCHEDULE. CRESSON STATION.

"cst-Dail, Express leaves at			12:474 Zk. 2014
14	Phila, Express	76	#9.57 A. M.
:64:	Fast Line	44	*9.48 P. M·
+1	Mail Train	44	8.38 P. M.
14	Pitts. & Erie Ex.	44	7.34 A. M.
-11	Emigrant Train	6.6	4.55 P. M.
Esst-	-Phila. Express	44	*8.40 P. M.
640	Fast Line	44	*1.53 P. M.
- HC (r	Fast Mail	44	7.08 A. M.
0.	Pitts. & Erie Ex.	66	6.15 P. M.
	Harrisb. Accom.	25	11.27 A. M.
[*Do:	n't stop.]

COUNTY OFFICERS.

Judges of the Courts-President, Hon. Geo. ley, Henry C. Devine. Prothonotary -- Joseph M'Donald. Register and Recorder -- James Griffin. Sheriff-John Buck. District Attorney .- Philip S. Noon. County Commissioners-John Campbell, Ed ard Glass, E. R. Dunnegan. Treasurer-Isaac Wike. Poor House Directors-George M'Cullough corge Delany, Irwin Ratledge. Poor House Treasurer-George C. K. Zahm Auditors-William J. Williams, George C. Zahin, Francis Tierney. County Surveyor .- Henry Scanlan. Coroner. -William Flattery.

Sup't. of Common Schools-J. F. Condon. TRENSBURG BOR. OFFICERS. the people's choice.

Mercantile Appraiser-John Cox.

AT LARGE. Justices of the Peace-David H. Roberts arrison Kinkend. Burgess-A. A. Barker. School Directors-Abel Lloyd, Phil S. Noon. shua D. Parrish, Hugh Jones, E. J. Mills.

avid J. Jones. EAST WARD. Constable-Thomas J. Davis. wn Council-J. Alexander Moore, Daniel Evans, Richard R. Tibbott, Evan E. Evans, Inspectors-Alexander Jones. D. O. Evans. Judge of Election-Richard Jones, Jr. Assessor-Thomas M. Jones. Assistant Assessors-David E. Evans, Wm.

Constable-William Mills, Jr. own Council-John Dougherty, George C. Zahm, Isaac Crawford, Francis A. Shoeker, James S. Todd. spectors-G. W. Oatman, Roberts Evans. Judge of Election-Michael Hasson.

Assessors-William Barnes, Dan-

ttessor James Murray.

The charming delusion is over ; Your dream of devotion is past, Gallitzin. Washt'n. And I-am no longer a lover. Johnst'wn. But darling, (allow me the phrase

For simple civility's sake,) Munster. Don't think, in this calmest of lays, I've any reproaches to make. Clearfield. Ah no! not a querulous word Richland. Shall fall from my passionless pen; Washt'n. The sharp little scoldings you've heard I never shall utter again.

> But if in this final adieu, Too chirly for even a kiss, I venture a comment or two, You surely won't take it amiss. I'm thinking, my dear, of the day-(Well, habit is certainly queer,

Select Poetrn.

Estranged.

BY JOHN G. SAXE.

Ah well! we are wiser as last:

And still, in a lover-like way, I call you my "darling" and "dear"). I'm thinking, I say, of the time I vowed you were charmingly clever, And raved of your beauty in rhyme.

And promised to love you forever! Forever! a beautiful phrase, Suggestive of beavenly pleasure, That millions and millions of days Were wholly unequal to measure! And yet, as we sadly have seen. The case is remarkably clear. 'Tis a word that may happen to mean Rather less than a calendar year! Yet I never have broken my vow, Although I admit that I swore To love you forever, and now Confess that I love you no more; For, since you're no longer the same, (Heaven pardon and pity us both!) To be loving you now, I proclaim, Were really breaking my oath!

Personal Qualities of President Lincoln --- Speech of Hon. Edward Everett.

At a grand banquet, given by the Merchants of Boston in honor of the officers of the Kearsarge, on the evening of the 15th ult., the following was among the regular toasts :

The President of the United States-Called for the second time to the most exalted office in the gift of the people, may be so administer the high trust as to receive the support of the whole country, and restore to the Union the blessings of a speedy, honorable and last-

Hon. Edward Everett was called upon to respond to this sentiment, when he arose and spoke as follows :--

This mark of respect is never withheld lie duty. from the head of Government in England. ers cheerfully paid, irrespective of party, manners, and conversation of the exiled alike lieutenants of M'Clellan. to an hereditary sovereign, were withheld French princes. I will take the liberty to This story is unsupported by published style. from the chief magistrate of a great re- say, that on the only social occasion I ever facts, and is essentially incredible. We public, elevated to that position by the had the honor to be in the company of receive it only as the coinage of some fer. fore, he went to the house, and ascending to announce his good fortune. voice of the people. The sovereign, who the President, viz, the commemoration at tile brain, musing and broading over what the steps, rang the bell. rules by the right of birth, has come into Gettysburg, he sat at table at the house might have been. If it has a shred of . A man servant came to the door. but a civic act like that of this day week, side of several distinguished persons, la- apparent, and we shall await with interest in one great Republican Union, establish- Washington, since appointed French Amed over a territory as vast as Europe, have bassador at Madrid, and the Admiral of

of a civil war kindling throughout the | The most important objection urged country, and without tumult, violence, or against Mr. Lincoln is that personally he the display of military force, have elected lacks fixedness of purpose, and that his

in the annals of the world! alty has no place in a republic. I regard | might be brought against Washington and it, on the contrary, as one of the elements | his administration. Under circumstances of the patriotic sentiment, which surely vastly less embarrassing, he placed in his ought to prevail with augmented force on cabinet and kept there as long as they the part of the citizens of a State, where could be induced to stay, the two political choice. Loyalty, in fact, in its primitive merely of different wings of the same po- promotion was good. meaning, is fealty to the law, and as such | litical connection, but the heads of two surely carries with it, as a necessary con- radically opposite parties. Mr. Monroe, sequence, the daty of becoming respect, in though elected himself by an almost unau- stances with which his employers were honesty." their several degrees, to those who, on imous vote, allowed his cabinet to contain unacquainted. His mother was a widow. behalf of the people, make, administer and three rival candidates for the succession, The sudden death of Mr. Jones had thrown execute the law. On any other principle, who differed radically on almost every the entire family upon their own resources. it would follow that the marks of respect political question. It rarely happens in and these were, indeed, but slender. paid, not to the office, but to the persons is practicable in difficult times. In Enof the individuals. Now, though at the gland, where the theory and practice of her subjects, Mr. Thackeray's lecture on in the cabinet of Lord Palmerston. the four Georges are too well remembered But I forbear. The election, in all but But Mary Jones-Edward's sister-

proposed the toast to which you have "down their idle weapons will drop," or | would have been most grateful to her. called me to respond, is entitled to this be wrested from their hands by the indigity. Now that the struggle is past, I am betrayed into this desolating war. happiness to fall upon "the era of good | that "the Union must and shall be preor to Mr. Liucola. The President gave feel that they are striking, not for this or the United States. Having already had When I sat in the Senate with Judge pany go forth again to other conflicts and lying on the floor. an opportunity in Fancuil Hall of paying | Douglas, I thought him, for business and other triumphs, let them go with the asa grateful tribute of respect to Cantain debate, the equal of the ablest in that surance that they carry with them the found it to be a ten dollar bill. Winslow and his gallant associates, I shall | body, but his speeches in the scontorial | hearts of a united people. leave this noble topic to the gentlemen congress were in no respect superior to who will follow me, and who are so well . Mr. Lincoln's. I believe the President aylor, Huntingdon; Associates, George W. me. The toust is one which I am sure circumstances of unparalleled difficulty, stance is as follows: will be welcomed by every gentleman at he has administered the Government with | The Rebel States by secret preconcert

the world like the meanest of his subjects, of my friend, David Wills, Esq., by the fact beneath it, that fact must soon become by which twenty-two millions of freemen, dies and gentlemen, foreigners and Amer- its development. citizens of twenty-two States, associated icans, among them the French Minister at assembled on an appointed day, in their the French fleet, and that in gentlemanly last year only 9 majority. respective tows, cities, and villages, after appearance, manners, and conversation, he an ardent canvass, with all the excitements was the peer of any man at the table.

the constitutional head of the State, is a cabinet and administration have wanted spectacle of moral subrimity not surpassed unity of counsel. I think I shall offend no candid opponent (I certainly am no Mr. Chairman, I do not agree with partisan myself) if I remind you that prethose who maintain that the idea of loy- cisely the same charge on the same grounds paid to a European king and queen were | popular governments that any other course | present time the throne of England is parliamentary government have been ma- family. Yet, by means of untiring indusfilled by a sovereign lady, who, by all the turing for ages, there has seldom been a try, they had continued thus far to live, womanly not less than all the queenly cabinet in which the same dissidence has using strict economy, or course. Yet they virtues is also enthroned in the hearts of not existed. It does at the present time | wanted none of the absolute necessaries of

lic sentiment in England during two its victory, with moderation and equanim. own labor, but also prevented her mother -must have been strangely misdirected. common country can be carried through otherwise have been able to do. But I would not have it inferred, from its great trial. The last hope of the hos- | On the morning of the day on which our

sure that no liberal-minded person, how- Let us, then, Mr. Chairman, study the ever opposed to him politically, (and you things which will bring about an honoraknow, sir, that I belong to "the Presi-dent's opposition,") will be unwilling that, countrymen. It rejoiced my heart the ry," said Edward, just as he set out for not at first appear to notice Edward, but in performing the duty you have devolved other day, at the opening of the Fair, to the store. "Next year I shall receive a in about half an hour summoned him to upon me, I should say that I recognize in be followed on the platform by my life. larger salary, and then we sha'n't have to the office, which was partitioned off from him a full measure of the qualities which long friend Winthrop, who filled the same | pinch so much." entitle him to the personal respect of the place on the unsuccessful electoral ticket of their confidence, not extended to any whose admirable speech commanded the knowing how hard you and mother find it of his predecessors in this generation. It entire sympathy of the audience. A fair to get along without me." is no small proof of this that he has passed appeal has been made to the people, to through the fiery ordeal of the recent which they have responded in terms not Mary," said Mrs. Jones, soothingly, though canvass, and stood the storm of detraction to be mistaken. Let the successful party her heart sank within her, at the thought from hundreds of vigorous and hestile continue to abstain from all unkindly ex. of her empty larder. "Only get well, and presses, and had so little said against him uitation, and the defeated from all bitter | then we shall get along well enough, after-(I speak now of personal qualities) which partisan warfare. General Grant has de- wards." deserves even an answer. There is no clared that the late election is worth a one of his predecessors, not even Wash- pitched battle, not surely because it is a that Edward went to the store in the ington, of whom as many and as reproach- party triumph, but because it is the trum- morning. All around him were boxes of ful things have not been said, unless per | pet tone of the people's voice, affirming | rich goods, representing thousands of dolhaps it be Mr. Monroe, who had the the immortal maxin of General Jackson lars in money. feeling," and who was, in no one quality, served." Let our brave officers, scamen value of one of these boxes, how much either as a man or as a President, superi- and soldiers, on the land and on the sea, good it would do poor Mary." MR. CHAIRMAN: I am highly compli- ample proof of his intellectual capacity that man, for this or that party, but for Edward was about to close the warehouse. a living, and we live very poorly at the mented by being called upon to respond when he contested a seat in the Senate of the whole country, and when our gallant But as he passed the desk of his employer, best. But a fortnight since Mary became to the toast in honor of the President of the United States with Judge Douglas .- | guests who now honor us with their com-able to do it justice, and confine myself to to be entirely conscientious in the dis- To BE -The New York Tribune says there she shall have some every day. Perhaps the specific duty which you have assigned charge of his high trust, and that, under is a rich story current, whereof the sub- she would like a cheken."

the table, whatever differences of political the deepest sense of responsibility to his had their Legislatures in session on the opinion may prevail here. You pay this country and his God. He is eminently 8th of November, and each of them chose mark of respect to the President, not as kind-hearted. I am sure he spoke the their quota of Presidential Electors, as the successful candidate after a severely truth, the other day, when he said that he though they had never attempted to secede contested election, but as the constitution- had never willingly planted a thorn in any from the Union. These electors, in ease never know it. And after all, what are al head of the Government of the country, man's bosom. He is one of the most la- their aggregate vote would suffice to give ten dollars to him. He is worth a hundred the supreme executive officer of the Uni- borious and indefatigable men in the M'Clellan a majority over Lincoln, were thousand." ted States, the commander-in-chief of the country, and that he has been able to sus- to assemble on the first Wednesday in army and navy, and the personal repre- tain himself under as great a load of care December, and formally cast their votes sentative of the people in the family of as was ever laid upon the head or heart of for M'Clellan and Pendleton, sending them nations. In the honors you pay to the a living man is in no small degree owing on to Washington in due form, and back-President, you honor yourselves; it is a to the fact that the vindictive and angry ing them by delegations to either House, becoming mark of respect on the part of passions form no part of his nature, and should that be deemed essential. Then, a people thus to recognize the object of that a kindly and playful spirit mingles when the day arrived for officially counting its sweetness with the austere cup of pub- the votes and declaring the result, the opposition of all shades, was to insist that It may seem hardly worth while to ne- M'Clellan and Pendleton were daly elect-Not only at home in Great Britain, but in tice the descriptions which represent the ed, and, if this were not conceded, break and that must never be allowed. He must the world-encompassing circuit of her do- President as a person of uncouth appear- up the session in a row, and inaugurate a preserve his integrity at all hazards.

Orange, N. J., the home of M'-Clellan, gave 102 majority for Lincoln-to peace through the orestures of Three Roman cardinals have died since spring.

Edward's Temptation.

It was six o'clock in the afternoon. At this time the great wholesale warehouse of Messrs. Hubbard & Son was wont to close, unless the pressure of business compelled the partners to keep open until later.

The duty of closing usually devolved on Edward Jones, a boy of fourteen, who had lately been engaged to perform a few light duties, for which he received the sum of fifty dollars annually. He was the boy, but if he behaved himself so as to win the all government ultimately rests on popular leaders (Jefferson and Hamilton) not approbation of his employers, his chance of bard, "and I will remember it. Honesty

Yer there were some things that rendered this small salary a trial to him-circum- I shall have perfect confidence in your

There was an elder sister who assisted her mother to sew, and this, with Edward's salary, constituted the entire income of the

not to prove either that loyalty is not a its formalities, is decided. It is due to grew sick. She had taken a severe cold sentiment which mainly regards the per- both parties to say that they accept the | which terminated in a fever. This not son of the sovereign, or if it is, that pub- result, the one its defeat, and the other | only cut off the income arising from her | successive reigns-to go no further back ity. It is in this spirit alone that our from accomplishing as much as she would these remarks, that the President of the tile leaders is in our division. With sure story commences, Mary had expressed a United States, in whose honor you have indications of a cordial union on our part, longing for an orange. In her fever it It is hard indeed, when we are obliged mark of respect only in his official capac- nant and weary masses, whom they have to deny those we love that which would be He had never before felt the craving for a refreshment and benefit to them. Mrs. Jones felt this, and so also did

"Never mind, Edward," said she, smiling people, who have just given him a proof that I do on that which has prevailed, and faintly, "I ought not to have asked for it,

"Don't trouble yourself about that,

It was with the memory of this scene

"Oh," thought he, "if I only had the

The long day were away at last, and

He picked it up, and to his great joy

The first thought that flashed upon him was, "how much good this will do Mary. WHAT MIGHT HAVE BEEN, IF IT WAS I can buy her the oranges she wants, and But in a moment later his countenance

"It isn't mine," he sighed. "It must be Mr. Hubbard's. This is his desk, and he must have dropped it." "Still," urged the tempter, "he will Still Edward was not satisfied. Whether Mr. Hubbard could spare it or not, was Edward, his eyes sparkling with delight. not the question. It was rightfully his, and must be given back to him. "I'll go to his house and give it to him tinue to merit my confidence." this very night," said Edward, "otherwise

I might be tempted to keep it." He determined to go to Mr. Hubbard's before he went home. The sight of his sick sister might weaken his resolution, minions, wherever a festive entertainment is held, the health of the Queen is "in did not think it out of place, in the most other, the present Rebellion merging itself."

He knew where Mr. Hubbard lived. It the way, you may have the rest of the day to yourself." their flowing cups freshly remembered." magnificent discourse in the English lan- in the newer and more formidable, Jeff. ionable street. He had passed it several It would be unbecoming, indeed, if hon- guage, to comment on the appearance, Davis, Lee, and Beauregard becoming times, and wondered whether a man must sudden riches hastened to the market, at

"Well?" said he.

"Is Mr. Hubbard at home?" "Yes, but he has only just come in, and I don't think he can see you," was the quietly, "and have just come from the he had done a kind action, confirmed a boy store. I think he will see me if you will in his integrity, and gladdened a strugmention this to him."

NUMBER 10. "Very well, you can come in."

Edward was left standing in the hall while Mr. Hubbard was sought by the

He came out in a moment, and looked at Edward with a little surprise. "Well," he said inquiringly, has anything happened?"

"No, sir," said Edward, "but I picked up this bill near your desk, and supposed you must have dropped it. I thought I had better bring it directly here."

"You have done well," said Mr. Hubis a very valuable quality in a boy just commencing a business career. Hereafter

Edward was gratified by this assurance, yet as the door closed behind him, and he walked out into the street, the thought of his sister sick at home again intruded on him, and he thought regrecfully how much good could have been done with ten dollars. Not that he regretted that he had been honest. There was a satisfaction in doing right-but I think my readers will understand his feelings without any explanation.

Mrs. Jones brought some toast to her daughter's bedside, but Mary motioned it away, thanking her mother for ther trouble in making it, but," said she, "I don't think I could possibly eat it." "Is there anything you could relish,

"No," said she, hesitatingly, "nothing that we can get." Mrs. Jones sighed -- a sigh that Edward

It was with a heavy heart that Edward started for the warehouse next morning.

wealth which now took possession of him. He set about his duties as usual. About two hours after he had arrived at the the remainder of the spacious rooms in which goods were stored. He smiled pleasantly as Edward entered his presence.

"Tell me frankly," he said, "did you not feel an impulse to keep the bill which you found last night?" "I hope you won't be offended with me.

Mr. Hubbard," said Edward, "if I say that "Tell me all about it," said Mr. Hubbard with interest. "What was it that withheld you? I should never have known

"I knew that," said Edward. "Then what withheld you from taking

"First I will tell you what tempted me," said Edward. "My mother and sister are obliged to depend upon sewing for his attention was drawn to a bit of paper sick, and since then we have had a hard time. Mary's appetite is poor, and does not relish our food, but we are not able to get her anything better. When I picked up that bill I couldn't help thinking how much I might buy with it for her."

"And yet you did not take it?" "No, sir; it would have been wrong, and could not have looked you in the face after it."

Mr. Hubbard went to the desk and wrote a cheque. "How much do I pay you now?" he

"Fifty dollars a year," said Edward. "Henceforth your duties will be increased, and I will pay you two hundred. Will that please you?

"Two bundred dollars a year!" exclaimed "Yes, and at the end of the year it will be increased it, as I doubt not, you con-

"Oh, sir, how can I thank you?" said Edward, full of gratitude.

"By preserving your integrity. As I presume you are in present need of money. will pay you one quarter in advance .-Here is a cheque for fifty dollars which you can get cashed at the bank. And, by

Edward flew to the bank, and with his not feel happy who was able to live in such which place he purchased a supply of provisions such as he knew would be Without any unnecessary delay, there- welcome at home, and then hastened home

A weight seemed to fall off the hearts of mother and daughter, as they heard his hurried story, and Mrs. Jones thanked God for bestowing upon her a son whose good principles had brought them this great reliet. And Mr. Hubbard slept none the worse "I am in his employ," said Edward that night that at slight pecuniary sacrifice gling family.