ETCHINGS.—Not many nights since, the Treasurer's safe of Huntingdon county was blown open by burglars, in quest of plunder.

...The vote of Co. A, 205th P. V.—composed principally of Cambria county boys—for President was as follows: For Lincoln, 49; for M'Clellan, 12—Union majority, 37.

...The election-day a loyal young lady of Barcoe township, that county, walked her M. Clellan bean to the polls and politely requested him to vote for Father Abraham.

HASSONIA.—In the darker ages, Michael Hasson, editor of the Ebensburg Dem. & Sent., represented Cambria county for one term in the State Legislature.

CHARITY, they say, covers a multitude of sins. So does a hat on Hasson's head. Hasson has crossed the great "herring pond" three times—first from Ireland here, then hence to Ireland, and again from Ireland back here.

IN CASE an artist were to attempt a portraiture of Hasson, which view, as the most striking and characteristic, would he take of the subject? A stern view, of course.

FROM OUR SOLDIERS. LETTER FROM CO. C, 209TH P. V.—IN A BIT OF A BRUSH WITH THE ENEMY—REBEL ASSAULT ON OUR PICKET LINE—OUR FORCES SURPRISED—CAPTURE OF COL. KAUFMAN—CASUALTIES IN THE REGIMENT, &c., &c. BERMUDA HUNDRED, Nov. 21, '64. Correspondence of The Alleghanian.

Before the reception of this, you and your readers will doubtless have heard of the affair in which the 209th have taken part. But first of all allow me to state for the pacification of all uneasiness, that every member of Co. C is safe from all harm. It appears that on Thursday about eight and a half o'clock, P. M., an assault was stealthily made on the pickets in our front, driving them in, and capturing a portion of the line. The rebels came up saying, "Don't shoot; we're friends," until they reached our line, when they immediately threw themselves into our pits, and assumed an offensive attitude. The deception practiced by the rebels would hardly have succeeded, had not our men supposed them to be deserters. Upon gaining the rear they immediately commenced their process of gobbling up as many as possible of our men. A brisk fire was soon opened on them, and their operations stopped, but not before they had killed, wounded and taken prisoner some forty-five of the 12th New Hampshire, upon whom the attack was first made, and about twenty-five of our own regiment, among whom I am sorry to name Col. Kaufman, Capt. Lee, of Co. F, and Lieut. Herdick, of Co. B. The colonel, being general officer of the line, was making his usual round when the attack commenced, but, inclined to think that our men had become frightened at the approach of deserters, was telling them not to fire, when he was approached and seized, but he collared and threw his antagonist, and was about to draw his revolver, when he was again seized and overpowered by two others, and his capture completed. He was accompanied by Capt. Lee, who is supposed to share his fate. There is a report, but it is not credited, that after being taken he shot at his captors, who, for this, killed him, burying his body in one of the pits. The blow to the regiment is a severe one, and casts a gloom over the whole command, for Col. Tobias B. Kaufman was considered by all as a kind, competent and brave commander.

The loss to the regiment is as follows: Co. A, missing, 9; Co. F, 13; Co. D, 2; Co. B, 1; making a total of 25. Some of those put down as missing may be either killed or wounded, but all that is certain of them is that they are missing. Co. C was so fortunate as to lose none either in killed or wounded, though quite warmly engaged. Yesterday our batteries were firing most of the day, doing considerable damage to the rebel works. The rebels replied but feebly and ineffectually.

SELLERS' COUGH SYRUP.

From A. Cushing, Druggist, S. Bend, Ind. D. S. OWEN, Esq.—Dear Sir—In reply to your favor of the 13th instant, I would say that the sale of Sellers' Medicines has far exceeded my expectations; and in no case have they failed to produce the desired effect. The Cough Syrup is a cure for coughs, colds, &c., and the cheapness of the article places it within the reach of all, which, together with its efficacious qualities, renders it a universal favorite. Not a day passes without numerous calls for "the one thing useful," at this season of the year, viz. Sellers' Cough Syrup. A. G. CUSHING.

JOHNSON'S RHEUMATIC COMPOUND AND BLOOD PURIFIER!

But great internal remedy is the best medicine ever offered to the public for the effectual cure of Rheumatism, Gout, Neuralgia, Dyspepsia, and as a Blood Purifier, it has no equal for all diseases arising from an impure state of the blood, such as Scrofula or King's Evil, Scald Head, Tetter, Ring Worm, Female complaints, and all break-outs on the face or body. The vast number of rub-on medicines which formerly have been used for those diseases, were merely temporary in their effects, and of doubtful virtue, but the RHEUMATIC COMPOUND reaches the source of all trouble, and effectually banishes the disease from the system by its immediate action on the blood. We advise one and all to give it a trial, and become satisfied of its wonderful power.
