A humorous writer thus describes how he got out of a bad scrape in a Police

"The next morning the Judge of the Police Court sent for me. Went down and he received me cordially. Said he'd heard of the wonderful things that I had accomplished at Bryan's Hall, and he was proud of me. I was a promising young man, and all that. After the ceremonies, I loaned the city ten dollars."

A Maine officer recently applied for a furlough, stating that if it was not granted he should lose fifty thousand, dollars. He got his furlough.

have allowed you to kill three hundred men in a fight, and surely you will permit me to descend a chimney in Swirzerland."

An officer of very small stature, but very hasty temper, was one day vehemently scolding the first soldier of his company -a man of uncommon stature. The soldier for some time patiently, and even unconceruedly, endured the storm of vituperation rising up to him from his diminutive chieftain. Finding, however, that instead of abating, the rage of his officer went on increasing, he quietly said to the next man, "John, go and fetch him a stool; I believe he wants to give me a box on the

A CARD. WITMER'S BRIDGE, Lancaster Tp. July 30, 1860. MESSRS, EVANS AND WATSON: GENTLEMEN-The small size No. 1 Salamander safe witch purchased from your agent, Mr. Adam II Barr, in Lancaster City, on July 20th, 1858, has been subjected to a very severe test which it withstood in a most satisfactory manner. This Safe, containing all my books together with valuable papers belonging to myself and some to my neignbors and friends and represeting a value of over Twenty Thousand Dollars, ($20,000) was in my Mill which was destroyed on the night of the 27th of July, 1860, and passed through the fiery ordeal unscathed. The Safe was on the second floor IMPORTER and and fell to the basement or the Mill, and was subjected for six hours to an intense heat > confined within the prick walls. After the fire the safe was opened and the books and papers taken out in a state of perfect preservation, the paper not even being discolored This fact was, however, to many bystanders a better recommendation of your Saces than could be expressed in any other words from me. Yours Respectfully, SAMUEL RANCK. BEA. A large assortment of the above qual-
