

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

LEAVE EBENSBURG—At 6.00 A. M., connecting with Pitts. & E. Ex. West and East Mail East. At 4.10 P. M., connecting with Pitts. & E. Ex. East and Mail Train West.

ETCHINGS.—Mr. Henry Hopple, the Carroll township German whom we noticed last week as having been arrested by the military authorities on the charge of counseling resistance to the draft, &c., has been released on his parole of honor in like manner no more.

Notice that the election of officers for the Ebensburg & Cresson Railroad Co. and the Protection Mutual Fire Insurance Co. of Cambria county, respectively, will be held on the 9th January, prox.

We understand that a company has been formed in this place, and an engine purchased and sent forward, to bore for oil in Clearfield township, Cambria county. Indications of the substance have been discovered in that locality, and it is confidently predicted a reservoir of oil equal in richness to that of Venango county will speedily be brought to light. So note it!

All persons interested are hereby notified that the mails for Carrolltown, Plattville, Newman's Mills, &c., close at the Ebensburg P. O. on Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings, at 8 o'clock, instead of on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, at noon.

The salary of Rev. A. M'Elwain, pastor of the Presbyterian church, Indiana, has been increased from $800 to $1,200 a year.

The excellent sleighing we spoke about last week as peculiar to The Mountain is no more! Through the influence of sundry protracted rains the latter part of last week and the beginning of the present, the snow (of which there was a depth of eight inches) disappeared with unparalleled celerity, leaving behind as token of its brief existence an ocean of rain-water, slush and mud.

Diphtheria is said to prevail in the neighborhood of Wilmore, this county.

Court continued in session all last week, adjourning on Saturday, noon. A considerable amount of business was transacted.

Rev. J. S. Lemmon, pastor of the M. E. Church, Ebensburg, having been appointed Chaplain of the 209th P. V., departed for the scene of his future labors on Monday. He carries with him the prayers and best wishes of this entire community that he may be successful in his new calling. Chaplains who are sincere, capable, and efficient are scarce in the army.—Mr. L. will impart a dignity and character to the calling which will redeem it from much of the odium in which it is held, worthily or unworthily, in the estimation of the public.

It is in contemplation to organize a literary society in Johnstown.

Tom Adams, the leader of the gang of outlawed conscripts that took it upon themselves to defy the authority of the Government in Clearfield county, last week, and who was killed for his pains, was formerly a resident of the northern part of this county.

If you want to show your friendship for and appreciation of The Alleghanian, subscribe for it, and pay for it in advance; send it your job work and advertising; help to make it interesting by contributing items of local interest to its columns; do not expect the editor to call attention to your business "free, gratis, for nothing;" pay your bills promptly; help to extend its circulation and influence. That's the way to do it!

The Hollidaysburg Standard don't like "political sermons." The devil is said to also entertain a violent antipathy to them!

The Harrisburg Telegraph says the farmers in that section have wary conscience—on market mornings. We hope the disease isn't infectious, for our farmers here still retain some slight symptoms of conscience, which we would be loath to see wiped out of existence entirely!

Indications of oil have been discovered in Indiana county, and companies are being formed to prospect for the hidden treasure.

The sale of Government horses at Johnstown on Thursday last was largely attended. The Rosinantes were sold at prices varying from one dollar to seventy-five dollars.

THE HOLIDAYS.—The Holidays are coming! Their brave, hearty grasp is on our lintel. The sound of their footsteps greet us turn where we may. They peer at us, and grin at us, and make comic faces at us through the interstices of a battered, shattered old year, and blow their genial breath in our very faces. They are coming! Soon they will be with us—the Holidays. Oh! joy, contentment, and universal beatitude—oh! jollity, heart-swelling, and love! With us—the Holidays—the halcyon epoch of human blessedness and appreciation of that which is good—the brief season when the genius of Mirth and Love throw the broad ægis of their welcome protection around us, to shield us from the world's cold storm. Speed, speed their coming!

It is dark without, and the North Wind sighs a requiem over the bitter desolateness of the scene. Gloom sits perched on the brow of Nature, painting it a funeral hue. The year is in the throes of dissolution! With that word, the mind wanders back over green fields along by gurgling waters to shady bowers alive with fragrance and melody, and asks itself—Is this the end of all? blackness and darkness, must they come at last to mildew and wither the fairest scene, the brightest prospect, the fondest hope, the most exalted aspiration? The conviction comes unbidden that all things earthly, soever bright and glowing, must speedily "fade as a leaf," and then the mind, obamleon-like taking its character from its surroundings, puts on a sombre, misanthropic garment, and wraps itself in unapproachable austerity. Dark, indeed. But look ahead! In the dim distance, a new year phoenix-like arises from the ashes of its predecessor, strong, youthful, vigorous, and taking up the lines from where they had been dropped by the hand of decrepitude, springs with a hurrah to the task of rattling along merrily the wheels of rejuvenated Time. By that token, the impenetrable clouds of darkness and misanthropy go rolling back upon themselves, disclosing to view a picture fair as the fauciful creation of a dream, and brimming over with sweets and high promises. It is the transformation of Old to New.

Look ahead! Though darkness may for a time encompass you, and all about you appear dismal and gloomy, despair not, but look ahead! There comes ever a transformation. Sooner or later the old and hideous must give way to the new and beautiful. First or last, the "silver lining" will assert itself. Look ahead, and know that shadows and thick clouds under the magic hand of Time must fall as scales from about your temporal happiness, just as shadows and thick clouds obscuring your spiritual pathway are exercised by each day's march you make nearer toward your Home.

But—that's a sermon. Sermonizing avant! The Holidays are coming! In view of this fact, we throw up our cap—the one with the waving plume in it—and shout: Dum vicimus, vicimus! Washington Irving says:—"Amidst the general call to happiness which prevails at this period, what bosom can remain insensible? He who can sit down darkling and repining when all around is joyful, may have his moments of strong excitement and selfish gratification, but—living, he still don't live!

Reader, we wish you a merrie Christmas! Heaven send you mighty appetites, with much turkey and things to link thereupon. If you kiss a pretty girl under the mistletoe, may she kiss you in return. As long as your Yule Clog burns, may your old nut-brown punch-bowl continue to give forth its accustomed balmy incense. During the day, may you bury Care just outside the door, that you may tread on him as you go in and out. May you be happy!

Reader, we salute you! In the name of St. Washael, good genius of Holiday times, we salute you on either cheek, and wish you Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!

A SHOCKING OCCURRENCE.—On Friday night week, the dwelling-house of Mrs. Charlotte Yager, in Chest township, this county, together with its contents, was entirely destroyed by fire. The family succeeded in making their escape, in their night clothes, from the flames, with the exception of a little boy three years old, who, sad to relate, was burned to ashes with the building. The fire originated from a defective stovepipe.

SELLER'S COLUMN.—We direct the attention of our readers to the column advertisement of Sellers' Medicines, on this page. Those medicines are said by those who have tried them to possess wonderful curative powers. Try them!

CORRECT THE ENROLLMENT!—We beg to impress upon the minds of our readers the importance of correcting the enrollment list. This list is the basis by which the apportionment of a district is arrived at. Take Ebensburg for example: She has say 100 enrolled names on her list, twenty-five per cent. of which, probably, would be stricken off on application to the Provost Marshal. If her apportionment under a draft should happen to be one in four, with the enrollment uncorrected her quota would be 25—with the enrollment corrected it would be only 18. These 18, to be sure, would be drawn out of a diminished whole, thus causing the correcting the list to assume the dimensions of a simple problem in proportion, but, then, with the enrollment uncorrected, twenty-five per cent. of all the names drawn stand a reasonable chance of being exempted, leaving the quota of 25 in reality to be furnished from a list which in justice should only be called upon to furnish 18. These are facts which should commend themselves to the serious consideration of all those "between the ages of twenty and forty-five." If they allow the quotas of their respective districts under any coming draft to be in excess of what they should be, it will be their own fault. In this connection, we refer our readers to the advertisement in another column of Pro. Mar. Lloyd relative to the correction of the enrollment.

THE ALLEGED FRAUDS ON THE 55TH P. V.—Our readers will remember that in March last, in the State Senate, a committee of investigation made a report charging Col. Richard White, of the 55th P. V., and Capt. David Fox, of Co. A, same regiment, (both officers from Cambria county,) with conduct prejudicial to the service, in that they defrauded re-enlisting members of their regiment and new volunteers out of bounty money to the amount of nearly $17,000, and recommending a court of inquiry by the Secretary of War to investigate the charges preferred. Pursuant to this recommendation, a court martial convened in Carlisle a couple of weeks ago, when and where the conduct of the Col. and Capt. was exposed to official scrutiny. The result was that Col. White was honorably acquitted of the charge laid at his door. The finding of the court martial in the case of Capt. Fox has not as yet transpired.

DIED: At his residence, Ebensburg, on Wednesday morning, 14th inst., Mr. WILLIAM T. SLOAN, aged about 38 years. The deceased was a most estimable citizen, and universally loved and respected. If ever there was a sincere Christian, he was one. His friends and relatives may sorrow at his untimely taking away, but their grief cannot but be tempered by the sweet knowledge that for him this dark, tempestuous world of troubles has been exchanged for a bright and glowing one, where white-robed angels sweetly sing, and joy and happiness reign supreme.

"OFFICIAL"—The Dem. & Sent. (not very good authority,) states that the army vote cast by Cambria county soldiers at Hancock station, Virginia, for Lincoln, 21 votes, was counted twice by our Return Judges. Rectifying this error, the correct majority for McClellan in the county would be 813, (not 913, as the Dem. & Sent. has it,) instead of 792.

In town several days last week—Capt. W. B. Lowman, of Johnstown, Squire John Porter, of Henlock, and Messrs P. L. Linton and Robt. E. Lucas, of Pittsburg—all good fellows.

NO PAPER.—In order to afford us opportunity to make some needed improvements touching the appearance of The Alleghanian, no paper will be issued from this office for two weeks to come.

JOHNSON'S RHEUMATIC COMPOUND AND BLOOD PURIFIER!

This great internal remedy is the best medicine ever offered to the public for the effectual cure of Rheumatism, Gout, Neuralgia, Dyspepsia, and as a Blood Purifier, it has no equal for all diseases arising from an impure state of the blood, such as Scrofula or King's Evil, Scald Head, Tetter, Ring Worm, Female complaints, and all break outs on the face or body. The vast number of rub-on medicines which formerly have been used for those diseases were merely temporary in their effects, and of doubtful virtue, but the RHEUMATIC COMPOUND reaches the source of all trouble, and effectually banishes the disease from the system by its immediate action on the blood. We advise one and all to give it a trial, and become satisfied of its wonderful power.

SELLERS' LIVER PILLS!

Read and judge for yourself. SILVER CREEK, Ohio Co., Virginia, } March 20, 1849. Mr. R. E. SELLERS—Dear Sir—I think it a duty I owe to you and the public generally to state that I have been afflicted with Liver Complaint for a long time, and so badly that an abscess formed and broke, which left me in a very low state. Having heard of your celebrated Liver Pills being for sale by A. R. Sharp, West Liberty, and recommended to me by my physician, Dr. F. Smith, I concluded to give them a fair trial. I purchased one box, and found them just what they are recommended—the best Liver Pills ever used; and after taking four boxes, I find the disease has entirely left me, and am now perfectly well. Respectfully yours, D. H. COLEMAN.

SELLERS' COUGH SYRUP!

From A. Cushing, Druggist, S. Bend, Ind. D. S. OWEN, Esq.—Dear Sir—In reply to your favor of the 13th instant, I would say that the sale of Sellers' Medicines has far exceeded my expectations: and in no case have they failed to produce the desired effect. The Cough Syrup is a cure for coughs, colds, &c., and the cheapness of the article places it within the reach of all, which, together with its efficacious qualities, renders it a universal favorite. Not a day passes without numerous calls for "the one thing needful," at this season of the year, viz, Sellers' Cough Syrup. Yours, A. G. CUSHING.

From Rev. S. Wakefield, former Pastor of the Liberty street M. E. Church. Mr. R. E. The first passed fifty-six worms, the second forty-seven, and the third a considerable number, not distinctly recollected. Since then they have been doing well, and are now in good health. Truly, S. WAKEFIELD. Price 25 cents. PREPARED AND SOLD BY R. E. SELLERS & CO., PITTSBURGH, PA.
