

LETTER FROM PRESIDENT LINCOLN.—The following heretofore unpublished letter from Mr. Lincoln will be read with interest, particularly by members of the Society of Friends. It was written by the President, prior to his re-election, to Mrs. Eliza P. Gurney, the widow of the late well known Friend and philanthropist, Joseph John Gurney, who was one of the wealthiest bankers of London.—Mrs. Gurney is an American lady, and since her husband's death has resided at Burlington, N. J.:

"My Esteemed Friend: I have not forgotten, probably never shall forget, the very impressive occasion when yourself and friends visited me on a Sabbath forenoon two years ago. Nor had your kind letter, written nearly a year later, ever been forgotten. In all, it has been your purpose to strengthen my reliance in God. I am much indebted to the good Christian people of the country for their constant prayers and consolations, and to no one of them more than to yourself. The purposes of the Almighty are perfect and must prevail, though we erring mortals may fail to accurately perceive them in advance.

"We hoped for a termination of this terrible war long before this, but God knows best, and has ruled otherwise. We shall yet acknowledge His wisdom and our errors therein; meanwhile we must work earnestly in the best lights He gives us, trusting that so working still conduces to the great ends He ordains. Surely He intends some great good to follow this mighty convulsion which no mortal could make, and no mortal could stay.

"Your people—the Friends—have had and are having very great trials, on principles and faith opposed to both war and oppression. They can only practically oppose oppression by war. In this hard dilemma, some have chosen one horn and some the other.

"For those appealing to me on conscientious grounds, I have done and shall do the best I could and can, in my own conscience and under my oath to the law.—That you believe this, I doubt not, and believing it, I shall still receive for our country and myself your earnest prayers to our Father in Heaven.

"Your sincere friend, A. LINCOLN."

THE SURVIVING REVOLUTIONARY HEROES.—On the 1st of January, 1864, there were but twelve of these aged veterans remaining. Since then seven are known to have died, and the five who are supposed to be still living are the following: Lemuel Cook—enlisted at Hatfield, Mass., is now about ninety-eight years of age, and resides in Clarendon, Clarendon county, New York.

Samuel Downing—enlisted in Carroll county, New Hampshire, is about ninety-eight years of age, and lives in Edinburg, Saratoga county, New York.

William Hutchings—enlisted at New Castle, Me., (then Massachusetts,) is now one hundred years old, and resides in Penobscot, Hancock county, Maine.

Alexander Maroney—enlisted at Lake George, New York, as a drummer boy, is now about ninety-four years of age. His residence is Yates, Orleans county, New York.

James Barham—substitute for a drafted man in Southampton county, Virginia, lives in the State of Missouri, and is in the one hundred and first year of his age.

CARELESS WRITING.—We note from the recent report of the Postmaster General, an extraordinary amount of carelessness on the part of the letter writing community. Three million five hundred and eight thousand were received of dead letters during the last year, many of which contained money, deeds, checks, jewelry and other valuables. Some of them were misdirected, others not directed at all, others unstamped, and others only partly directed. Thousands of these were returned to the writers, but the great majority were destroyed. These facts should teach the public to be more careful in their correspondence; for the amount of suspense and suffering occasioned by these lost letters is incalculable, and officials are censured where the fault rests with the authors.

If Brooks are, as poets call them, the most joyous things in Nature, what are they always "murmuring" about? Dickens, in speaking of a friend, says he was so long in the legs that he looked like the shadow of somebody else. Love and a good dinner are said to be the only two things that change a man's character.

A brave man—one who isn't afraid to wear old clothes till he is able to pay for new.

A CARD.—WILSON'S BRIDGE, Lancaster Tp. July 30, 1860. MESSRS. EVANS AND WATSON; GENTLEMEN:—The small size No. 1 Salamander safe which I purchased from your agent, Mr. Adam B. Barr, in Lancaster City, on July 20th, 1858, has been subjected to a very severe test, which it withstood in a most satisfactory manner. This safe, containing all my books together with valuable papers belonging to myself and some to my neighbors and friends and representing a value of over Twenty Thousand Dollars, ($20,000) was in my Mill which was destroyed on the night of the 27th of July, 1860, and passed through the fiery ordeal unscathed. The safe was on the second floor and fell to the basement or the Mill, and was subjected for six hours to an intense heat by the combustion of a large quantity of grain confined within the brick walls. After the fire the safe was opened and the books and papers taken out in a state of perfect preservation, the paper not even being discolored. This fact was, however, to many bystanders a better recommendation of your safe than could be expressed in any other words from me. Yours Respectfully, SAMUEL RANCK.

A large assortment of the above quality of Fire and Theft Proof Safes always on hand and for sale at as low rates as any other firm, at EVANS & WATSON'S, No. 16 South Fourth st., Philadelphia.

1865. TINWARE! 1865. SHEET-IRON WARE. COPPER WARE J. & H. HERRINGTON

Desire to call the attention of the public to their new TIN SHOP now opened in the large brick building on the corner of Main and Franklin streets opposite the Mansion House and next to the Banking house of Bell, Smith & Co., Johnstown Pa., where they purpose manufacturing all kinds of TIN, SHEET-IRON AND COPPER WARE. Their work will be made by the best workmen and of the best material. They are determined to sell all kinds of ware at the cheapest rates, wholesale and retail.

P. S.—All orders for SPOUTING attended to on the shortest notice and on reasonable terms. Johnstown, December 8 1859-tf.
