FALLACIOUS ASSURANCES AND PROMISES.—Cambria County and the Late Election.—The "North" vs. the "South."

We take the following hortative paragraph from the Johnstown Tribune of the 14th instant—the issue of the week preceding the election. To wit: Meetings are being held by the friends of the Union State, District and County Ticket in all the townships easily accessible from Johnstown. Look for a large increase in the Union vote in the South of the county. It is the party associates in the North will rally in great numbers and strike as determined a blow to the South which will certainly do, we will elect our County Ticket. Friends in the North! The result is in your hands.

Since the foregoing blast was blown, the election has come and gone, and "we" were not elected our County Ticket. The reference, if the Tribune be relied upon, is immaculate in election facts and figures, would naturally be that the "North" failed in her duty at the polls—that she did not strike a blow corresponding in solidity and determination with the one we were assured the "South" would inflict upon the opposition. Let us see how it is.

The "North" of the county is popularly supposed to comprise the districts of Allegheny, Blacklick, Cambria tp., Carroll, smalltown, Chest, Chest Springs, Clearfield, Ebensburg, Gallitzin, Jackson, Loyalton, Munster, Summerhill, Summitville, Washington, White, and Whitehouse; and the "South" to comprise Cambria boro, Conemaugh tp., Conemaugh boro, Croyle, Johnstown, Millbrook, Prospect, Richland, Taylor, and other. The mere numerical preponderance of districts is in favor of the "North," the aggregate vote of the two sections respectively nearly the same. In 1861 the aggregate vote of the "North" was 2,357; that of the "South" 2,347. So it, in regard to number of voters, the "North" may be said to enjoy equal advantages with the "South."

Now, by reference to the official returns, find that the "North" in 1864 cast the following vote for President: Democratic.....1,693 Union.....702 Democratic majority.....991 The "South" at the same election cast the following vote: Democratic.....1,193 Union.....1,154 Democratic majority.....39

In the campaign just closed, the "North" was adjured by her hopes of success as to the County Ticket to rally in great numbers to the polls. This is the gratifying manner in which she responded: Democratic votes cast.....1,530 Union.....824 Democratic majority.....706 Or a Union gain of TWO HUNDRED and EIGHTY-FIVE from '64.

"As we of the South will certainly do," said this is what the "South" did: Democratic votes cast.....1,186 Union.....1,133 Democratic majority.....53 Or a Union loss of FOURTEEN from '64! To condense the net result into few words: The "South" told us that the result of the late election was in our favor, and that if we put forth the effort we would certainly use, we would elect County Ticket; we believed the "South," and did 285 votes better for our ticket than in '64. The "South," however, instead of meeting us half way on the issue raised by themselves, actually did a step, and did 14 votes worse than '64!

County Ticket this fall, but the Democratic majority instead of 759 would have been only 460. "Look for a large increase in the Union vote in the South of the county." We look—but look in vain!

THE HOMICIDE IN GAYSPORT.—The Hollidaysburg Standard gives the following account of the late murder of young Crawford: We regret to announce that a terrible and distressing tragedy occurred on Monday afternoon, (16th instant,) at half-past one o'clock, at the store of D. Watson & Co., in Gaysport. It was the monthly day for settling with the hands, and James Crawford, aged about seventeen, and son of Maj. Jesse R. Crawford, of Gaysport, was engaged on the part of Watson & Co., in settling with Nicholas Riley, one of the hands at the furnace of the Blair Iron and Coal Company. Some dispute took place about the correctness of one of the charges, when, as we are informed, angry words passing, Riley struck young Crawford in the stomach with several blows of his fist, from the effects of which he died in a few moments. His body was removed across the street to the residence of his father, where he had but a short time before left his mother and sisters all unconscious of his sad fate.—The family are plunged in the deepest distress, and we feel sure that they have one and all the sincere sympathy of the community. Major Crawford was absent at the time, and was at once telegraphed by the friends of the family.

Riley was immediately taken into custody by Sheriff Bechtel, and, with the assistance of Constable Moorehouse, was lodged in jail. Coroner Weidensall held an inquest on the body, and returned a verdict in accordance with the facts above stated.

POLITICAL REMINISCENCES.—A few days before the election, Wm. A. Wallace, Chairman of the Dem. State Cent. Committee, promulgated an "Address," in the course of which he was so kind as to say: "The present and the future now demand of the Republican party that it answer: 1st, Are you for or against President Johnson's policy of reconstruction; 2d, Are you for or against negro suffrage and negro equality?" The Republican party has spoken. We would like to know how Mister Wallace construes its answer—"for" or "against!" "Freemen," said the Dem. & Sent. the Wednesday before the election, "you who vote this fall for Hartman and Campbell and the radical county ticket vote for negro suffrage." If the D. & S. is a reliable newspaper, then a majority of 20,000 of the electors of Pennsylvania are in favor of negro suffrage.

"If Harry White is elected State Senator," said the Johnstown Democrat Sept. 27th, "he will be in favor of striking out the word "white" from our Constitution, and will vote for a negro suffrage man to represent us in the Senate of the United States." The voters of this district had full and timely warning from the Democratic press that this would be the case, and yet they ratified Harry White by a majority of 1,539!

ATTEMPT TO BREAK JAIL.—Gore, the murderer of Policeman Holmes of Johnstown, is kept ironed, as is generally known, to guard against his escape from jail. On Thursday of last week, the watchman of that institution, while "going the grand rounds," discovered that the prisoner had cut the hobbles environing his feet, preparatory doubtless to attempting to break away. He was immediately re-ironed, and more securely, and it is thought he is now safe. Although a strict search was instituted therefor, the hobbles Gore had relieved himself of could not be found for a long time, and it was feared some one of the prisoners had swallowed them; but at length they were discovered in an adjoining cell, concealed under the bed.—The prisoners in the jail are a shrewd, reckless set; strict watch must be kept over them, or some of these fine mornings not one will be left to tell the tale of the escape of the others.

GOOD FOR EBENSBURG!—In the list of newly-elected members to the next Legislature, we notice the names of two former Ebenburgers—S. C. Wingard, from the Locoming, Union and Snyder district, and Peter J. Collins, from the Schuylkill district. We congratulate these our former fellow-citizens on their preferment, well knowing that they are worthy of the honors conferred upon them.

MARRIED: October 15th, 1865, by Rev. A. Baker, Mr. Elibu S. Lynde, of Portland, Preston county, West Va., and Miss Annie M. Wetherell, of Chest Springs, Cambria county, Pa. R. E. SELLERS & Co.—See column advertisement of R. E. Sellers & Co., Pittsburgh. The medicines they sell are safe and reliable.

ETCHINGS.—Information is wanted of Mr. Peter McDonald, a puddler by occupation, formerly a resident of Johnstown. He left his home in Manchester on the 13th September, since which time he has not been heard of. Information as to his whereabouts will be thankfully received at No. 255 Liberty street, Pittsburgh... They had a new idea at the late Huntingdon County Agricultural Fair. A premium was offered for the healthiest and best looking baby, the which was awarded to Edgar Swivel, of Huntingdon boro.... Christian Horner, one of the pioneers of Cambria county, died in Jenner township, Somerset county, on the 6th instant, aged 87 years. He settled in what is now known as Cambria county, near Johnstown, in 1799, one year before that town was laid out and five years before the county was erected. Peace to the old settler's manes!...Attention is directed to the advertisement of the sale of personal property late of Robert Davis, deceased, to come off commencing on Tuesday, 7th November. The property to be sold comprises an extensive stock of store goods of all kinds, horses, buggy, wagons, sleds, sleigh, harness, saddles, bridles, two hundred thousand feet of lumber, &c., &c. See the advertisement.

OBITUARY.—William Allen died at his residence, in Chest Springs, Cambria co., on the 5th September, 1865, in the 85th year of his age. Mr. Allen was born in England, but many years ago made his home in this country, and during all these years was known as a loyal, industrious and orderly citizen. He had for a number of years been a member of the M. E. Church; and those who had the best opportunities of knowing him believe that he was honestly trying to be a Christian and secure a home in Heaven. His illness was short and very painful. He leaves a wife and two daughters and many friends to mourn his loss. A. BAKER.

ATTEMPT TO THROW THE TRAIN OFF THE TRACK!—A diabolical attempt to throw the train off the track on the Eb. & Cresson Railroad was made on Monday, at a point a short distance north of Munster. Several fence-rails were carefully laid across the track, and rendered solid and stationary by a large number of stones piled on top. The 6-o'clock train ran into the obstruction, but, although under good headway, was not thrown from the track, and no damage was done. No punishment could be too severe for the wretch who could thus trifle with the lives of a car-load of passengers.

JOHNSON'S RHEUMATIC COMPOUND AND BLOOD PURIFIER. THE SOLDIER'S FRIEND! GREAT INTERNAL REMEDY! Hear the Testimony of a Soldier. PROVOST MARSHAL'S OFFICE, Pittsburgh, December 17, 1864. Mr. ANDREW JOHNSON—Dear Sir—In November last I had a severe attack of Rheumatism, to which I have not been subject for nearly three years. The attack was so severe that I could not move my head nor raise my arm. After trying different medicines in vain, I was induced to use your RHEUMATIC COMPOUND AND BLOOD PURIFIER, and before I had taken three bottles I was so completely cured that I could perform any duty to which my country might call me. I can gladly and confidently recommend it to my fellow-soldiers as the quickest and surest remedy I ever used. Your true friend, NORRIS PATTERSON. Reference—J. T. Patterson and William Duncan, 77 Wood Street.

Let the Suffering Read, and Cease to Despair. Mr. JOHNSON—Dear Sir: This is to certify that by using three-fourths of a bottle of your RHEUMATIC COMPOUND AND BLOOD PURIFIER, I was completely cured of Chronic Rheumatism, after having suffered for more than eighteen years. It has been over four years since I was cured, and I have not felt the slightest symptoms of its return. I remain yours truly, ANDREW ARMSTRONG. No. 19 James street. ALLEGHENY CITY, May 3, 1864.

Mr. A. JOHNSON—Dear Sir—My wife was taken bad with inflammatory Rheumatism in March last. She was very much swollen and the pain she suffered was severe; she was confined to her bed. I was advised to try your Rheumatic Fluid and Blood Purifier, so I got a bottle of it, and before the half of it was used she was entirely well. The cure is a perfect one; I never saw such medicine. She had only taken three doses of it when the swelling and pain began to abate. All your medicine wants is to be known in order to give it success. Yours affectionately, JAMES MALLISTER. My residence is No. 123 Cherry Alley, where my wife can be seen by any person doubting the truth of the above. PITTSBURG, April 19th, 1864.

GREAT CURE OF LIVER COMPLAINT. By the Original, Only True and Genuine LIVER PILLS.

SILVER CREEK, Ohio Co., Va., Mar. 20, '66. Mr. R. E. Sellers—Dear Sir—I think it a duty I owe to you and the public generally, to state that I have been afflicted with Liver complaint for a long time, and so badly, that an abscess formed and broke, which left me in a very low state. Having heard of your celebrated Liver Pills being for sale by A. R. Sharp, West Liberty, and recommended to me by my physician, Dr. F. Smith, I concluded to give them a fair trial. I purchased one box, and found them to be just what they are recommended—the best Liver Pills ever used; and after taking four boxes, I find the disease has entirely left me, and I am now perfectly well. Respectfully yours, D. H. COLEMAN.

I certify that I am personally acquainted with Mr. Coleman, and I can bear testimony to the truth of the above certificate. A. R. SHARP.

SELLERS' IMPERIAL COUGH SYRUP. Pronounced to be the Pleasantest and most Efficacious remedy now in use.

For the Cure of Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Influenza, Tickling Sensation of the Throat, Whooping Cough, &c., &c., &c.

Seller's Imperial Cough Syrup has given relief to hundreds who have used it, and the proprietor is persuaded that it has the power to impart benefit that cannot be claimed for the Cough Mixtures in general use. Most of the mixtures sold for coughs are composed of spirituous and inflammatory articles, which, while they give little relief, really do harm. The Imperial Cough Syrup contains no spirituous ingredient whatever, and may be used in all cases not requiring an active medical treatment.

Seller's Cough Syrup Without a Rival. PITTSBURGH, Fifth Ward, Feb. 26, 1865.

Mr. R. E. Sellers—On the 18th ult., I caught a very severe cold. The night following I went to bed earlier than usual, yet notwithstanding I had slept none the night before my cough was so severe that I could not sleep, neither could those in the room with me. The person sleeping with me was so much annoyed by my coughing that he got up and went to a drug store, and bought a bottle of your Cough Syrup, one dose of which to my great astonishment, stopped my cough as if by magic. I went to work in the morning, and am now quite well. Yours, &c., JOHN DEAN.

I hereby certify that I am well acquainted with the above circumstance, and the statement given is true. A. JOHNSON. R. E. SELLERS & CO., Sole Proprietors, PITTSBURGH, PA.
