

EBENSBURG AND CRESSON RAILROAD. On and after Monday, November 20, 1865, trains on this road will run as follows:

LEAVE EBENSBURG—At 5:35 A. M., connecting with Day Ex. East and Pitts. & Erie West. At 3:20 P. M., connecting with Altoona Accommodating and Mail East. At 8:05 P. M., connecting with Mail Train West.

COURT PROCEEDINGS.—Court met on Monday evening, at half-past seven o'clock. Little was done beyond the excusing of a Jurymen for deafness, and the calling over the list of constables, when adjourned till next morning.

Tuesday, Dec. 5th.—Court met at 8 1/2 o'clock. The Grand Jury was called, sworn and charged by his Honor George Taylor. He recited a list of indictments that would come before the Grand Inquest, including crimes of every grade, from murder down to the merest assault.

During the absence of the Grand Jury, the list of Traverse Jurors was called, and an unusual number were found present. Next came the calling of the list of members of the Bar, in order to receive their motions. Of these motions there was an unusually large number.

Mr. Johnson presented the petitions of the minor children, over 14 years of age, of John Gillan, deceased, for the appointment of a guardian, as well as the petition of the mother of the children in behalf of those under 14 for the same object. Mr. Samuel Brallier was chosen as the Guardian.

An application for a rule to shew cause why an award of arbitrators should not be made was made by Mr. Johnson, on the ground that said arbitration was held in one of the offices in the Court House, and not in the Court room, as he argued was intended by the rule in such case.

The rule was granted and afterwards argued, and the learned Judge refused to make the award. A rule granted, and afterwards argued Messrs. Kopelin and Johnson, to shew why an award of arbitrators should be set aside on account of the ambiguity of the award, was also disposed of by the Court refusing to disturb the award, not being able to see the alleged ambiguity. In both cases, an appeal taken.

Other motions for rules, &c., were made, but as these will come before the Court again, we will now pass over them. The cases of a criminal character remaining open on the docket, were thus disposed of:

Com. against Patrick Daily and Michael McLaughlin—indictment for larceny. A nolle prosequi entered.

Com. against Patrick Kearns—indictment for robbery. A nolle prosequi entered.

Com. against William and Geo. Grewe—nolle prosequi.

Com. against A. A. Barker and J. H. Hutchinson—indictment for libel. Dismissed by consent.

Com. against M. D. Christy—indictment for libel. Not taken.

Com. against John M'Bride—indictment for larceny. Laid the county.

Com. against John Gore—indictment for assault and battery, with intent to kill. Continued.

Com. against Robert Franzer and Elias Hall—indictment for malicious conduct. Settled.

ABOUT OUR BORO. AUTHORITIES.—COMMUNICATION.—Mr. Editor: In last week's issue of your paper, you seem to insinuate that the boro. of Ebensburg is without a board of competent municipal jurisdiction—at least, you aver that the boro. authorities have remained in the torpidest of all torpid conditions, giving no sign of life, for "a number of months." Now, I do not know what you mean by "a number of months;" but have you forgot that no longer ago than last Court, a police force (the boys called them perleeces) was appointed to keep watch and ward over the interests of the boro., at that critical juncture when a fair, a horse show, a juggler, and a number of jurors, parties, and witnesses were all congregated here at one and the same time? The "fathers" made that appointment—don't you know? If by "a number of months" you mean anything over three months, I dissent from your remarks, for there is the bill for the services rendered by the police force remaining with us as a monument to attest the fact that last Court the "fathers" were alive and very kicking. As to any period subsequent to that date, deponent heretofore saith not.

OUR TABLE.—Godey's Lady's Book for January is to hand. It is a holiday number, and rigged out in a holiday dress. It contains several exquisite steel engravings, the usual number of fashion plates, and a due allowance of reading matter, recipes, &c. Terms $3.00 per year.

Peterson's Magazine for January is also received. This, too, has put on a gala dress in honor of the holidays, and looks charming as a bonnie maiden on her wedding day. The engravings and fashion plates are unsurpassable, the stories are choice, and the other departments are useful and entertaining. Terms $2.00 per year.

THANKSGIVING.—To-day is Thanksgiving! Three or four years ago, during the existence of the war for the Union, the President of the United States issued a proclamation inviting the people to unite on a certain day in returning thanks to Almighty God for the manifold blessings He had showered upon them. Fernando Wood, as Mayor of New York, refused to endorse the proclamation, giving as his reason therefor that he believed the people had nothing to be thankful for! Without discussing the manifest spirit of infidelity contained in this declaration, it may truly be said that no such objection can be entered up as against the present occasion. We have just quelled the rebellion, saved the Union and perpetuated the principles of Republicanism, and abolished slavery; we enjoy uninterrupted peace with all the world and tranquility within our own borders; our granaries are full, and the pestilence which is desolating the Old World has touched us not. Truly, we have been highly favored of God. Let us rejoice and give thanks!

IN AND OUT.—With the present Court, George C. K. Zahn, Esq., enters upon the duties of the office of Prothonotary of Cambria county, and John F. Barnes, Esq., upon the duties of the office of District Attorney. Gen. Jos. McDonald is the retiring Prothonotary, and Phil S. Noon, Esq., the retiring District Attorney. Both these gentlemen have made most excellent officers, and retire with the confidence and respect of all those with whom they came in contact in an official capacity. Mr. Noon, we regret to say, is at present confined to bed by a dangerous illness. Messrs. Zahn and Barnes, the incoming officials, will no doubt be able to wear the mantles of their predecessors with grace and dignity. We do not know Mr. Barnes, and so cannot speak discriminatingly of him; but we do know Mr. Zahn, and know that his intimate acquaintance with the general routine of the Prothonotary's office, coupled with his tact and business capacity, peculiarly qualify him to acceptably discharge the duties of his office.

A WARNING TO BOYS.—An accident occurred on our streets one day last week, which, although not attended with any very serious consequences, is nevertheless worthy to be here presented, as affording a warning to small boys of the danger of clinging to the rear end of wagons and carriages while in motion. A juvenile of ten or twelve years thought to thus steal a ride, and so tackled on to a heavily laden road-wagon, laying hold of the pole which projects behind and attempting to swing himself up thereon. By some miscalculation, he swung himself against one of the wheels, and the result was that one of his legs was caught between the spokes. Providentially the driver witnessed the accident, and stopped the team just in time to save the boy a broken leg or two and possibly a broken neck. As it was, he was not much hurt; but he learned a lesson from his rough experience which will most likely deter him from ever again indulging in the hazardous experiment of hanging on behind a wagon.

A SURE THING.—Cold comfort is represented to be a man sitting on a grindstone reading the President's Message.—One thing is certain: there are many men in the country who will extract nothing but cold comfort from President Johnson's Message, whether they sit on a grindstone to read it or not. Another thing is certain: it is another and totally different thing from cold comfort that a person gets by patronizing E. J. Mills & Co.'s store, Ebensburg. Try it on, and be convinced that the comfort extracted is of a most agreeable character.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—On the night of the 21st ultimo, we learn from the Dem. & Sent., a man named John McGowan, aged about 87 years, while traveling in the neighborhood of the Tunnel, in Alleghany township, this county, accidentally fell a distance of some sixty feet into the cut at the west end of the Tunnel, and was instantly killed. His body was found on the following morning, when a jury was summoned by Esq. Craig, an inquest held, and a verdict rendered in accordance with the foregoing facts. Mr. McGowan, we are assured, was a man of temperate habits, and his death can only be attributed to the infirmity caused by an advanced age, the darkness of the night, and the dangers of the location in which he was traveling.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—We direct the attention of music teachers and dealers, and of those desiring to purchase a piano-forte, organ or melodeon, to the advertisement elsewhere of O. J. Willard, wholesale piano-forte and music dealer, 547 Broadway, New York.

Philip George advertises that a stray steer has come to his premises, in Summerhill township.

Thomas Monahan advertises that a stray steer has come to his premises, in Washington township.

MAJOR-GENERAL SATISFACTION.—J. M. Thompson, at his store, in the post-office, has fully opened out his new stock of winter goods, and we have no hesitation in saying that it is the largest and best selected ever brought to town. A mere newspaper paragraph cannot do justice to it; it must be seen to be appreciated. Go and see it! His assortment of ladies' shoes and men's and boys' boots and shoes is commended to especial consideration. Any foot can be suited, from the tiny foot of the daintiest lady in the land to the foot of a mountain!

FOUND DEAD.—The dead body of Mr. Hugh Fagan, a resident of Alleghany tp., Cambria county, was found on the roadside, in that township, a few days since. The man had been missing for several days before his remains were discovered. His death is said to have been caused by intemperance and exposure.

JOHNSON'S RHEUMATIC COMPOUND AND BLOOD PURIFIER. THE SOLDIER'S FRIEND! GREAT INTERNAL REMEDY! Hear the Testimony of a Soldier!

PROVOST MARSHAL'S OFFICE, Pittsburgh, December 17, 1864. Mr. ANDREW JOHNSON—Dear Sir:—In November last I had a severe attack of Rheumatism, to which I have not been subject for nearly three years. The attack was so severe that I could not move my head nor raise my arm. After trying different medicines in vain, I was induced to use your RHEUMATIC COMPOUND and BLOOD PURIFIER, and before I had taken three bottles I was so completely cured that I could perform any duty to which my country might call me. I can gladly and confidently recommend it to my fellow-soldiers as the quickest and surest remedy I ever used. Your true friend, NORRIS PATTERSON. Referent—J. T. Patterson and William Duncan, 77 Wood Street.

Let the Suffering Read, and Cease to Despair. Mr. JOHNSON—Dear Sir: This is to certify that by using three-fourths of a bottle of your RHEUMATIC COMPOUND and BLOOD PURIFIER, I was completely cured of Chronic Rheumatism, after having suffered for more than eighteen years. It has been over four years since I was cured, and I have not felt the slightest symptoms of its return. I remain yours truly, ANDREW ARMSTRONG. No. 19 James street. ALLEGHENY CITY, May 3, 1864.

Mr. A. JOHNSON—Dear Sir—My wife was taken had with Inflammatory Rheumatism in March last. She was very much swollen and the pain she suffered was severe; she was confined to her bed. I was advised to try your Rheumatic Fluid and Blood Purifier, so I got a bottle of it, and before the half of it was used she was entirely well. The cure is a perfect one; I never saw such medicine.—She had only taken three doses of it when the swelling and pain began to abate. All your medicine wants is to be known in order to give it success. Yours affectionately, JAMES MALLISTER. My residence is No. 128 Cherry Alley, where my wife can be seen by any person doubting the truth of the above. PITTSBURG, April 19th, 1864.

SELLERS' LIVER PILLS! FLAIN AND SUGAR COATED. (The Original, only True and Genuine.)

Have stood for thirty years a Staple Remedy, unequalled by any medicine known for the cure of Liver Complaint, Costiveness, Sick Headache and Bilious Disorders, and indeed for the whole class of diseases originating in biliary derangements.

GREAT CURE OF LIVER COMPLAINT. by the Original, Only True and Genuine LIVER PILLS. SILVER CREEK, Ohio Co., Va., Mar. 20, '49. Mr. R. E. Sellers—Dear Sir—I think it a duty I owe to you and the public generally, to state that I have been afflicted with Liver complaint for a long time, and so badly, that an abscess formed and broke, which left me in a very low state. Having heard of your celebrated Liver Pills being for sale by A. R. Sharp, West Liberty, and recommended to me by my physician, Dr. F. Smith, I concluded to give them a fair trial. I purchased one box, and found them to be just what they are recommended—the best Liver Pills ever used; and after taking four boxes, I find the disease has entirely left me, and I am now perfectly well. Respectfully yours, D. H. COLEMAN.

I certify that I am personally acquainted with Mr. Coleman, and I can bear testimony to the truth of the above certificate. A. R. SHARP. "GENERAL SATISFACTION." GREENVILLE, Floyd Co., Ind. Oct. 27, 1858. Mr. R. E. Sellers—Sir: I am out of your Liver Pills, and should be glad to receive a supply, as they give general satisfaction.—Please send me some soon. CYRUS BRADFORD.

TO THE PUBLIC. Owing to the increased demand throughout the country for SUGAR COATED PILLS, the Proprietor has commenced the operation of SUGAR COATING the CELEBRATED LIVER PILL, thereby placing them before the public both FLAIN AND SUGAR COATED.

PREPARED BY R. E. SELLERS & CO., Proprietors, PITTSBURG, PA. SELLER'S IMPERIAL COUGH SYRUP. Pronounced to be the Pleasantest and most Efficacious remedy now in use.

For the Cure of Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Influenza, Tickling Sensation of the Throat, Whooping Cough, &c., &c., &c. Seller's Imperial Cough Syrup has given relief to hundreds who have used it, and the proprietor is persuaded that it has the power to impart benefit that cannot be claimed for the Cough Mixtures in general use.

Most of the mixtures sold for coughs are composed of spirituous and inflammatory articles, which, while they give little relief, really do harm. The Imperial Cough Syrup contains no spirituous ingredient whatever, and may be used in all cases not requiring an active medical treatment.

Seller's Cough Syrup Without a Rival. PITTSBURG, Fifth Ward, Feb. 26, 1856. Mr. R. E. Sellers—On the 15th ult. I caught a very severe cold. The night following I went to bed earlier than usual, yet notwithstanding I had slept none the night before my cough was so severe that I could not sleep, neither could those in the room with me. The person sleeping with me was so much annoyed by my coughing that he got up and went to a drug store, and bought a bottle of your Cough Syrup, one dose of which to my great astonishment, stopped my cough as if by magic. I went to work in the morning, and am now quite well. Yours, &c., JOHN DEAN.

I hereby certify that I am well acquainted with the above circumstance, and the statement given is true. A. JOHNSON. R. E. SELLERS & CO., Sole Proprietors, PITTSBURG, PA.
