CLOSING SCENES. The prisoner's countenance upon hearing the verdict beamed with irrepressible joy, and he evidently knew and appreciated the narrow escape he had made from an infinitely severer verdict, that which would have been followed by his counsel and friends; after which he was remanded to jail to await sentence.

Court Proceedings.

The case of the Com'th. versus the men Weaver and Buser, indicted for the murder of Miss Paulie Paul, was called up before the Court on Tuesday of last week, but owing to the absence of important witnesses, was held over.

Com'th. vs. Henry Hontzman—indictment, assault and battery. Jury returned verdict of guilty in manner and form as he stands indicted. Sentenced to pay a fine of $5 and costs of suit, and to be committed till sentence is complied with.

Com'th. vs. Jacob Horner—indictment, assault and battery. Not a true bill, and prosecutor, Henry Hontzman, to pay costs.

Com'th. vs. John Gore—indictment, murder. Reported in full in these columns.

Com'th. vs. John B. Howser and Daniel... indictment, murder. These defendants are charged with the murder of Misses... and Munday, in Croyle township, Cambria county, in June last. Case came up at 10 p. m., on Saturday last, when jury was impaneled and sworn. After which, jury was sequestered, and Court adjourned. Court resumed on Monday at 2 o'clock, p. m., when case was renewed. We will give a full report of the proceedings in our next issue. Argument Court was appointed for the second Tuesday in February next.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 14, 1864.

Editorial Correspondence.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 6, 1865.

Congress met on Monday at noon. The session was called to order by Vice President... and the House by Mr. M'Pherson, Speaker of the last House. The chief interest centered in the organization of the latter body. The galleries were crowded to overflowing with spectators, who listened with the greatest attention and anxiety to the proceedings. Mr. M'Pherson, in the line of his duties, proceeded to call the roll of the Members elected; one hundred and seventy-five answered to their names. For a month prior had been bored almost daily with the question of the question as to whether the rank of the House would omit the Southern members from the roll; the question was satisfactorily settled (satisfactorily to loyal eyes) by the omission of their names. The next proceeded to choose a Speaker; Mr. Colfax, Speaker of the last House, was duly elected. This gentleman is one of the most worthy and pure-minded statesmen to have in the country. We well remember him as a Member of the 34th Congress, as one of the firm, decided, unflinching advocates of the new but rising Republican Party—the long contest for Speaker, which resulted in the election of Gen. Banks, (the time the Southern slave-holders were beaten in a square fight) from the beginning to the end of the contest, Mr. Colfax stood firm and immovable as a rock. From day to day to the present the people of his District, have, with a united voice, kept him in Congress. In the last Congress, he was elected Speaker of the House by a decided majority, although he had several able and popular rivals. In the present Congress, he is re-elected Speaker by acclamation. Mr. Colfax has the happy faculty of making almost everybody with whom he associates his friend, and yet he is one of the most decided, square-edged men with whom ever became acquainted, firmly maintaining whatsoever he believes to be right. He is a gentleman of undoubted talent and ability, of noble, generous impulses, and possessing an enlarged, comprehensive statesmanship. In loyalty to his country, no living man stands ahead of him; and we should do to do full justice to his character did we add that he is a sincere and devoted Christian, and an exemplary member of the Church. He undoubtedly has an enviable future before him; while there is no position, however high or responsible, within the gift of the American people, which he could not fill with honor to himself and credit to his country. Ed. M'Pherson, Clerk of the House, was re-elected Clerk. He is a Marylandian, and is acknowledged, on all hands, to be one of the most efficient officers ever filled that position. After the transaction of some other business, the House adjourned simultaneously with the Senate, accordingly.

Was born the Thirty-ninth Congress... body upon whom will devolve the arduous duty of the gravest and most important positions which ever agitated the country. It will fill the measure of the high hopes which are entertained of it, and the fond expectations which cluster around it! The President's Message was read to both Houses on Tuesday, at 2 o'clock, p. m. It has been most anxiously looked for, and its soundness and orthodoxy of opinion were entertained by its author in a great measure depended the future political harmony of the country. It is not too much to say that the Message has proven all that was expected by loyal men. Your readers will, long acquainted with its general tenor and bearing, and will have thoroughly digested its contents. It is therefore unnecessary for me to elaborate upon the subject; indeed, in the necessarily circumscribed limits of a letter, it would be almost impossible to do so. The Message must be read as an entirety to be understood; it does not admit of a hasty condensation. Taking it all in all, as a State document it ranks with the ablest ever issued. To-morrow being the National Thanksgiving day, Congress adjourned to-day, to meet on Monday.

The SINGER SEWING MACHINES.—Our Letter A Family Sewing Machine is fast gaining a world-wide reputation. It is beyond doubt the best and cheapest and most beautiful of all Family Sewing Machines yet offered to the public. No other Family Sewing Machine has so many useful appliances for Hemming, Binding, Felling, Tucking, Gathering, Gauging, Braiding, Embroidering, Cording, &c. No other Family Sewing Machine has so much capacity for a great variety of work. It will sew all kinds of cloth, and with all kinds of thread. Great and recent improvements make our Family Sewing Machine most reliable, and most durable, and most certain in action at all rates of speed. It makes the interlocked stitch, which is the best stitch known. Any one, even of the most ordinary capacity, can see, at a glance, how to use the letter A Family Sewing Machine. Our Family Sewing Machines are finished in chaste and exquisite style.

The N. Y. TIMES.—This able and influential metropolitan journal has been enlarged to the regular size of its London namesake, and has made a bold stroke for the leading position in American journalism. It is announced that the veteran journalist, THURLOW WEED, has been added to the editorial staff, which in itself is a no inconsiderable additional guaranty of the ability with which the paper will be in future conducted. The Times, under the very able management of Mr. RAYMOND, has been successful from the start, and it is not difficult to perceive that in no respect will it hereafter hold a secondary position among the leading journals of the country.

MAN KILLED.—John Robinson, a resident of Brushvalley, Indiana county, was killed on the railroad, a short distance below Johnstown, on the 1st instant. He had stepped from one track to avoid an approaching train, and was run over by a train going the other direction, the approach of which he did not notice. His neck and back were both broken, killing him instantly. He was taken to Brushvalley and buried on the 3d. He was a married man, and leaves a wife and three children.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.—On Friday morning last, Johnstown was visited by a destructive fire which destroyed the extensive confectionery establishment of Kress & Krauss, on the corner of Clinton and Locust streets, the marble shop of Donahue & Erb, adjoining, on Clinton street, and the frame residence of Mrs. Gordon, on Clinton street. Several other buildings made a narrow escape from destruction. The combined loss is estimated at $12,000.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.—We last week issued the President's Message in an Extra, distributing the same to our subscribers on Thursday. They were thus furnished a copy of that most important document at nearly as early an hour as it was printed in the dailies. As this Extra was entirely gratuitous to our subscribers, we hope the spirit which prompted its publication will be understood and appreciated.

THE "PITTSBURG DISPATCH."—This most excellent daily newspaper has lately been enlarged and otherwise improved. It always was a good journal; now it is a first-class one. We are pleased to see this evidence of its prosperity, and hope that each successive step it may take may be upward and onward—never backward. We commend the Dispatch to those desiring to subscribe for a daily.

SAD ACCIDENT.—On Saturday evening last, a miner's lamp filled with carbon oil exploded in the hands of the wife of Thomas Mulaney, of Hemlock, this county. The flames were communicated to the woman's dress, and she so dreadfully burned that she died on Monday morning following.

MARSHALL AND FRECKE, the Pittsburg murderers, will be hanged on the 12th of January.—Mrs. Grider on the 19th.

The Folding Case of the Family Machine is a piece of cunning workmanship of the most useful kind. It protects the machine when not in use, and when about to be operated may be opened as a spacious and substantial table to sustain the work. While some of the Cases, made out of the choicest woods, are finished in the simplest and chastest manner possible, others are adorned and embellished in the most costly and superb manner.

It is absolutely necessary to see the Family Machine in operation, so as to judge of its great capacity and beauty. It is fast becoming as popular for family sewing as our Manufacturing machines are for manufacturing purposes.

JOHNSON'S RHEUMATIC COMPOUND AND BLOOD PURIFIER.

THE SOLDIER'S FRIEND! GREAT INTERNAL REMEDY! Hear the Testimony of a Soldier.

PROVOST MARSHAL'S OFFICE, Pittsburg, December 17, 1864. MR. ANDREW JOHNSON—Dear Sir:—In November last I had a severe attack of Rheumatism, to which I have not been subject for nearly three years. The attack was so severe that I could not move my head nor raise my arm. After trying different medicines in vain, I was induced to use your RHEUMATIC COMPOUND and BLOOD PURIFIER, and before I had taken three bottles I was so completely cured that I could perform any duty to which my country might call me. I can gladly and confidently recommend it to my fellow-soldiers as the quickest and sweetest remedy I ever used. Your true friend, NORRIS PATTERSON. Reference—J. T. Patterson and William Duncan, 77 Wood Street.

Let the Suffering Read, and Cease to Despair. MR. JOHNSON—Dear Sir: This is to certify that by using three-fourths of a bottle of your RHEUMATIC COMPOUND and BLOOD PURIFIER, I was completely cured of Chronic Rheumatism, after having suffered for more than eighteen years. It has been over four years since I was cured, and I have not felt the slightest symptoms of its return. I remain yours truly, ANDREW ARMSTRONG. No. 19 James street. ALLEGHENY CITY, May 3, 1864.

MR. A. JOHNSON:—Dear Sir—My wife was taken bad with Inflammatory Rheumatism in March last. She was very much swollen and the pain she suffered was severe; she was confined to her bed. I was advised to try your Rheumatic Fluid and Blood Purifier, so I got a bottle of it, and before the half of it was used she was entirely well. The cure in a perfect one; I never saw such medicine.—She had only taken three doses of it when the swelling and pain began to abate. All your medicine wants is to be known in order to give it success. Yours affectionately, JAMES M'ALLISTER. My residence is No. 128 Cherry Alley, where my wife can be seen by any person doubting the truth of the above. PITTSBURG, April 19th, 1864.

SELLERS' LIVER PILLS!

PLAIN AND SUGAR COATED. (The Original, only True and Genuine.)

Have stood for thirty years a Staple Remedy, unequalled by any medicine known for the cure of Liver Complaint, Costiveness, Sick Headache and Bilious Disorders, and indeed for the whole class of diseases originating in bilious derangements. GREAT CURE OF LIVER COMPLAINT. by the Original, Only True and Genuine LIVER PILLS.

SILVER CREEK, Ohio Co., Va., Mar. 20, 49. Mr. E. E. Sellers:—Dear Sir—I think it a duty I owe to you and the public generally, to state that I have been afflicted with Liver complaint for a long time, and so badly, that an abscess formed and broke, which left me in a very low state. Having heard of your celebrated Liver Pills being for sale by Dr. K. Sharp, West Liberty, and recommended to me by my physician, Dr. F. Smith, I concluded to give them a fair trial. I purchased one box, and found them to be just what they are recommended—the best Liver Pills ever used; and after taking four boxes, I find the disease has entirely left me, and I am now perfectly well. Respectfully yours, D. H. COLEMAN.

I certify that I am personally acquainted with Mr. Coleman, and I can bear testimony to the truth of the above certificate. A. R. SHARP.

SELLER'S IMPERIAL COUGH SYRUP.

Pronounced to be the Pleasantest and most Efficacious remedy now in use. For the Cure of Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Influenza, Tickling Sensation of the Throat, Whooping Cough, &c., &c., &c.

Seller's Imperial Cough Syrup has given relief to hundreds who have used it, and the proprietor is persuaded that it has the power to impart benefit that cannot be claimed for the Cough Mixtures in general use. Most of the mixtures sold for coughs are composed of spirituous and inflammatory articles, which, while they give little relief, really do harm. The Imperial Cough Syrup contains no spirituous ingredient whatever, and may be used in all cases not requiring an active medical treatment.

Seller's Cough Syrup Without a Recipe. PITTSBURG, Fifth Ward, Feb. 26, 1865. Mr. K. E. Sellers:—On the 13th ult. I caught a very severe cold. The night following I went to bed earlier than usual, yet notwithstanding I had slept none the night before my cough was so severe that I could not sleep, neither could those in the room with me. The person sleeping with me was so much annoyed by my coughing that he got up and went to a drug store, and bought a bottle of your Cough Syrup, one dose of which to my great astonishment, stopped my cough as if by magic. I went to work in the morning, and am now quite well. Yours, &c., JOHN DEAN.

I hereby certify that I am well acquainted with the above circumstance, and the statement given is true. A. JOHNSON.
