CONVICTED MURDERERS, BUSER.
We paid a visit to the prison of the murder of Miss Daniel Buser and John B. couple of days ago. Buser was of a severe headache at the beyond this, both were in the of excellent health. The man is extremely loquacious, and to us of the trial. He con-is innocent as a babe unborn in the murder, and avers in Beaver county at the time Buser is more reticent, and nothing as to his whereabouts day. It is reported that he a written statement of his circumstances or attempted doing the circumstances which so connect him with the foul deed will probably be published when Both men bear themselves under the awful doom which them—a doom the most awful be pronounced by man upon which is only resorted to by out-in extreme cases of crime.
They are endeavoring to have a order by the Supreme Court, all of which the prisoners apas a gleam of hope of escape ominous death. This failing, the certainty of such a death is in the face, it remains to be their deportment and conversa-The finding of the jury has think it unlikely that action from Cuba. The prison-guard against the possibility of escape.

UNANIMITY OF THE JURY.—Immediately after the summing up by the judge, the jury retired to room for deliberation. We had authority, that upon reaching the twelve men upon whose suspended the life or death of the man remained in solemn silence, each with his own soul for before the silence was broken. A vote was then taken, and each juror deposited his ballot folded to conceal its authority in his neighbor, in a hat—the result of the vote, it was announced, and every juror had recognition that the prisoners were guilty in the first degree!

THE STORY.—A paragraph is inserted purporting to give the names of the murderers by Mrs.
of one of the victims.
It is stated that on a certain night she dreamed a dream in the "slumbers"—a dream of murder, and terror. In the ghastly scenery which was presented to her, she plainly beheld her husband down in cold blood by a manement of whose features she stamped on her memory by pencil of steel. So impression did the dream make on her, that she so the story goes, that she visits the jail, to see if the walls the head of her husband. Accordingly, she did, and the several inmates before her. As soon as she saw Buser, who was of the number in mortal agony, "He died"—and fainted away. So we have no objection to the insertion of this item, neither do we think it pointed to as proof of the truth of the story.
We do not emphatically discredit the paragraph credited to her, as we notice is frequently done—and to have only that which is to be accredited to this is not our due.
We believe, was the first discover of this supernatural pointing, and we submit to be freely accorded all the credit to that achievement.

BOOK NOTICE.—"The Valley of the Conemaugh" is the title of a new book just brought out by Thomas J. Chapman.
It is a neat little volume of 202 pages.
Its scope, as we gather from the preface, is to give "an historical and descriptive account of the Valley of the Conemaugh, which embraces the county of Cambria and a portion of the counties of Somerset, Indiana and Westmoreland." The subject matter may be said to be a collation and condensation of the most interesting facts, figures and traditions going to make up the history of the Valley. After a geographical and general description thereof, we have a condensed yet very minute history of the various Indian troubles having a bearing on the subject; the rise and progress of the different towns, villages and settlements, with the names of those who pioneered the footsteps of civilization into these western wilds; the history, among other public thoroughfares, of those two monuments of the enterprise and energy of our fathers, the Allegheny Portage Railroad and the Pennsylvania Canal; the magnitude of our manufacturing and industrial interests, with brief descriptions of the most prominent producing enterprises; together with other sketches historical, descriptive, statistical and biographical. On every page are evidences to be found of deep research among the musty records of the past, while the whole is skillfully linked together so as to form a connected narrative or history, which cannot fail to prove interesting to such as are lovers of antique remembrances, and to those fond of contrasting our present greatness with our one-time weakness and insignificance.
There are but few, we venture to say, that have not at one time or another felt the want of a clear and correct condensation, in form convenient for reference, of important facts and statistics having bearing on our earlier history as a community.
This want is experienced in the course of common conversation as it is experienced in attempted local historical writing. If it served no other good end, the book would be valuable in that it embodies in concise form these very facts and statistics—collects and preserves them that they may readily be found when wanted.
But it is valuable beyond this, for it will introduce the people of the Valley one to the other, make plain the ties which connect them as brothers, and so show the mutual relations which should exist between them. Its mission will thus be eminently beneficent and humanizing; and when we remember that the world at large, through it, will see and take knowledge of the fact that the natural advantages of the Valley are infinitely greater than those of most other sections, we are led to expect that the purely practical results which it will achieve will not be of small importance. We notice a few errors of fact in the book. To instance: On page 72, it is stated that a newspaper was established in Ebensburg about the year 1816, which was called the Cambria Gazette—whereas the paper was called the Olive Branch, the Gazette not being established till 1824. And on the same page, the population of Ebensburg is set down at 1,000—whereas her population was greater than the figure given five years ago, and must surely be in the neighborhood of 1,500 now. But in the main, the statements made and figures given are believed to be correct.

The book is for sale by James Murray, Ebensburg. Price $1.25.

ETCHINGS.—As our subscribers doubtless took notice, no paper was issued from this office last week. The cause of the omission is to be found in the fact that the holidays happened to pay us a visit last week, on which occasion no printer can work. The holidays, by the way, passed off pleasantly hereabout, though no special festivities marked either their incoming or outgoing.... We direct attention to the prospectus of the New York Tribune for 1866, of the opposite page.
The Tribune is acknowledgedly the best paper in the United States, and those that subscribe for it will get the full worth of their money.... See a variety of other new advertisements in this paper.... We expect to be able to print this week his honor Judge Taylor's charge to the jury in the Buser-Houser murder case, but up to date the manuscript copy has not been received.... Notice that the election of a President and twelve Directors for the Ebensburg & Cresson Railroad Company, to serve the ensuing year, will be held next Monday, Sta inst. The annual election of officers for the Protection Mutual Fire Insurance Company of Cambria county will be held the same day. See advertisements elsewhere.... The Hollidaysburg Whig has made its promised re-appearance, looking none the worse of the protracted breathing-spell it has been indulging in latterly.... A new paper has just been established in Tyrone, called the Western Hemisphere, with Messrs. J. W.
Scott and Cyrus Jeffreys as editors. It presents a quite creditable appearance in a mechanical point of view, while its contents give evidence of talent and fitness in those who prepare the intellectual feast. Success!... The report of Dr. Rothrock, Surgeon of the Board of Enrollment of the 17th Pa. District, to the War Department, herewith published, will be found worthy of perusal. We copy it from the Lewistown Gazette.... The Masonic fraternity of Ebensburg and vicinity gave a grand supper at Herr Foster's, Ebensburg, on St. John's eve, 27th ult.
Between forty and fifty "brethren of the mystic tie," with a like number of female lovers and supporters of Masonry, were present and participated in the festivities. The reunion was a most pleasant one.

DIED.—On the 11th December, 1865, at sea, WILLIAM B. SMITH, aged 22 years. The deceased had been in the Government employ at New Orleans, and was returning home on board a ship, when he took sick and died off Charleston, S. C. He will be remembered as the eldest son of Dr. Wm. A. Smith, formerly a prominent resident of Ebensburg, but at present of Philadelphia.

DIED.—In Chest Springs, Cambria county, on the 17th December, 1865, HALLIE, daughter of Jefferson and Mary Varnes, aged 2 years, one month, and 14 days.

A CARD TO INVALIDS.—A Clergyman, while residing in South America as a Missionary, discovered a safe and simple remedy for the cure of Nervous Weakness, Early Decay, Diseases of the Urinary and Seminal Organs, and the whole train of disorders brought on by bustle and vicious habits. Great numbers have already been cured by this noble remedy.
Prompted by a desire to benefit the afflicted and unfortunate, I will send the recipe for preparing and using this medicine, in a sealed envelope, to any one who needs it. Free of Charge.
Please inclose a post-paid envelope, addressed to yourself.

JOHNSON'S RHEUMATIC COM-POUND AND BLOOD PURIFIER.
THE SOLDIER'S FRIEND!
GREAT INTERNAL REMEDY!
Hear the Testimony of a Soldier.

PROVOST MARSHAL'S OFFICE, Pittsburg, December 17, 1864.
Mr. ANDREW JOHNSON—Dear Sir—In November last I had a severe attack of Rheumatism, to which I have not been subject for nearly three years. The attack was so severe that I could not move my head nor raise my arm. After trying different medicines in vain, I was induced to use your RHEUMATIC COMPOUND and BLOOD PURIFIER, and before I had taken three bottles I was so completely cured that I could perform any duty to which my country might call me. I can gladly and confidently recommend it to my fellow-soldiers as the quickest and surest remedy I ever used. Your true friend, NORRIS PATTERSON.
Reference—J. T. Patterson and William Duncan, 77 Wood Street.

Let the Suffering Read, and Cease to Despair.
Mr. JOHNSON—Dear Sir: This is to certify that by using three-fourths of a bottle of your RHEUMATIC COMPOUND AND BLOOD PURIFIER, I was completely cured of Chronic Rheumatism, after having suffered for more than eighteen years. It has been over four years since I was cured, and I have not felt the slightest symptoms of its return.
I remain yours truly,
ANDREW ARMSTRONG,
No. 19 James street,
ALLEGHENY CITY, May 3, 1864.

Mr. A. JOHNSON—Dear Sir—My wife was taken bad with Inflammatory Rheumatism in March last. She was very much swollen and the pain she suffered was severe; she was confined to her bed. I was advised to try your Rheumatic Fluid and Blood Purifier, so I got a bottle of it, and before the half of it was used she was entirely well. The cure is a perfect one; I never saw such medicine.— She had only taken three doses of it when the swelling and pain began to abate. All your medicine wants is to be known in order to give it success. Yours affectionately, JAMES MALLISTER.
My residence is No. 128 Cherry Alley, where my wife can be seen by any person doubting the truth of the above.

LIVER PILLS.
SILVER CREEK, Ohio Co., Va., Nov. 20, '60.
Mr. R. E. Sellers—Dear Sir—I think it a duty I owe to you and the public generally, to state that I have been afflicted with Liver complaint for a long time, and so badly, that an abscess formed and broke, which left me in a very low state. Having heard of your celebrated Liver Pills being for sale by A.
R. Sharp, West Liberty, and recommended to me by my physician, Dr. F. Smith, I concluded to give them a fair trial. I purchased one box, and found them to be just what they are recommended—the best Liver Pills ever used; and after taking four boxes, I find the disease has entirely left me, and I am now perfectly well. Respectfully yours, D. H. COLEMAN.

I certify that I am personally acquainted with Mr. Coleman, and I can bear testimony to the truth of the above certificate.

SELLERS' IMPERIAL COUGH SYRUP.
Pronounced to be the Pleasantest and most Efficacious remedy now in use.
For the Cure of Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Influenza, Tickling Sensation of the Throat, Whooping Cough, &c., &c., &c.
Seller's Imperial Cough Syrup has given relief to hundreds who have used it, and the proprietor is persuaded that it has the power to impart benefit that cannot be claimed for the Cough Mixtures in general use.
Most of the mixtures sold for coughs are composed of spirituous and indigestible articles, which, while they give little relief, really do harm. The Imperial Cough Syrup contains no spirituous ingredient whatever, and may be used in all cases not requiring an active medical treatment.
Seller's Cough Syrup Without a Rival.
PITTSBURGH, Fifth Ward, Feb. 26, 1866.
Mr. R. E. Sellers—On the 12th ult., I caught a very severe cold. The night following I went to bed earlier than usual,— yet notwithstanding I had slept none the night before my cough was so severe that I could not sleep, neither could those in the room with me. The person sleeping with me was so much annoyed by my coughing that he got up and went to a drug store, and bought a bottle of your Cough Syrup, one dose of which to my great astonishment, stopped my cough as if by magic. I went to work in the morning, and am now quite well.
Yours, &c.,
JOHN DEAN.
I hereby certify that I am well acquainted with the above circumstance, and the statement given is true.
