STATEMENT OF DANIEL BUSEB, THE ACCUSED MURDERER, WITH REFERENCE TO THE TESTIMONY OF MRS. GRAHAM—He Pleads Not Guilty to the Crime

Attributed to Him.—We print herewith a statement framed and written by Daniel Buser, under sentence of death in our county jail for the murder of Miss Polly Paul, wherein is attempted to discredit the testimony of Mrs. Graham, one of the principal witnesses for the Commonwealth in the case.

By giving it publicity, we do not wish to be understood as endorsing or in any wise approving the statement and the charges it contains; on the contrary, we print it merely as matter of general information as showing the degree set up by this man, fairly tried and fairly convicted, to establish his innocence of the most horrible crime ever perpetrated in Cambria county.

Public: Daniel Booser, in contradiction of the testimony of Mrs. Graham, make this statement.—That I, Daniel Booser, and John Bais Houser were at home in Allegheny city, where I came to Mrs. Miller's on the 23d day of June, 1895, and remained there until Friday, the 9th of June.

We then went up to Braddock's Fields, and on Saturday came down the Connellsville Railroad and got off at the Pittsburgh station, and went across the Birmingham bridge to Mrs. Fleckenstein's. I am a little ahead of my narrative, and should have stated how many persons were with me at home in Allegheny city, when we were there first.

There were at Mrs. Miller's the following named persons, viz: Mrs. Miller, her daughter Eve Wagner, J. S. Johnson, Houser and myself, and no person else until Friday, when we left for Braddock's Fields. Now, remember, fellow-citizens, that Mrs. Graham was at Mrs. Miller's when we left for Braddock's Fields.

Now we return to Mrs. Fleckenstein's, where we find Eve Wagner, who tells me there is a Dutch girl at her mother's, and that she (Eve) is going home any more. She said that she and her mother had a quarrel on that Dutch girl's account.

We left Mrs. Fleckenstein's and went over to Pittsburgh to Samuel Sanders' barber shop, which Houser got shaved by Sanders, and got shaved by his helper. We then went over to Allegheny city, to No. 49 First street, where we met the Dutch girl before alluded to, who is now Mrs. Graham, and two gentlemen with her, whose names I learned afterwards to be Mr. Coats of Allegheny city and James Young of New Brighton, Beaver county.

This was the first time that Mrs. Graham ever saw us, and this is the truth, and I am willing to take this statement with me to heaven or hell.

the jury know this, they would have given no credit to what she swore in Court. Johnston swore that we went away after I dressed Barnes' hand, and that it was cut on the 4th of June; what will the public think when they find out it was the 11th of June?

Who can swear to our going away, or testify as to who we had been, when we were at Mrs. Miller's from the 2d to the 9th June? Johnston's oath is not good, nor is Mrs. Graham's oath good. She put the whole thing wrong before the Court, because she had a spite at me, the cause of which I will lay before the public.

It is this:—When we came back from our tramp, the time we started to Oil City, a policeman named Scott fetched a man to Mr. W. Hinkle's lager beer saloon, and a Captain Wright wanted to stop with a girl that I was in company with, and Mrs. Graham wanted him (Wright) to stop with her, but he did not want her. I tried to get him to stop with her, but he said he did not want to, as he did not want to catch any disease.

Now, Mrs. Graham blamed me for telling the Captain that she had some disease, but I did not tell him anything of the kind. This Captain Wright had plenty of money with him, and Mrs. Graham wanted to get it. I did not know she was mad at me till Houser told me. He said, "She is awful mad at you—she wanted to rob Captain Wright of his money." I said, "I am glad it is as it happened."

So the public can see that she only acted from revenge in swearing as she did, and that she swore to what was false. She told Houser she would do me some hurt, and I have no doubt Robert Hague told her he would divide the reward with her if she would swear what he would tell her. Look at the testimony, and you can see where she said she had a talk with Hague about what she would swear up here in Court.

So far, the public can see how falsely she swore, and as soon as I get a letter from Liverpool, I will let you see that Mrs. Graham swore to lies. She was asked, too, if Houser had been to Beaver, and said no; I have a letter here to show that he was there.

Yours, respectfully, DANIEL BOOSER.

ETCHINGS.—We have been shown an illustrated manuscript weekly newspaper got up in Philadelphia by Messrs. Robt. A. Hennessey and E. T. Snow, entitled "The Brainscraper." Its contents are at once unique and tasteful, and reflect great credit upon those that "run the machine."

R. A. H.—"Bob" we used to call him—at one time resided in our midst, and will be remembered as a young man of genius and talent. We are glad to see that he has got into the "newspaper" business, where he can let himself out promiscuously, and wish him, and both of them, success. The board of Auditors of Cambria county are at present busily engaged on their annual task of auditing the accounts of the various public officials of the county who have accounts to be audited.

The members of the Presbyterian church of this place gave their pastor, Mr. Wilson, a substantial proof of their love for him as a minister and esteem for him as a man by presenting him with a purse containing $183.00 on Thursday evening last. Enoch Lewis, Esq., has resigned the position of General Superintendent of the Pennsylvania Railroad, and is succeeded by Edward H. Williams, Esq. The Johnstown Democrat, in a dull rhapsody addressed to the "New Year," rejoices that the war is ended, that the days of drafting and conscription are over, and that the Union is restored.

MARRIED.—At the residence of Judge Brownlee, Poland, Mahoning county, O., by Rev. A. S. Macmaster, of the Presbyterian church, Mr. John McLain, of Indiana, Pa., and Miss C. Jane Reynolds, of Bedford, Pa.

In the Catholic Church, Ebensburg, on Tuesday morning, 9th inst., by Rev. R. C. Christy, Mr. John Murphey, of Sebucykill county, and Miss Lizzie Dougherty, of Ebensburg.

On the 25th ultimo, by Rev. T. Van Scoyoc, Mr. William M. Boone, late of the U. S. army, and Miss Amanda Davis, of White tp., Cambria county.

On the 31st ultimo, by the same, Mr. Joseph R. Hollen and Mary E. Krise, both of White tp., Cambria county.

DIED.—On Friday, 5th instant, at his residence in Ebensburg, Mr. James S. Todd, aged about 32 years. The deceased was born and reared in this town, and was known probably to every man, woman and child in it. His untimely demise will be regretted by all these. He for a period of two years edited and published the Ebensburg Democrat & Sentinel. While his wife will weep and refuse to be comforted for a loving husband lost, and his relatives and friends mourn a kind brother and agreeable companion gone, we will deplore him with a peculiar keenness of grief as a fellow-journalist departed from amongst us, to tread alone till we shall come the silent cloisters of the far-off Valhalla.

HOUSE BURNED.—We are sorry to learn that the house occupied by Mr. John Cameron, in Blacklick township, was totally consumed by fire on Saturday. ONE TRIAL WILL CONVINCE! Baltimore, Fairfield County, Ohio, } January 21, 1895.

MR. R. E. SELLERS:—Dear Sir:—I am entirely out of your "Imperial Cough Syrup." Will you send me, say six dozen. I do not want to be out of it, as it is the only medicine that will come so near raising the dead. It will cure the worst cough immediately; I have recommended it to persons and given them one bottle on trial, and in every case they have given clear testimony that it gave immediate relief.

I have used it in my own family, and find it a sure cure for coughs and colds of all classes. One trial will convince any person that it is a sure cure for the worst of coughs and colds. Yours, etc., A. L. SIMMANS.
