THE PRESS IN EBENSBURG—A BRIEF HISTORY OF ITS RISE AND PROGRESS.
I propose to embody, in the course of a few papers in these columns, a history of the press in this town (and the perfect as we can make it) of the past in Ebensburg. With the kind permission of the reader, we will go back to the dim vista of fifty years and take a glance at its very conception; and, making that our starting-point, will carefully follow the battling progress and civilization through its chequered career (and has been chequered) down to the present. We are induced to enter upon this somewhat difficult task from a twofold purpose:—first, with a faint hope of interesting if not instructing the mass of our local readers; and second, and mainly that the facts and figures to be comprehended in this history may be placed on record, in black and white, and so preserved for all time to come. A half century hence, when Ebensburg shall be a great manufacturing town, with 50,000 inhabitants and a half-dozen daily newspapers, such a history will be of no common interest, but will be read with avidity and treated with scrupulous care among our most precious local archives. It is not beyond the bounds of possibility that a book may be written having for its groundwork these very facts and figures;—at any rate, we here and now throw out this hint to some ambitious historiographer who may come after us. These speculations suggest the remark, that day by day, our old inhabitants, upon whom the necessity depend for much of the information going to make up the earlier portion of the proposed history, are dropping off, like withered leaves, to enrich our mother earth whence they sprang; and if not embalmed in the printed page, the information sought after will die with them, or be transmitted to posterity through the medium of traditions and unreliable as those of the Covenanters of Scotland.

We will just here say, that it may happen now and then that an error of fact may creep into the body of the narrative. Should such be the case, we will be thankful if any of our readers will promptly correct the same.

The first house is said to have been built in Ebensburg in 1739. In 1804, Cambria county was erected out of parts of Allegheny and Somerset counties, and Ebensburg was one of the original towns thereof.

The first newspaper established in Ebensburg was the pioneer to these western hills of the "power which moves the world," was called The Olive Branch, and was edited and published by one Thomas Wilson. At that time, Ebensburg contained only fourteen or fifteen houses, and not 100 inhabitants. What the impression held out to establish a newspaper was of such exceedingly abbreviated proportions, or what the impression of its own competency be guessed at. Possibly the veracious typographer was nervous in the undertaking by the promise held out of the "power printing;" more likely he thought that the accidental advantage of the county-seat to Ebensburg would cause it to speedily arise from the primeval wilderness of hemlock, fern, and mushrooms, a town of vast importance, and that he would "grow up with the town."

In these days, the awarding of the county-seat to Ebensburg was thought to be a "big thing" for that town, and the placing of her feet in the sure and quick road to fortune. That this impression was of wide prevalence is shown by the present condition of Beulah and Ebensburg, two competitors for the distinguished honor conferred upon Ebensburg. The former is an unsightly pile of ruins, and a "rose of the wilderness" left on the stalk, to tell where the garden had been; the latter is a sickly, straggling village. Starting out with natural advantages equal in every respect to those possessed by Ebensburg, they both gave up the fight for pre-eminence, for existence we might say, upon the settlement of the county-seat question, and merged their fortunes with those of their successful competitor. It may be said of Beulah and Ebensburg, that they were done to death by the decision of the Supreme Court in the matter of the application of Buser and Houser for a new trial has not yet been made public.

wilderness—whether it was the promise of the county printing, or the expectation of seeing a large town grow up as by magic, or whether it was something else and totally different from these—can be with us, as we said before, but speculation. Whatever it was, however, it must have proved hollow and delusive to Foley, for the Olive Branch lived but a short life.

The Olive Branch was the first newspaper published in Cambria county. We say this with the full understanding that a paper called the Western Sky was published in the interest of Beulah so early as 1798. But the Sky was printed in Philadelphia, although edited in Beulah. Strictly speaking, it was no more a Cambria county publication than is a piece of cloth a Cambria county production because the wool of which it is composed was grown here, though carded, spun and woven elsewhere. The Olive Branch bears a double load of honor, therefore—that of having been the first paper published in Ebensburg, and that of having been the first published in Cambria county. And we much doubt, leaving Pittsburg out of the count, if another paper was published west of the Alleghenies, in Pennsylvania, at the period of its establishment.

ETCHINGS.—We have received from Mr. Lewis J. Jones a copy of the twelfth annual report of the officers of the House of Refuge for Western Pennsylvania, for which favor that gentleman has our thanks. From a cursory examination of the report; we are satisfied that the institution is in good condition, and that it is doing well and thoroughly a work of incalculable importance to the State at large. Mr. Jones, who by the way is a native of this place, is Assistant Superintendent and Principal Teacher of the House, in which capacity he is winning golden opinions. The hardware store of A. H. Osterloh, in Hollidaysburg, was entered by burglars a few nights since, and despoiled of goods to the value of $1,000.... D. J. Morrell, Superintendent of the Johnstown Iron Works, says that the amount paid at that establishment for salaries and wages during the year 1865 was $1,535,380 24.... The warm weather and glimpses of spring we were enjoying here last week came to an abrupt termination on Saturday, since which time the weather has been cold and disagreeable.... The walk from the old Academy to the railroad depot needs repairing badly. On a sunshiny day, the mud is so deep that it is almost impassable. Fetch on the tankard!... Two men were crushed to death in an ore bank near Blair Furnace, Blair county, on Wednesday last week, by the caving in of the bank.... It is proposed to incorporate Altoona into a city.... The President has vetoed the Negro Freedmen's Bureau Bill, shrieks the Johnstown Democrat of last week—"hurrah for Andy Johnson!" In April of last year, the Democrat insisted that Andy Johnson was a "drunkard," and a disgrace to the nation. But perhaps it is Democratic whisky that Andy is drinking now, which would make all the difference in the world to the Democrat.... Our newly elected Burgess and Town Councilmen were "sworn in" on Monday evening, and entered upon the discharge of the duties of their respective offices.... Divine service was held in our county jail on Sunday afternoon last, Rev. Mr. Wilson, of the Presbyterian church, officiating.

SENATORIAL DELEGATE TO THE STATE CONVENTION—A Suggestion.—If Indiana and Jefferson counties do not during the present week call a conference to select a Senatorial delegate to the 7th of March State Convention who shall be qualified to represent the whole and not a mere fractional part of the district, we suggest that the conferees of Cambria county meet in conference at some convenient point say on next Monday, and choose a delegate to that Convention, who shall be empowered to speak for and in behalf of this part of the district. Cambria county has certain rights which must be respected; and prominent among these is the right of representation in any political body whose deliberations may affect the question of her general interests. The State Convention, we think, would not hesitate, under the circumstances, to admit our delegate so chosen.

GAYSPORT AHEAD.—Gaysport boros leads the van in the matter of "Equal Rights." At the late election held in that borough, Major John Thomas, colored, received the highest number of votes for Constable! When it is remembered, says the Hollidaysburg Register, that this borough is the pride of the Democracy, and always sure for a Democratic majority, the election of Major Thomas is a sign that the world moves.

THE decision of the Supreme Court in the matter of the application of Buser and Houser for a new trial has not yet been made public.

OUR JOHNSTOWN LETTER.

THE NEW BURGESS AND THE QUESTION OF REFORM—AN ELOQUENCE.
JOHNSTOWN, Feb. 26, 1866.

Dear Alleg.—Since the date of my last letter, but little of importance has transpired here. Col. Kopelin, our newly elected Burgess, entered upon the discharge of the duties of his office on Tuesday evening, on which occasion he delivered an eloquent inaugural address, promising, to the extent of his abilities, to inaugurate and carry out several much needed measures of reform in connection with the administration of our local government. In this, he will be seconded and supported by an energetic police force, with Captain Ryckman as its chief.

Report hath it that a young girl of some fourteen happy summers, the daughter of a rural resident in this vicinity, eloped one day last week with her lover, since which time no intelligence has reached her distracted parents as to their whereabouts.

DESPERATION.—We overheard a man in town the other day uttering the desperate threat that he would have money—if he had to work for it! When asked why he conceived himself to stand so sadly in need of "postage stamps," he stated that he wanted to go to Thompson's Cheap Store, Ebensburg, and buy a suit of ready-made clothing, a hat, pair of boots, and several other necessary articles of attire, all of which he couldn't do owing to a lack of lucre!

THE LECTURE.—The lecture in the Court House on Saturday evening last, by Rev. R. C. Christy, was attended by a large and appreciative audience. The subject, "Poetry," was handled in a masterly manner, so as at once to interest and instruct. We hope to have these lectures often repeated.

DENTISTRY.—Dr. S. Belford, dentist, has arrived in town, and will remain here, in a professional capacity, during the balance of the present and a portion of next week. Those afflicted with decaying or decayed teeth should give him a call.

THE BANK.—By reference to an advertisement elsewhere, it will be seen that the doors of the new bank have been thrown open to the public for the transaction of business.

MARRIED.—In Johnstown, on the 30th January, by Rev. D. T. Davis, Mr. Wm. H. Goodfellow, of Hollidaysburg, to Miss Mollie Hartman, of Wilmore.

THE SINGER SEWING MACHINES.—Our Letter A Family Sewing Machine is fast gaining a world-wide reputation. It is beyond doubt the best and cheapest and most beautiful of all Family Sewing Machines yet offered to the public. No other Family Sewing Machine has so many useful appliances for Hemming, Binding, Felling, Tucking, Gathering, Gauging, Braiding, Embroidering, Cording, &c. No other Family Sewing Machine has so much capacity for a great variety of work. It will sew all kinds of cloth, and with all kinds of thread. Great and recent improvements make our Family Sewing Machine most reliable, and most durable, and most certain in action at all rates of speed. It makes the interlocked stitch, which is the best stitch known. Any one, even of the most ordinary capacity, can see, at a glance, how to use the letter A Family Sewing Machine. Our Family Sewing Machines are finished in chaste and exquisite style.

The Folding Case of the Family Machine is a piece of cunning workmanship of the most useful kind. It protects the machine when not in use, and when about to be operated may be opened as a spacious and substantial table to sustain the work. While some of the Cases, made out of the choicest woods, are finished in the simplest and chastest manner possible, others are adorned and embellished in the most costly and superb manner.

It is absolutely necessary to see the Family Machine in operation, so as to judge of its great capacity and beauty.

It is fast becoming as popular for family sewing as our Manufacturing machines are for manufacturing purposes. The Branch Offices are well supplied with silk, twist, thread, needles, oil, &c., of the very best quality.

Baltimore, Fairfield County, Ohio, }
January 21, 1859. }
Mr. R. E. SELLERS—Dear Sir:—I am entirely out of your "Imperial Cough Syrup." Will you send me, say six dozen. I do not want to be out of it, as it is the only medicine that will come so near raising the dead. It will cure the worst cough immediately: I have recommended it to persons and given them one bottle on trial, and in every case they have given clear testimony that it gave immediate relief.

I have used it in my own family, and find it a sure cure for coughs and colds of all classes. One trial will convince any person that it is a sure cure for the worst of coughs and colds.
