

EDITING A PAPER.—Editing a paper is a very pleasant business.

If it contains too much political matter, people won't read it.

If the type are too large, it don't contain enough of reading matter.

If the type are small, people won't read it.

If we publish telegraph reports, people say they are lies.

If we omit them, people say we have no enterprise, or suppress them for political effect.

If we have in a few jokes, people say we are a rattlehead.

If we omit them, people say we are an old fossil.

If we publish original matter, they damn us for not giving selections.

If we publish selections, men say we are lazy for not writing more and giving them what they have not read in some other paper.

If we give a man a complimentary notice, then we are censured for being partial.

If we do not, all hands say we are a greedy hog.

If we insert an article that pleases the ladies, men become jealous.

If we do not cater to their wishes, the paper is not fit to have in the house.

If we attend church, they say it is only for effect.

If we don't, they denounce us as deceitful and desperately wicked.

If we remain in the office and attend to business, folks say we are too proud to mingle with our fellows.

If we go out, they say we never attend to business.

If we publish poetry, we affect sentimentalism.

If we do not, we have no literary polish or taste.

If the mail does not deliver our paper promptly, they say we do not publish on time.

If it does, they are afraid we are getting ahead of time.

If we do not pay all bills promptly, folks say we are not to be trusted.

If we do pay promptly, they say we stole the money.

THE JO. SMITH MORMONS.—A correspondent of the Albany Argus, who has recently visited the Mormons in Illinois, gives this description: "I had not imagined the Mormons of the Jo. Smith party were so numerous. I am told that there are not less than ten thousand, of whom the majority are in Illinois, and the rest in the neighboring States. The most considerable settlement is at Plano, a thriving village, situated about fifty miles west of Chicago. Here resides Joseph Smith, 'Prophet, Priest and King' of the 'Latter-Day Saints,' by virtue of the laying on of hands of his notable father, 'Joseph Smith the Martyr,' as he is called by the faithful. By-the-by, there is no doubt the assassination of the Mormon prophet gave a powerful impulse to the advancement of this new and strange religion. 'The blood of the martyrs is the seed of the church,' as well for heresiarchy as for hierarchy. The proof that Joseph Smith, Jr., is the lawful successor of his sire in the apostleship of the Mormon sect is very ably set forth in a late number of a weekly newspaper now lying before me, entitled 'The True Latter-Day Saints' Herald.'—This paper is edited by the prophet himself, and published at Plano, and bears for its motto this text from the Book of Mormon: 'Hearken to the record of the Lord; for there shall not any man among you have but one wife; and concubines he shall have none.' And on this point mainly hangs the difference of creed between the rival parties. Smith and his followers say that Young and his disciples have not hearkened to the word of the Lord, but falling into the sin of polygamy and defending the same, are thereby heretical and accursed."

A lawyer addressed the Court as "gentlemen" instead of "your honors." After he had concluded, a brother of the bar reminded him of his error. He immediately arose and apologized thus:—"May it please the Court, in the heat of debate I called your honors gentlemen. I made a mistake, and humbly beg your pardon." The apology was rather worse than the mistake.
