The remains of the deceased were brought here on Saturday, and on Sunday were followed to their last testing place, in Lloyd Cemetery, by a large concourse of sorrowing friends.

SELLERS' MEDICINES - We direct attention to the new column advertisement of Messrs. R. E. Sellers & Co., Pittsburg. The medicines they manufacture are po quack nostrums, but good, standard curatives. The editor of this paper can specially recommend the "Rheumatic Compound," which he knows to be one of the surest of ource for rheumatism.

lently agitated here just at present, and a call is made for a meeting in the Methodist church, to take measures to bring about a reform in this respect. Opposition will be offered to the granting of licenses by the Court to all persons except such as keep de facto public houses, and the number of these, if the remonstrators have their way, will be limited to the few thought really necessary to accommodate the traveling public.

The bill providing that eight bours the State, has passed the House of Representatives by the vote of 69 yeas to 14 navs. This is a measure which interests every mechanic and laboring man, and I am of opinion that the Press has failed to bestow upon it the attention which it deserves. It is notorious that the laboring man and mechanic are overworked. They are obliged to toil from early morn till late in the evening for the pittance which is required to support them, and then, returning home tired and worn-out, mestic circle or of society, but their beds, that they may renew their wasted energies for the morrow's task. This never ending routine has the inevitable effect of sinking these mon in time to the level of mere machines, capable only of performing a given task in a given time. For the sake of this class of people, our "bone
