PRESS IN EBENSBURG.—After we prepared our article on the Cambria last week, we received from Robt.
C. Canan, Esq., of Johnstown, a copy of paper of date November 10, 1824—No. 1. As showing the spirit of the rebellion from the publi-cans of their journal, we subjoin entire salutatory:

Presenting to the public the first number of the Cambria Gazette, we consider it a which propriety enjoins and custom to state the Principles upon which should be conducted our Journal. We will briefly, and the course we select, we pursue.

We do not approve of the rancour displayed in party prints—it causes disunion and every thing which tends to bring the heat of those contending for the increasing the ire of enraged Partisans. Our columns will always be open to every subject of temperate and well written and on the subject of our most excellent and the wise institutions of our country adopted by our country—we will analytically reject every thing which may arouse party feeling—injure private character or effect individual reputation. To such we will endeavor to give the ear of our relative Bodies and generally of the most important transactions in the political world.
No paper will be sufficient to contain in all the Foreign and Domestic News, but we will endeavor to give a Summary of the most important facts.

Whatever may tend to promote useful and to encourage Agriculture and improvement, shall meet with our support and earliest attention—it is in these that the real independence of our country in a great measure rest—and will only throw in our name to aid in their extension and to encourage their extension.
A portion of our Paper will be allotted to selected and selected Poetry, and to Literary and generally; we respectfully solicit assistance of those who are able to aid us in our paper what we wish it to be useful, pleasing and interesting Jour-

The publication of the Gazette was commenced by Messrs. Murray & M'Farlane for a period of about two years, in 1826, the enterprise in the meantime having been found to be a non-paying paper, the paper was dismantled and sent to Blairsville. At that place, a paper called The Record was published for the same parties, with the Gazette material, for a period of time to us unknown length. And thus ended, in failure the second attempt to establish on a new foundation the Press in Ebensburg.

In 1831, the Record was bought out by John J. Canan and William B. two gentlemen who took counsel the past only as it served to give them strength and for the future, who brought the establishment back to Ebensburg, and started, in July of the same year, the Sky newspaper. At that time, Ebensburg contained a population of a more than 270. The Sky was a five column paper, a trifle larger than the Alleghenian, neutral in politics, with the policy of "Unmoved by the passing storms—from the elements of jarring strife." It was for $2.00 a year in advance, or $0.50 if not paid in advance. The paper was carried on by Canan & Brown until December 10, 1832, when the latter gentlemen, induced thereto by failing health, sold out his interest to his partner and retired from the concern. Mr. Canan remained sole publisher until January 24, 1833, when John Scott became his partner and the Sky was metamorphosed into a big paper. In May, 1833, it was changed to the present size of The Alleghenian.
Canan & Scott continued to publish it till January, 1836, when Mr.
Scott retired from the firm, and the paper was reduced to its old size. Mr. Canan continued as publisher till February 11, 1836, when he removed to Johnstown. He was succeeded by Moses Canan, who conducted the affairs of the office until May 26, 1836, at which date the Sky ceased to exist as an Ebensburg publication. Shortly after this, the establishment was removed to Johnstown, where a new paper was published, under the same name for a number of years.

In the foregoing figures, it would appear that the Sky lived and labored for about nearly five years in the place where it was translated to a new field of action. During its existence it may have been so fortunate as to remain unmoved by the passing storms that have been so common to this country since the elements of jarring strife will it was not able—said thought! to achieve the distinction of success.
After a more protracted fight than its predecessors against the cruel destiny which seemed to encompass all efforts looking to the establishing of the Press here, but as unavailingly. And Ebensburg was again without an "organ."

Of those who were editors of the Sky, three still live, and one is dead. John J.
Canan resides at Eldorado, Blair county, where he is engaged in the lime business; Wm. B. Brown resides in Pittsburgh—he will be remembered as the gentleman who canvassed Cambria county last fall for subscriptions to "Barrett's Life of Lincoln;" John Scott lives in Brookville, Jefferson county, and is editor of the Ke-publican newspaper printed there; Moses Canan has long gone to his last account, full of years and honors.

ETCHINGS.—The 214th regiment Pa.
Vol., in which organization were quite a number of Cambrians, has been mustered out of service. With the return home of these our "boys," the last volunteer soldier of the rebellion from this county, we believe, will have beaten his spear into a pruning-hook and come back to the walks of peace... James C. Easley, Esq., who studied law in this place, has "lung out his shingle" in Johnstown. He was a hard student, and will make a good lawyer... Willie Hamilton, first born of Jas.
M. and Lizzie H. Swank, Johnstown, died on the 22d ult., aged 4 years... Do you want to invest in the coal business? If so, see advertisement of E. E. Evans & Co., who will offer at public sale, on the 19th inst., their coal bank, situated near Lilly's Station. They will also sell 47 acres of land, 150 tons coke, horses, wagons, etc... See list of letters remaining in Ebensburg P. O. April 1... Notice other new advertisements.

NEW SCHEDULE.—Another new schedule went into effect on the Pennsylvania Railroad on Monday. The following is the time of departure of the several trains from Cresson:

Schedule for Eb. & Cresson Branch R.
R. same as before.

BUSER AND HOUSER.—The death warrants of Buser and Houser were read to the condemned men a few days since.— Both protested and still continue to protest their innocence of the great crime imputed to them. In view of the near approach of death, and despairing of further respite from the gallows, the unfortunate men are looking to God for mercy.
The Rev. Mr. Wilson, of the Presbyterian Church, ministers to the spiritual wants of Buser; the Rev. Mr. Christy, of the Catholic Church, waits on Houser.

DIED.—On Friday, 30th ultimo, at the residence of Col. R. Litzinger, Strong-town, Indiana county, Sarah, wife of Mr.
John Lloyd, of Ebensburg, aged about 27 years. The remains of the deceased were brought here on Saturday, and on Sunday were followed to their last resting place, in Lloyd Cemetery, by a large concourse of sorrowing friends.

SELLERS' MEDICINES.—We direct attention to the new column advertisement of Messrs. R. E. Sellers & Co., Pittsburg.
The medicines they manufacture are no quack nostrums, but good, standard cura-tives. The editor of this paper can specially recommend the "Rheumatic Compound," which he knows to be one of the surest of cures for rheumatism.

NOT TRUE.—It is not true that three cent postage stamps will hereafter be sold for two cents at the Ebensburg P. O.— But it is true that J. M. Thompson, of the P. O. store, Ebensburg, will sell spring goods (of which he has just received a large and splendid assortment) one-third cheaper than other merchants.
Go and see! go and see!

OUR JOHNSTOWN LETTER.
MARCH CAME IN LIKE A LAMB, BUT GOES OUT LIKE A LION—SINGULAR FREAKS OF A TOR-NADO—SLAUGHTER-HOUSES DECLARED PUBLIC NUISANCES—"MOVING-DAY" AND "MOVING" HOUSES—TEMPERANCE REFORM—THE EIGHT HOUR LAW, &c., &c.
JOHNSTOWN, April 2, 1866.

The month of March came to a close on Saturday in one of the fiercest storms ever witnessed here. Its most disastrous effects were confined, so far as I have been able to learn, to a narrow course or track on Yoder's Hill, just above Kernville. A dense black cloud enveloped this hill, and slowly rolled along its crest, accompanied by noises popularly ascribed to pandemonium.
The bright sun, following in its wake, revealed the hill entirely stripped of the gigantic trees which had successfully defied the storms of a century to uproot. For a space of several hundred feet in width and a half mile in length, not a tree was left standing! The roof of a barn which stood in the course of the tornado was taken up and whirled a great distance. Persons living along the river state that the cloud in the end appeared to roll off the hill down into the river, causing great jets of water to arise to the height of one hundred feet in the air.

Our city fathers, in view of the possibility of the cholera making its appearance here the coming season, have declared all slaughter-houses within the boundaries of our five wards to be public nuisances.
This decision has created quite a flutter among our butchers, by reason that nearly all their slaughter-houses are built within the limits designated. Petitions are being circulated by the butchers praying that the ordinance be rescinded, but in view of the fact that these houses are nuisances within the limits of a town, they will probably amount to nothing.

This is "moving day," and our streets are literally filled with fittings. Several hundred families will change their places of abode before evening, and the traditional number of seedlings will doubtless be indulged in. Rents have advanced considerably lately, and tenant houses are very scarce.

Police business was brisk on Friday and Saturday last. Several "cases" were disposed of, among which were—three persons fined for stopping teams on street crossings, two accommodated with lodgings for the night in the lock-up for indulging in over-doses of lightning whisky, others juggled for disorderly conduct, &c., &c. Several of our leading citizens have had to step up to the Captain's office and settle, one for violating a section in the "condensed code" with reference to propelling wheelbarrows on the sidewalk, another for permitting meat to be sold at his own private market house during regular market hours, and still another who had neglected taking out a permit for the use of the sidewalk in putting shutters to his storeroom. These latter cases included some of the wealthiest citizens in town, which would go to show that the police make no discrimination as between broadcloth and rags.

The temperance question is being violently agitated here just at present, and a call is made for a meeting in the Methodist church, to take measures to bring about a reform in this respect. Opposition will be offered to the granting of licenses by the Court to all persons except such as keep de facto public houses, and the number of these, if the remonstrators have their way, will be limited to the few thought really necessary to accommodate the traveling public.

The bill providing that eight hours shall constitute a day's labor throughout the State, has passed the House of Representatives by the vote of 69 yeas to 14 nays. This is a measure which interests every mechanic and laboring man, and I am of opinion that the Press has failed to bestow upon it the attention which it deserves. It is notorious that the laboring man and mechanic are overworked.
They are obliged to toil from early morning till late in the evening for the pittance which is required to support them, and then, returning home tired and worn-out, they seek, not the pleasures of the domestic circle or of society, but their beds, that they may renew their wasted energies for the morrow's task. This never ending routine has the inevitable effect of sinking these men in time to the level of mere machines, capable only of performing a given task in a given time. For the sake of this class of people, our "bone and sinew," I hope the Senate will concur in the action of the House, and that the bill will speedily become law.

A woman named Hetrick, residing in the 3d ward, died suddenly of cramp on Thursday last. Her limbs remained in a contracted condition after death, and all efforts were unavailing to cause them to relax their rigidity. D. D.

DIED.—At his residence, in Ebensburg, on Tuesday, 3d inst., Mr. Jacob Turner,

THE SINGER SEWING MACHINES.—Our Letter A Family Sewing Machine is fast gaining a world-wide reputation. It is beyond doubt the best and cheapest and most beautiful of all Family Sewing Machines yet offered to the public. No other Family Sewing Machine has so many useful appliances for Hemming, Binding, Felling, Tucking, Gathering, Gauging, Braiding, Embroidering, Cording, &c. No other Family Sewing Machine has so much capacity for a great variety of work. It will sew all kinds of cloth, and with all kinds of thread. Great recent improvements make our Family Sewing Machine most reliable, and most durable, and most certain in action at all rates of speed. It makes the interlocked stitch, which is the best stitch known. Any one, even of the most ordinary capacity, can see, at a glance, how to use the Letter A Family Sewing Machine. Our Family Sewing Machines are finished in chaste and exquisite style.

The Folding Case of the Family Machine is a piece of cunning workmanship of the most useful kind. It protects the machine when not in use, and when about to be operated may be opened as a spacious and substantial table to sustain the work. While some of the Cases, made out of the choicest woods, are finished in the simplest and chastest manner possible, others are adorned and embellished in the most costly and superb manner.

It is absolutely necessary to see the Family Machine in operation, so as to judge of its great capacity and beauty.

It is fast becoming as popular for family sewing as our Manufacturing machines are for manufacturing purposes.

The Branch Offices are well supplied with silk, twist, thread, needles, oil, &c., of the very best quality.

JOHNSON'S RHEUMATIC COM-POUND!

No medicine for the cure of Rheumatism has ever attained to such a high degree of favor and universality as JOHNSON'S RHEUMATIC COMPOUND.

Although but one year before the public, this medicine has justly gained an unbounded popularity. When the originator first introduced it, he was convinced of its efficacy, but he little supposed it was destined to prove such an inestimable blessing to the afflicted.
But "true merit" cannot be suppressed.— The attestation of hundreds who have been cured by its use, must prove the truth of the assertion;

"THAT IT IS A RADICAL CURATIVE" FOR
INFLAMMATORY AND ACUTE RHEUMA-TISM, GOUT, NEURALGIA, AND KINDRED DISEASES.

We recommend it with confidence as
THE GREAT INTERNAL REMEDY, For the Speedy and Positive Cure of the above Complaints.

Messrs. R. E. SELLERS & Co.: This is to certify that for the last sixteen years I have been severely afflicted with rheumatism, often confined to my house, and even unable to walk. Being in the Postoffice, about two months ago, Mr. Clark observed my crippled condition, and urged me to try a bottle of "Johnson's Rheumatic Compound." I followed his advice and now, by the blessing of God, and the use of half a bottle of your "Compound," I am free from all symptoms of rheumatism, and can walk without the aid of my staff, as well as ever.

IT IS UNEXCELLED.

The old and young, rich and poor, people of all classes speak in unqualified terms of its great efficacy. We make no claim to having discovered a "Panacea," or "Universal Remedy" for all the ailments to which flesh is heir, but we do claim what counts facts have fairly and fully established, that in the BLOOD SEARCHER the afflicted will find a "STANDARD MEDICINE," one upon which they can rely as a sure specific for all the diseases for which it is recommended.

IT IS WORTH A TRIAL.
