THE PRESS IN EBENSBURG.—Some account of the Allegheny Portage Railroad, as gathered from the pages of cotemporaneous history, may not prove interesting to the reader. The columns of the Ebensburg Sky are replete with information touching the progress and completion of that then stupendous undertaking.

The Pennsylvania Canal was a project to connect the great waters of the eastern part of the State with those of the western, and so form a continuous line of navigation between the two sections. It was at first contemplated to continue the canal, with locks and dams, as far as possible up the sides of the Allegheny Mountains, and then tunnel through intervening mountains, but this idea was speedily abandoned as impracticable. The Portage Railroad was built as the great and available link of connexion in the mountain. It was thirty-six miles long, and for the most part through Cambria county. Its eastern terminus was Hollis-daysburg, and its western Johnstown. It consisted of a series of inclined planes, the longest of which was the one between Johnstown and the intervening level. The cars were raised and lowered over the planes by means of stationary engines. The whole line of improvements was built at the expense of the State.

In the Sky of July 28, 1831, it is stated that the first estimate or pay-roll for the road had just been made out. "Of the five sections of the road under construction, we are told, 'all are being pushed forward with considerable strength. Tomorrow, the balance of the road, twelve miles, will be let.'"

On the 27th, 1832, several sections of the road had been finished, and the whole was pressing rapidly toward completion.
The editor congratulates himself thus—"We have hopes of enjoying a ride in a road car over the Allegheny Mountain an early day next summer."

On the 8th, 1832, twenty miles of the road had been graded and made ready for the laying of the rails.

On the 4th, 1833, the rails had been laid from Hollidaysburg to the foot of Plane No. 10, a distance of three miles. In celebration of the anniversary of American Independence, an excursion was had over a portion of the road on that day. It was a rare old excursion, to be sure! The sheer report of the proceedings tells among other things, that "at noon a procession of ladies and gentlemen was seen at Hollidaysburg) and marched down the road prepared for their reception.
The departure was announced by a voluntary band from Captain Le Rue's regiment, and the gay party, with music and banners flying, were cheered throughout the expedition by hundreds of spectators who could not obtain seats in the cars.— There were 235 passengers, drawn by five horses, which moved off in gallant style." According to Hollidaysburg, the festivity was kept up in good old style throughout the day. The Declaration of Independence was read, orations were delivered, and a sumptuous banquet was discus-ed, and innumerable toasts were got off.
On the 21st, 1833, the rails had been laid the whole line of the road, with the exception of a small section at the Summit.

up for business purposes till March 18, 1834. On that day, by order of the board of Canal Commissioners, it was formally declared "open for public transportation." We quote from the Sky of March 20:

"Portage Railroad.—On Tuesday last, this most important link in the chain of communication between the east and west was fully united to the other parts. On that day eight covered cars belonging to Leech's line left the basin at Conemaugh, and accompanied by the Principal Engineer and assistants, and a number of citizens, proceeded eastward. The engines being in full operation, they were drawn up the five planes west of the mountain in fine style and with great rapidity.— Yesterday morning they proceeded down the mountain. We saw them let down the two first planes east of the Summit. The operation was simple, safe and expeditious. The "The excellence of the machinery and the plan of passing the planes have been fully tested. There can now no doubt remain of the practicability of passing a vast amount of trade between the two Basins by means of this very excellent rail road. The engines are capable of taking up or letting down a train of three cars, with their freight of nine tons, at the rate of about ten miles per hour."
"The cars were freighted with about ten tons of bacon. They will return from Hollis-daysburg with full loads of store goods, large quantities of which are now daily arriving at that place. Eight more cars would leave Conemaugh yesterday morning, and in a few days, if the business will require it, of which there is little doubt, forty-four other cars will be added to this line."

From that time forward, until the progressive spirit of the age brought forth the Pennsylvania Railroad, the "old Portage" continued to perform the work assigned it in a most creditable manner.
The high hopes and exalted aspirations which clustered about it were destined not to result in disappointment, but in happy, glorious fruition.

ETCHINGS.—The outside of to-day's paper is dated Thursday, May 2; it ought to be May 3. There are five lodges of Good Templars in Blair county, all in a prosperous condition. The new paper mill at Spang's Mills, Blair county, is in full tide of successful operation. Potatoes sell here at $1.90 per bushel and upwards—about one cent apiece. J. M.
Coleman, of Indiana, sentenced to the penitentiary for one year from March last on conviction on a charge of seduction, has been pardoned by the Governor.
An alarm of fire was raised in the West Ward on Thursday. The "skwirl" was not got out, from which we infer that the devouring element made no serious pretensions toward attaining the dignity of a full sized conflagration. James C. Easley, Esq., of Johnstown, was in town on Monday.
Shoemaker & Sons have just opened out, at their store, High street, Ebensburg, a large assortment of furniture and upholstering goods. See advertisement elsewhere. The Johnstown Democrat is to be enlarged. It ought also to be improved. The weather has been cold, wet and disagreeable of late, and as much unlike what spring ought to be as is possible. The Pennsylvania Railroad Co. has built and furnished a new school room in Altoona, adjoining the Chief Engineer's office. The grass and grain crops in this section are said by those who ought to know to be in healthy, flourishing condition. H. A. Caldwell, of Blair county, has been appointed a clerk in the Surveyor General's office at Harrisburg. See Reading matter on every page.

HOUSER'S CONFESSION.—Last week, we stated that a voluntary confession had been made by Houser shortly before he was hanged, and gave the substance thereof to our readers. It was substantially correct as we printed it. Houser declared as his last dying words that Busser murdered Polly Paul and Cassie Munday for their money, killing both with the bloody club found, and that he was aided and abetted in the work of death by the George Blanchard spoken of so frequently in Busser's letters; but as for himself, he protested that he was innocent of any and all connexion with the murder. If there be any other material facts connected with the confession, they have been withheld from the public. Houser made request that the details of the confession, which we presume will be done in due course of time. We have only to add that notwithstanding Houser's dying declarations of innocence, he is yet held by unanimous consent to have been equally guilty with his confederate of the crime for which they were tried, convicted, and executed.

NEW HOTEL.—An act of incorporation empowering a company, composed wholly of Ebensburgers, to erect a hotel in this place, was passed by the Legislature during the latter part of its late session.— We understand this company purpose going to work forthwith to carry out the praiseworthy object in view. The hotel, if erected, will be a very large one, capable of accommodating several hundred guests, and will be intended mainly as a summer resort. In this connection, it may not be amiss to mention that all the spare hotel room in town has been already taken up by persons who intend retiring here during the dog-days, before the approach of the much-dreaded cholera.

OUR JOHNSTOWN LETTER.

PAY DAY AT THE ROLLING MILL—BRIK TIME FOR THE POLICE—A WAR UPON CELLAR DOORS AND STORE ECKES—A STORMY NIGHT—GOOD HOPE—VARIETY.
JOHNSTOWN, April 30, 1884.

Dear Alleg: Saturday was "pay day" at the Mill, and the usual large sums of money were paid to the employees. Pay day is proverbially a drinking day, and this was no exception to the rule. About two o'clock in the afternoon, judging from the number of persons to be seen about the doors of drinking saloons, it was evident that the police would have no scarcity of business. At three o'clock, the work began, and a man from Conemaugh boro. was lodged in the jug for kicking up a disturbance, throwing stones, &c. Soon after, several other rows occurred down on Washington street, in one of which a father and son were nabbed by the "charlies." By nine o'clock, the stone masonry at the public square was filled with occupants, some eight or ten having been provided with lodgings therein. The grand result was that some sixty dollars of fines were netted the boro.

The efficiency of our police, considering the small number on duty, is a matter of especial congratulation. It might be stated, in this connection, that by the provisions of an act lately passed by the Legislature and signed by the Governor, the jurisdiction or bailiwick of the police is considerably enlarged, they now having the same rights and powers as those exercised by township constables.

To-day, the ordinance requiring the cutting down of all cellar doors to a level with the pavements, and denying merchants and others the privilege of obstructing the sidewalks with boxes, &c., goes into effect. Quite an interesting day is expected, as not a few of our citizens express their determination to resist what they term "an odious and unjust law."

Saturday night, from ten o'clock till near morning, a terrific storm raged here.
A singular phenomenon connected with the storm was the fact that the whirling wind confined its freaks to the neighboring hill tops, where it bent, twisted and snapped asunder the mighty monarchs of the forests, while scarcely a breath of air was felt in town.

The "Scott House," under the supervision of Mr. Beauford, has been thrown open to the public. Mr. B. has had considerable experience as a landlord, and under his management the House will undoubtedly take rank as a first-class hotel—an institution sadly needed here. I would recommend your readers to make a note hereof.

On Saturday afternoon, there was an examination of applicants for the schools of Conemaugh boro. You will conclude that the cause of education is not languishing when you are told that there were some fifty applicants for the five schools to be given out.

Mrs. Kingston, wife of John Kingston, Esq., of Conemaugh boro, died this morning, at her residence, of consumption.— She was about 53 years of age. She leaves a husband and one son to mourn her loss.

The white boy who was accidentally shot and severely wounded by a colored boy a couple of weeks since, is rapidly recovering and is now out of danger.
Alice Andrews, the young lady injured in the Woolen Factory some time ago, is quite low from illness resulting from the effects of that accident. D. D.

MARBLE WORKS.—We direct the attention of the reader to the advertisement in another column of Mr. James Wilkinson, who has opened out a marble works in Loretto, Cambria county. He has on hand a stock of fine marble, and will manufacture to order monuments, tombstones, table and bureau tops, &c. Terms reasonable, and work warranted to give satisfaction. Mr. W. has lately erected several tombstones in Lloyd Cemetery, a half mile east of Ebensburg. These are certainly tasteful and artistic in both design and execution, and are well worth a visit to see.

"INQUIER."—In answer to your query, we would say that it is not generally accepted as a fact that the rope with which a man was hanged, taken internally or externally, is a cure for rheumatism. There are plenty of medicines, however, which are said to be a sure remedy for that disease. Inquire of any doctor. A good preventive of rheumatism is to wear warm clothing during this changeable weather.
You can buy the right stripe at J. M.
Thompson's, Ebensburg.

MARRIED.—On the 27th of April, at the residence of Mrs. Sarah Davis, High st., Ebensburg, by Rev. A. Baker, Mr.
William Bracken and Miss Lizzie Duncan, both of Blacklick tp., Cambria co.

NOTICE the call at the head of editorial columns for a Union County Convention on the 28th instant.

THE SCHOOL DIRECTORS' CONVENTION

—Election of County Superintendent—The convention to elect a Superintendent of Common Schools for Cambria county, to serve for three years succeeding, met in the Court House, Ebensburg, Tuesday, 1st instant, at 11 o'clock, a. m. One hundred and eleven Directors were present.

Major James Potts was elected President of the Convention, John Shambaugh and Edward M'Glade Vice Presidents, and John Porter and David J Jones Secretaries.

The following named candidates were placed in nomination—J. Frank Condon of Johnstown, Francis P. Tierney of Ebensburg, Michael M'Colgan of Summer-hill, S. B. M' Cormick of Johnstown, and P. F. Lynch of Washington.

The first ballot resulted as follows:
Condon.....84 votes
Tierney.....17
M'Colgan.....7
M' Cormick.....1
Lynch.....2

Mr. Condon having received a clear majority of all the votes cast, was declared duly elected County Superintendent for the ensuing three years.

After various motions and amendments, the salary of the Superintendent was fixed at $1,000 per annum—an increase of $200 over the former prevailing salary.

The Convention adjourned at 1 o'clock,
p. m.

—Mr. Condon was the incumbent of the office of Superintendent during the past term, and discharged his duties faithfully and efficiently. His re-election is a flattering recognition of his worth and capability.

THE SINGER SEWING MACHINES.

—Our Letter
A Family Sewing Machine is fast gaining a world-wide reputation. It is beyond doubt the best and cheapest and most beautiful of all Family Sewing Machines yet offered to the public. No other Family Sewing Machine has so many useful appliances for Hemming, Binding, Felling, Tucking, Gathering, Gauging, Braiding, Embroidering, Cording, &c. No other Family Sewing Machine has so much capacity for a great variety of work. It will sew all kinds of cloth, and with all kinds of thread. Great and recent improvements make our Family Sewing Machine most reliable, and most durable, and most certain in action at all rates of speed. It makes the interlocked stitch, which is the best stitch known. Any one, even of the most ordinary capacity, can see, at a glance, how to use the letter A Family Sewing Machine. Our Family Sewing Machines are finished in chaste and exquisite style.

The Folding Case of the Family Machine is a piece of cunning workmanship of the most useful kind. It protects the machine when not in use, and when about to be operated may be opened as a spacious and substantial table to sustain the work. While some of the Cases, made out of the choicest woods, are finished in the simplest and chastest manner possible, others are adorned and embellished in the most costly and superb manner.

It is absolutely necessary to see the Family Machine in operation, so as to judge of its great capacity and beauty.

It is fast becoming as popular for family sewing as our Manufacturing machines are for manufacturing purposes.

The Branch Offices are well supplied with silk, twist, thread, needles, oil, &c., of the very best quality.

JOHNSON'S RHEUMATIC COM- POUND!

No medicine for the cure of Rheumatism has ever attained to such a high degree of favor and universality as
JOHNSON'S RHEUMATIC COMPOUND.

Although but one year before the public, this medicine has justly gained an unbounded popularity. When the originator first introduced it, he was convinced of its efficacy, but he little supposed it was destined to prove such an inestimable blessing to the afflicted.
But "true merit" cannot be suppressed.— The attestation of hundreds who have been cured by its use, must prove the truth of the assertion,
"THAT IT IS A RADICAL CURATIVE"

FOR
INFLAMMATORY AND ACUTE RHEUMA-TISM, GOUT, NEURALGIA, AND KINDRED DISEASES.
We recommend it with confidence as
THE GREAT INTERNAL REMEDY, For the Speedy and Positive Care of the above Complaints.

Messrs. R. E. SELLERS & Co.: This is to certify that for the last sixteen years I have been severely afflicted with rheumatism, often confined to my house, and even unable to walk. Being in the Post-office, about two months ago, Mr. Clark observed my crippled condition, and urged me to try a bottle of "Johnson's Rheumatic Compound." I followed his advice and now, by the blessing of God, and the use of half a bottle of your "Compound," I am free from all symptoms of rheumatism, and can walk without the aid of my staff, as well as ever.

Mr. R. E. SELLERS:—Your Vermifuge possesses more virtue than any I ever used. I will state a case where I gave one vial. My brother's child was pining and wasting to a mere skeleton. In thirty-six hours after I gave the Vermifuge, the enormous quantity
