SYMBOLIC MEANING OF COLORS.—White was the emblem of light, religious purity, innocence, faith, joy, and life.—In the Judge, it indicates integrity; in the sick man, humility; in woman, chastity.

Red, the ruby, signifies fire, divine love, the Holy Spirit, heart of the Creative power and royalty. White and red roses express love and wisdom, as in the garland, with which the ancients crowned St. Cecilia. In another sense, red signifies blood, war, hatred and punishment. Red and black combined were the colors of purgatory.

Blue, or the sapphire, expressed heaven or the firmament, truth, constancy and fidelity.

Yellow, or gold, was the symbol of the sun, of the goodness of God, of imitation or marriage, faith or faithfulness. In the picture of the Apostles, St. Peter wears a yellow mantle over a blue tunic. Yellow also signifies inconstancy, jealousy, deceit; in this sense it was given to Judas, who is generally habited in yellow.

Green, the emerald, is the color of spring, particularly hope of immortality, and of victory, as the color of palm and laurel.

Violet, the amethyst, signified love and truth, or passion and suffering. Hence it is the color often worn by the martyrs.

Black expressed the earth, darkness, wickedness, mourning, negation, death; and it was appropriate to the Prince of Darkness. In some old illuminated manuscripts, Jesus, in the temptation, wore a black robe. White and black together signify purity of life, and mourning or humiliation.

A MAN WHO VOTED FOR BUCHANAN CONSIDERS THE ACT OF FOLLY SUFFICIENT FOR HIS DISFRANCHISEMENT.—The following anecdote is related of General Sherman: In conversation with a number of officers at his headquarters in the fall of 1864, the Presidential election was touched upon, when some one of the number addressed Gen. Sherman with: "General, who will you vote for?" "I shall vote for neither."

"Not vote? That is very strange." "I'll tell you why," said the General. "I never voted but once, and then I disfranchised myself."

Such looks of wonder and incredulity as this produced may be imagined, but the General, paying no attention thereto, proceeded: "I never voted for a President but once in my life, and that was for Buchanan, and I am since satisfied that any person who was d—d fool enough to do that, has not sense enough to exercise the elective franchise. I disfranchised myself, and consequently shall not vote."

A FAIR UNDERSTANDING.—A good story is told of a spirited young lady on her way to church to be married. At the door, her intended husband paused, and said very unexpectedly: "My dear girl, there are three things of which I ought to have spoken to you before, and if you do not like them, it is not now too late to retire from our engagement. To tell you the whole truth, I must insist, first, to sleep alone; second, to eat alone; and third, to find fault when there is no occasion."

"Is that all?" she said. "I agree at once. If you sleep alone, I shall not; if you eat alone, I shall eat first; and as to your finding fault, I shall take care that you never want occasion."

The conditions being thus adjusted, they entered the church, the ceremony was performed, and at the last accounts, both parties were getting along harmoniously, the husband having fairly given in to the high spirit and good humor of his wife.

OPPOSED TO COFFER DAMS.—A California editor participating in a debate as to the best method of building a certain bridge, objected to a coffer dam for making the pier. He said he early formed a prejudice against the thing; his uncle once had a cow choked with a turnip, and for a long time it was thought she would offer dam head off.

DIAMOND CUT DIAMOND.—Gen. Sheridan has been recently pleased by the repartee of a Texas peer, which quoted his jest that "if he owned Texas and Ptolemy, he would rent the former and live in the other place." and curiously added, "d—n a man that wouldn't stand up for his own country."
