

A YOUNG AMERICAN AT THE WHEEL
—A well known clergyman was crossing Lake Erie, many years ago, upon one of the Lake steamers, and seeing a small lad at the wheel, steering the boat, accosted him as follows:

Clergyman—"My son, you appear to be a small boy to steer so large a boat."

Boy—"Yes sir, but do you see that I can do it, though?"

Clergyman—"Do you think you understand your business, my son?"

Boy—"Yes sir, I think I do."

Clergyman—"Can you box the compass?"

Boy—"Yes sir."

Clergyman—"Let me hear you box it!"

Boy boxes the compass.

Clergyman—"Well really, you can do it. Let me hear you box it backward?"

Boy boxes it backward.

Clergyman—"I declare, my son, you do seem to understand your business."

The boy now took his turn questioning.

Boy—"Pray, sir, what might be your business?"

Clergyman—"I am a minister of the Gospel."

Boy—"Do you understand your business?"

Clergyman—"I think I do, my son."

Boy—"Can you say the Lord's prayer?"

Clergyman—"Yes."

Boy—"Say it."

Clergyman repeats the Lord's prayer?

Boy—"Well, really, you do know it! Now say it backward?"

Clergyman says he cannot do it.

Boy—"You can't do it, eh? Now you see that I understand my business a great deal better than you do yours?"

Clergyman acknowledged himself best, and retired.

ONE OF GOMPH'S STORIES—At a political meeting the speakers and auditors were very much disturbed by a man who constantly called for Mr. Henry. Whenever a new speaker came on, this man bawled out, "Mr. Henry! Henry! Henry! I call for Mr. Henry!"

After several interruptions of this kind at each speech, a young man ascended the platform, and was soon airing his eloquence in a magnificent style, striking out powerfully in his gestures, when the old cry was heard for Mr. Henry.

Putting his hand to his mouth like a speaking trumpet, this man bawled out at the top of his voice, "Mr. Henry! Henry! Henry! I call for Mr. Henry to make a speech!"

The chairman now rose and remarked that it would oblige the audience, if the gentleman would refrain from any further calling for Mr. Henry, as that gentleman was now speaking.

"Is that Mr. Henry?" said the disturber of the meeting. "Thunder! that can't be Mr. Henry! Why that's the little cuss that told me to boller!"

Mr. Gomph adds, that in telling this story to a man who could never be made to see the "point" of a joke, after studying for some minutes the man asked him: "Well, Mr. Gomph, what did he tell him to 'boller' for?"

TRAVELING—A strong, lazy fellow, who preferred begging for a precarious subsistence to working for a sure one, called at a house of a blunt Massachusetts farmer, and in the usual language of his race, asked for "cold victuals and old clothes."

"You appear to be a stout, hearty-looking man," said the farmer, "what do you do for a living?"

"Why, not much," replied the fellow, "except traveling about from one place to another."

"Traveling about, eh?" rejoined the farmer, "can you travel well?"

"O, yes," returned the sturdy beggar, "I am pretty good at that."

"Well, then," said the farmer, coolly opening the door, "let's see you travel!"

A FAIR DIVISION—Two Irishmen were traveling to Portland, Me., when they stopped to examine a guide board.

"Twelve miles to Portland," exclaimed one.

"Six miles apiece, j-i-t," said the other. And they traded in, apparently well gratified at their sudden proximity to the forest city.
