

Alleghanian
FRIDAY, JANUARY 24
LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

PAPER.—The Alleghanian is the paper published in Ebensburg at the time. The Dem. & Sent. col- about a month ago, though it is to be resuscitated in course.

Direct attention to our subscription advertising rates, published on fourth page. The terms of subscription we have on will be found very liberal to advance-paying subscribers. Those in advance or inside three months date of subscription, will receive the for $2.00 per year. Those delay- payment after three months will be $3.00. These terms will be adhered to.

Advertising rates have been some- reduced from the former prevailing rates. They will speak for themselves. call upon those interested in the suc- cess of the paper to advertise liberally.— advertising, the prosperity of a paper is only enhanced, but those who avail themselves of this method of getting be- fore the public assure their own success business. Stephen Girard knew and he retained the potent power possessed by the ink. He advertised liberally, until a millionaire.

are prepared to do all kinds of job on reasonable terms. we have effected an arrangement with the former editor of The Alleghanian, by the terms of which all those whose sub- scriptions were overpaid at the late sus- pension of the paper will receive the paper the length of time due them respect- ively.

This number of the paper is sent to a majority of its old subscribers, and to many who never ranked as such. Both are requested to afford us their aid support. Those not wishing to take the paper will please return it through the D. forthwith, marked "refused."— those who do not return it will be looked upon as subscribers.

Do respectfully solicit local correspon- dence from every section of the county. The recital of facts will do where the facts are not time to elaborate. Marriage and death notices are pub- lished free, though it is usually the custom to accompany the former with a dollar, or gold or greenback, or with a pound- or at least to allow the printer-man as the bride.

In this connection, we will say that as the measure of patronage bestowed on us is large enough to justify the effort, we will enlarge the paper, dress it in a new type, and otherwise beautify to improve it.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.—On Sunday morn- ing the 18th instant, a most destructive fire broke out in the hat store of George Turner, on a door from the northeast corner of a and Franklin streets. Thence they ad to the grocery store and dwelling of Frederick Border, the drug store of T. T. Frazer, the book store of Alex- ander, the law office of John F. Montgomery, the saddle and harness estab- lishment of H. M. Lewis, the ladies' dress store of Miss Mary J. Parke, the store of I. E. Chandler, the resi- dence of James Williams, and the grocery residence of David Creed—all buildings, with the exception of those named, were totally consumed.— parties above named all lost heavily.

Insured to the full value of property destroyed, some are insured par- tially, and some are not insured at all. Thomas Gore owned all the burned buildings except the one occupied by Mr. Creed's loss is $1,800; insured. The buildings were situated on Main and Franklin streets, in the center of the busi- ness part of Johnstown. They were of brick and, taken collectively, formed a striking architectural pile. It is hoped their sites will soon be occupied by class brick business stands.

BRAND.—Col. Robert A. McCoy, State Secretary to Governor Curtin, is appointed to a clerkship in the office at Harrisburg... The County Board are now and have been for a number of weeks past engaged in effecting the sale of the books of the county for next year. The board is composed of following named gentlemen—W. M. Kennedy, D. A. Luther, and J. C. Squires, (the latter appointed in Emanuel Brallier, resigned)... received a copy of a paper enti- tled "The Alleghanian," and the mem- ber of this firm is none other than J. M. James, who graduated as a lawyer with all the honors from The Alleghanian office. We wish him success in his career.

STORMY WEATHER.—We remember to have heard it prognosticated, last fall, that the then pending winter would be an excessively severe one. This prognostication was based upon an assumed relationship existing between animate and inanimate nature and the atmosphere, by a due observance of which the changes or peculiarities of the latter may be fore- shown with barometrical accuracy. Thus, the fact that wild animals in considerable numbers forsok their usual haunts in the fastnesses of the forest toward winter and congregated near the habitations of men, was explained on the hypothesis that they were fleeing from the wrath to come of King Boreas; and thus, the fact that the growing corn was clothed with an addi- tional husk or two, was held to mean a provision of nature for protection against bitter-biting blasts. Well, for once, a weather-wise prophecy has come true.— The present is a severe winter. The winter of '64-5 was written down in the record a hard one, but it couldn't hold a tin whistle to this. In fact, the present is the coldest, and roughest, and blowiest, and bitingest old winter we have had since '55-6. Then the snow was four feet deep on the level and ten feet deep on the drift, with the mercury in the thermom- eter a fixity in the neighborhood of zero; now the snow is as deep and the drifts are unfathomable, while the thermometer is only of practical use when pickled in whisky to keep it from freezing. We may add that snow is still falling, so that it is among the possibilities that we may yet be obliged to enter our houses thro' the second story windows. Of course, with all this, our Branch Railroad is snowed up. Snowed up—for the third time this winter—and we, in common with many other excellent fellows and fellow-citizens, are out of coal. The turnpikes leading in every direction, except to Cresson, are also hermetically sealed. On Thursday, we had no mail. Since then, however, communication has been opened up, and two lines of sleigh- hacks (Moore & Thompson's "Blockade Runner," and Lem. and Sam. Davis' "Snow Plough") now run twice a day each to Cresson, carrying the mails and passengers. Oh, it's awful—this weather! No coal—nobody in town—no business—no going round o' nights—no enjoyment—no nothing that's right and good. Besides, the pumps are nearly all froze up. But, then, what's the use of water when there is no coal to make the kettle boil! We wonder whether other towns are afflicted like unto this! And—just think of it!—to cap the climax of our miseries, we overheard one of those long-faced indi- viduals who deal in weather prognostic- ations say that the storm and cold weather are going to last till March. Ugh! Put him out!

Do You Hear That!—E. J. Mills would respectfully inform the people of Ebensburg and vicinity that he has just received, at his store, in the P. O. build- ing, a large and well selected stock of ready-made clothing, hats and caps, boots and shoes, notions, cigars and tobacco, &c., &c., all which he will dispose of cheaper for cash than any or all competi- tors. Give him a call.

Watches, Jewelry, &c.—See the long advertisement of C. T. Roberts, watchmaker and jeweler, in this paper.— Cham. is himself an accomplished artisan in the watchmaking line, and allows naught but good work to go out of his establishment. His stock of goods on hand and for sale is extensive and well selected, and marked at low figures.— Patronize him!

V. S. BARKER'S CHEAP CASH STORE.—We direct particular attention to the column advertisement of our young friend V. S. Barker. Vallie is a good fellow, and keeps a good store. Our word for it, those who favor him with their patronage will never regret it.

THE N. Y. TRIBUNE.—We direct atten- tion to the prospectus of this sterling sheet, published on our fourth page. The man who does not know that the Tribune is the best paper published in America is to be pitied. A club for the Weekly is now being formed by C. T. Roberts, Ebensburg. If you do not feel able to subscribe for the Daily or Semi-Weekly, you can at least take the Weekly. The small amount of money required cannot be more profitably invested. That excellent compendium of general and political information, the Tribune Almanac, is for sale by C. T. Roberts.— Price 20 cents.

TWO MEN KILLED.—We learn from the Johnstown Tribune that a terrible ac- cident occurred in one of the ore mines of the Cambria Iron Company, on the 12th, by which two Englishmen, named Dunn and Hotchkiss, were instantly killed.— The accident was the result of a prema- ture explosion of a blast. Dunn leaves a wife and five children in England. The other was a young man and unmarried.

JOHNSON'S RHEUMATIC COM- POUND!
No medicine for the cure of Rheumatism has ever attained to such a high degree of favor and universality as
JOHNSON'S RHEUMATIC COMPOUND.

Although but one year before the public, this medicine has justly gained an unbounded popularity. When the originator first introduced it, he was convinced of its efficacy, but he little supposed it was destined to prove such an inestimable blessing to the afflicted. But "true merit" cannot be suppressed.— The attestation of hundreds who have been cured by its use, must prove the truth of the assertion, "THAT IT IS A RADICAL CURATIVE!" FOR INFLAMMATORY AND ACUTE RHEUMATISM, GOUT, NEURALGIA, AND KINDRED DISEASES.

We recommend it with confidence as THE GREAT INTERNAL REMEDY. For the Speedy and Positive Cure of the above Complaints.

Messrs. R. E. SELLERS & Co.: This is to certify that for the last sixteen years I have been severely afflicted with rheumatism, often confined to my house, and even unable to walk. Being in the Postoffice, about two months ago, Mr. Clark observed my crippled condition, and urged me to try a bottle of "Johnson's Rheumatic Compound." I followed his advice and now, by the blessing of God, and the use of half a bottle of your "Compound," I am free from all symptoms of rheumatism, and can walk without the aid of my staff, as well as ever.
