Excess of assets over liabilities is [illegible] $18,932 30½—which is a rather [illegible] exhibit to contemplate.

The settlement with Col. B. M'Dermit, [illegible] treasurer, resulted as follows:

Amt. taxes received, exonera-tions, commission, &c.....$	39,697 96
Amt. paid out on orders, &c....	35,905 31
Amt in hands of Treasurer.....$	3,792 65

The account of James J. Kaylor, Steward of the County Poor House, stands thus:

[illegible].....$	402 45
[illegible], &c.....	631 01
Due the Steward.....$	228 56

The salary of the Steward is $500.00

The account of George C. K. Zahm, Treasurer Poor House fund, in account:

The number of inmates remaining in the Poor House January 1, 1866, was [illegible] admitted during the year, 70; died, [illegible] and out, 5; discharged and absconded, [illegible]; remaining January 1, 1867, 51. [illegible] number, 40 are sane, and 14 are [illegible].

Among the items of expenditures of the county for the year, we find the following: Paid to Co. Commissioners [illegible] 07; criminal prosecutions, $3,-[illegible]8; jail and jailor, $2,379 65; [illegible] jury, $680 79; traverse jury, $2,-[illegible]30; Poor House, $7,500 00; on [illegible] debt $3,000 00; Western Penitentiary, $553 80; Treasurer's commissions, $382 58.

A NEW MAP OF CAMBRIA COUNTY.—[illegible]ng's map of this county has been [illegible]ued so far as Ebensburg is concerned. We have received our copy, and [illegible] the character of the gentlemen employed with the work led us to expect [illegible] yet the full realization of the unassuming [illegible] far exceeded our most extravagant anticipations. The map shows [illegible] and distinctly the boundaries of [illegible]wnship, together with all the roads, [illegible], houses with the owners' names, [illegible] buildings, enlarged plans of the [illegible]gs, &c., and in addition gives the [illegible] and delineation of each original [illegible]rvant, with the name of the warrantee—the whole printed in colors in the [illegible]test style of the typographical [illegible]t. The map is well worthy to be hung [illegible] the "best room," and we doubt not [illegible] be consulted by the people of the [illegible] nearly but not quite so often as [illegible] consult their Bibles. Eight dollars [illegible] per copy. The residue of the [illegible] will be delivered as soon as the [illegible] become passible.

A COMPLIMENT.—The Freeman, which [illegible]ning if not Democratic, pays the [illegible]ng compliment to Hon. A. A. Barker, [illegible] representative from this district to the present Congress:

"We observe our Congressman, Hon. A. A. [illegible] at home on a flying visit from Washington. By the way, while we differ as widely [illegible] possible from Mr. B.'s political course [illegible], we are free to admit that he has been a useful and attentive member, so far as the interests of his district are concerned [illegible] local questions."

[illegible]—The dwelling house of Mr. [illegible]nders, on the line of the Ebensburg & Cresson Railroad, in Munster tp., [illegible] burned to the ground, together with [illegible] contents, on Thursday last. The fire is supposed to have been communicated to the building from a defective [illegible] No insurance.

NOTICE.—No anonymous communications will be inserted in The Alleghanian. The name of the writer must always be given, not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of his good faith.

[illegible] the snow off your sidewalks [illegible].

MEMORANDA.—An alarm of fire was sounded on Tuesday. It was caused by the burning out of a chimney in Mr. Barker's house, in the East Ward.....Hezekiah Malone was convicted in the late Blair county Court of bigamy, and was sentenced to nine months' imprisonment in the Western Penitentiary.....A huge panther was killed near Tyrone, Blair county, not long since.....The monthly meeting of the Washingtonian society of Ebensburg was held in the Congregationalist church on Monday eve. Several able speeches were made.....The snow blockade of the Ebensburg & Cresson Railroad was raised on Saturday, and in the evening the train ran its regular trip—the first for about three weeks. The magnitude of the task of opening up communication may be inferred from the fact that the manual efforts of over 100 men were required for eight days to complete it. The snow in some places was drifted fifteen feet high. On Sunday, another severe storm sprang up, and it was feared the road would be blockaded again, but the train succeeded in forcing its way through on Monday, and has been running regular trips since.

OUR BRANCH.—We publish this week the present time table of the Ebensburg & Cresson Branch. By the way, a change of Conductors has occurred on the Branch of late. Capt. A. B. Scott, Conductor of the train ever since the opening out of the road, has been transferred to the West Penna. Railroad, and now runs between Blairsville and Allegheny. He is succeeded by Capt. M. A. Quartz. The other attaches of the train are, Hugh Gillan engineer, Jos. Henderson fireman, and Jerry Fagan brakeman—all master workmen and good fellows. Abel Lloyd, Esq., still retains his position as ticket and freight agent at this end of the route, and is as efficient and popular as ever.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Extensive sale (Orphans' Court) of valuable real estate on the 6th March, next, by Geo. M. Reade, Esq., administrator of Robert Davis, deceased.

A farm in Cambria township, and a share in a steam saw-mill in Summerhill township, for sale by R. W. Roberts.

Card of Col. Wm. R. Hughes, lumber merchant and dealer in general merchandise, Wilmore, Pa.

LOST!—On Monday, 11th inst., in Ebensburg boro., a gold Masonic Breast-pin. The finder will be liberally rewarded upon returning it to A. Y. Jones.

MARRIED—In Ebensburg, on the 4th instant, by Rev. R. C. Christy, Mr. Frank Wissmiller, of Ebensburg, to Miss Mary Schenk, of Carroll township.

DIED—At his residence, in Munster township, on the 31st ultimo, Mr. Daniel Farren, aged about 84 years.

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.

LETTER FROM JOHNSTOWN—ALL THE NEWS FROM THE "SOUTHERN END"—A MAN THINKS ONE WIFE NOT ENOUGH, AND PROVIDES HIMSELF WITH ANOTHER—THE RESULT—THE MUNICIPAL ELECTION—IT IS COUNTED OF BUT LITTLE ACCOUNT—RECENT DEATHS—ALMOST A FIRE—ACCIDENT ON THE R. R.—HIGH WATER, ICE, INUNDATION, AND GENERAL ALARM—RUMORS SCARED, THOUGH—REQUIEM COX—THE "STARVE DISTRICT," &C., &C.

JOHNSTOWN, Feb. 11, 1866.

To the Editor of The Alleghanian:

A certain man, whose name we cannot properly spell, was lodged in our popular institution known as the "lock-up" in the early part of last week, charged by a woman claiming, as we understand, to be his wife, with the crime of bigamy. The facts as narrated to us are to the effect that the man in question was living in Conemaugh boro. with two women, one of whom he acknowledged as his wife, and the other merely as a servant. The wife, however, deemed the intimacy existing between the man and servant to be at least that which should exist in well regulated families between husband and wife, and hence made information against her liege lord for keeping and having two wives. The case was disposed of by permitting the accused to run at large on the strength of his own recognizance to appear at Court and undergo trial.

Our municipal election, which comes off on Friday next, has so far attracted but little public attention. Irvin Rutledge, Esq., is spoken of as the Union candidate for Mayor.

During the week, we noticed the funeral of Mrs. M'Goney, of Cambria boro.—She leaves a husband and ten children to mourn her death. We also noticed the funeral of Widow Boyle, of our town, who died on Wednesday, aged 65 years.

The meat house of Peter Malzie, of Conemaugh boro., took fire on Friday, about noon, and was only saved from destruction by the devouring element by the utmost exertions of the neighbors.

On Friday night, a stock train on the P. R. R. broke through a short bridge immediately below town, and the result was the demolition of several cars and the death and maiming of a number of fine cattle destined for the eastern markets.

The ice which broke at and above the Woolen Factory in Woodvale, on Thursday week, made its way down through the village and gorged at the western end. The whole of the village is now inundated, and many of the dwelling houses have been vacated. For the present, the anxiety of our citizens is relieved as to probable danger from a flood, but there can be no telling what might be the result of a heavy rain continued for twenty-four hours.

We were glad to see 'Squire Cox able to be out on Saturday, even though on crutches. He was one of the most severely injured of the sufferers by the falling platform at the railroad depot in September last, and for a long time his recovery was despaired of.

The "burnt district" is yet a picture of ruin, though soon, we understand, building operations will be commenced. A stately building will adorn the corner made vacant by the fire. AJAX.

HOW TO KEEP OUR BRANCH RAILROAD FROM DRIFTING SHUT—A FEW PRACTICAL AND HIGHLY VALUABLE SUGGESTIONS.

EBENSBURG, Feb. 9, 1867.

To the Editor of The Alleghanian:

The true and cheapest plan to keep our Railroad from being blocked up by the snow is to build a fence on both sides of the road where it is most subject to being drifted up, say one hundred feet off from the road on either side. If bushes of a sufficient height could be planted, perhaps they would be better—they at least would stand with less repairing than a fence. This would break the force of the wind, and the snow would stop before reaching the road. This I know by experience and observation to be a fact. In the west end of this borough, on the turnpike, the wind has a fair sweep till it comes to the fence on the north side of the road.—This breaks its force, and the drifting snow falls on the road to the height of the fence. Then it will fill up to the top of the fence on the south side. STEPHEN LLOYD.

WOMAN'S FRIEND.—Time, money, labor and clothes saved by using Dobbins' electric soap. When used according to directions, no wash board or washing machine is required. It will not injure the most delicate fabric, and is warranted free from anything injurious. Give it a trial! For sale by J. M. Thompson, Ebensburg, Pa. *

DOUBLE SAVING.—The customers of V. S. Barker save two profits—they get the best quality of goods and pay the lowest of low prices. An immense amount of ready made clothing, suitable for gentlemen, young men and boys, just received. Drop in and examine his goods. He is determined not to be undersold. *

THE EAST WARD.—Late advices from the East Ward indicate that the rush for cheap goods still continues at A. A. Barker's variety store. He has just received a full assortment of trimmings, hosiery, shirts, bosoms, linen and paper collars, muslins, flannels, ginghams, &c. *

DO YOU?—Do you want a ring, of any description, a breastpin, gold, silver or gutta percha pen holder, or anything in the jewelry line? If so, go to C. T. Roberts', Ebensburg, Pa. He also sells Lemberger's oil blacking at wholesale. *

DISAPPEARING.—Since the great reduction in prices at E. J. Mills' store, P. O. building, Ebensburg, his stock of goods is fast disappearing. This is a rare chance for bargains. Remember, he is selling at cost in order to make room for his spring stock. *

ITCH! ITCH! ITCH!—SCRATCH! SCRATCH! SCRATCH!—Wheaton's Ointment will cure the Itch in 48 Hours. Also cures Salt Rheum, Ulcers, Chilblains, and all Eruptions of the Skin. Price 50 cents. For sale by all Druggists.

By sending 60 cents to WEEKS & POTTER, Sole Agents, 170 Washington street, Boston, Mass., it will be forwarded by mail, free of postage, to any part of the United States. January 24, 1867-6m*
