LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE. LETTER FROM CHEST SPRINGS.—ALL ABOUT THE ELECTION—A DEMOCRATIC DEFALC. CHEST SPRINGS, Feb. 16, 1867. To the Editor of The Alleghenian: We held our municipal election yesterday, the 15th, and the "My Policy" men of our little borough had to suffer an inglorious defeat, notwithstanding they were very sanguine of coming off victorious. After the vote had been counted off, it was piteous to behold their countenances, and to-day you can hardly find one that has anything to say about the election. We conceded to them the Burgess and Town Council, as we wanted a "My Policy" government of the borough. The officers elect are as follows: Burgess, Jacob Wagner, D.; Town Council, D. C. Little, D., John Wagner, D., Daniel Walters, D., Peter Urban, D., Peter McKennie, D.; Constable, Andrew Clute, U.; Assessor, John Conrad, U.; Assistant Assessors, Michael Waltz, U., Daniel Walters, D.; School Directors, A. W. Green, U., Sylvester Weakland, U.; Judge of Election, Jefferson Varney, U.; Inspector, Peter Shaffner, U.; Auditor, Daniel Walters, D. So you see we came off victorious, and the poor Democrats, though they put out their best efforts, and drummed up the last man, and caused red eye to flow freely, had to go under. We are able to beat them every time in our borough, and hope the day is not far distant when we will beat them all over the county. Box.
