NOTICE.—Next week will be Court week. An excellent opportunity will thus be afforded our Court-going subscribers residing at a distance to come forward and settle their subscriptions for the present year. Those who will not come themselves will at least, probably, have a chance to send the amount. By attending to this matter, money can be saved. Our terms of subscription are, Two Dollars a year if paid within three months from the date of subscribing; Three Dollars if payment be delayed beyond that time.

ARREST OF A DESPERADO.—Some time last year, a man named Joseph Matthews, who resided in Blacklog township, Huntingdon county, sold a lot of shingles to a man named Wm. P. Goshorn, residing in Tell township, same county. The price of the shingles was about $80.—the money not being paid down at the time of the sale, it was attached by some creditors of Matthews. In the fall, probably in October, Matthews went to Goshorn and demanded payment for the shingles. Goshorn explained to him that the money had been attached, and declined to pay. Thereupon, Matthews proceeded deliberately to set fire to Goshorn's barn, and kept watch over it with a loaded rifle till it was burned to the ground.—His malignity unparalleled, he then shot and killed three horses belonging to Mr. Goshorn; after which, he made off. Goshorn's loss was about $2,000.

The miscreant was not heard of for a long time, but lately it was ascertained he was staying at or near Garman's Mills, in the northern part of this county. A warrant was issued for his arrest, and on the last week Sheriff Myers and Wm. K. Piper, of Ebensburg, and a Mr. Lutz, of Huntingdon county, undertook to serve the same. They proceeded first to Garman's Mills, but found that the guilty party had changed his quarters a day or two before their appearance there. They gathered all the information they could come at respecting him, and returned here the ensuing Friday. The next day, Col. Piper and Mr. Lutz, continuing from information received that the object of their search had gone toward Kansas, followed in that direction, and to make a long story short—after an anxious but exciting chase of seven days, came up with him near Shelocta, Indiana county, not far from the Armstrong county line, on Sunday. He was taken into custody forthwith, and was removed to Indiana, where he spent the night in the county jail. On Monday morning he was taken to Huntingdon county.

Matthews is a desperate character, and has for years the terror of the community in which he lived. While in this county, he went by the name of Albert Allen. A letter was found upon him, containing, among other things, a card inscribed with the name and a slip cut from a Huntingdon paper mentioning the burning of Goshorn's barn and the shooting of his horses. A heavily loaded navy revolver was also found upon him. It is worthy of remark that the arrest of Matthews is largely due to the fact that he carried with him constantly after leaving Garman's Mills, a coal-digger's pick. This enabled his pursuers to track him thro' all his devious wanderings with a degree of accuracy which would otherwise have been impossible.

DON'T THROW STONES!—The Johnstown Democrat complains that The Alleghanian copied its compilation from the Auditor's General's report of the statistics relative to Cambria county, and failed to give credit therefor. Four weeks ago, The Alleghanian, at considerable trouble and labor, classified under township heads the list of jurors drawn to serve at the approaching session of our county Courts, and published the same. On the 6th inst., the Democrat coolly transferred this list to its columns, word for word and letter for letter, and—strange as it may seem—forgot to give us credit! We did not, nor do not complain of this, but it affords an excellent opportunity for the application of the old fashioned maxim that "they that live in glass houses should not throw stones."

The advertisement of Bradley Stove Works, Pittsburg, and that of "250,000 Rags wanted."

DARING ROBBERY.—On Thursday of last week, five men appeared at the residence of Mr. Thomas O'Brian, in Munster township, not far from the line of the Eb. & Cresson Railroad, and demanded supper. This was furnished them; after which, they stated that they were government agents for the detection of counterfeit money, and requested to be allowed to inspect all the greenbacks in the house. Some $40 or $50 were shown them, which they inspected. Finding the money good, they proceeded to testify their appreciation of that fact by unceremoniously fobbing the amount. At this stage of the game, one of the five stationed himself immediately outside the door as a guard, while the other four, remaining within, requested as a particular favor that any and all moneys remaining on the premises, greenbacks or gold, should be exposed to view for inspection in "less than no time." This request was backed by the display in close proximity to Mr. O'B.'s head of a pistol which looked as though it might be loaded.—There was no denying the persuasive power of this sort of a request, and Mr. O'B. from one hiding-place and another produced greenbacks to the amount of some $300 and gold to the amount of about $200. The men with the pistols leisurely inspected this, agreed unanimously that it was "good as old wheat," and, as in the former case, allowed their capacious pockets to close firmly around the long and carefully concealed lucre.—They then bound hand and foot Mr. O'B. and the other inmates of the house, swore them not to reveal the fact of the robbery till the ensuing day, and traveled. They have not been heard of since.

Some years ago, when seemingly on his death-bed, Mr. O'Brian made a will, leaving various sums to various persons.—Some one acquainted with this fact must have been concerned in the robbery, for, as was gathered from the conversation of the robbers in the house, they were entirely conversant with the exact amount of greenbacks and gold, respectively, he had in his possession, and would be satisfied with no less sum.

MEMORANDA.—Charles O'Harra, a young man who was badly injured by a railroad accident near Gallitzin a couple of months ago, died at the O'Harra mansion, near Cresson, one day last week.....Henry Kratzer, of Johnstown, has been appointed Sealer of Weights and Measures for Cambria county, vice Henry Michael, of Wilmore.....A man named Martin was run over by the Balt. Express near New Florence, the other day, and was instantly killed.....The names of the Inspectors of Election in the West Ward of Ebensburg boro. are Robert E. Jones and John Dougherty, sr.....We have on file and will publish next week an interesting letter from Kansas.....A grand soiree came off at the Town Hall on Tuesday evening.....Weather pleasant of late. The sleighing is played out.....Instructions to our Fire Department—see fourth page.

BORO. AFFAIRS.—On Monday last, the newly elected Town Council met and organized. The following officers were appointed for the ensuing year:

Clerk—E. Kinkead.
Collector & Treasurer—Griffith Owens.
Weighmaster—Wm. Clement.
Street Commissioner—Henry Foster.
Market Master—Lewis Rodgers.

We beg to suggest the present as a fit time for the Council to lay before the people of Ebensburg an exhibit of the financial condition of the boro. During the past six or eight years, no such exhibit has ever been presented. A statement of the receipts and expenditures and of the general financial condition of the boro. should be published every year.

WHAT DID YOU DO IT FOR?—The Teachers' Advocate, which appears for February in an enlarged form, devotes two columns and a half to the refutation of an article on "Common Schools" published a few weeks since by the Johnstown Tribune. A needless task—one that must have been performed when its author was sleepy. The article that appeared in the Tribune was a superb refutation of itself. The Tribune, the same week, declared our school system to be everywhere only a partial success, and in many places a total failure. Discriminative!

TINWARE.—We direct attention to the advertisement of Mr. Francis W. Hay, dealer in tinware, &c., Johnstown, Pa.—Mr. Hay is proprietor of one of the largest tinware establishments in the State, and does business on a liberal basis. Those who patronize him will be sure to get their money's worth.

PROMOTED.—Brevet Lieut.-Col. John D. O'Connell, Captain in the 16th U. S. Infantry, has been promoted brevet Colonel for gallant and meritorious services during the war, to date from March 13, 1865. Col. O'Connell is a son of Mr. John O'Connell, of Cambria township.

JOHNSTOWN NEWS.—We condense the following items from the Johnstown papers:—

The clothing store of J. W. M'Kinney, on Main street, was broken into on Monday night of last week and robbed of a large quantity of clothing.

Three night schools are in successful operation in and around Johnstown.

A son of Mr. Frederick Kaiser, aged eight years, fell into the Stony Creek during the late high water, and was drowned. His body was recovered.

A pontoon bridge over the Black water, at Conemaugh Furnace, was swept away by the flood.

The following named Burgesses have been elected in the southern end: Of Johnstown, A. Kopelin; of Conemaugh boro., John Cox; of Cambria boro., J. G. Dimond; of Prospect boro., Jno. White; of Millville, Lewis R. Jones.

During the late flood, Mrs. Magehan (formerly of Ebensburg) had a stable carried away by the waters. In the stable was a cow, which was also lost.

The body of a little boy named Binkersteff, who was drowned in the Stony Creek a day or two before Christmas, was recovered in the river at New Florence on Wednesday of last week.

MARRIED—At the residence of the bride's father, on the 13th inst., by the Rev. A. M'Elwain, Mr. F. E. Goodell, of Milbury, Mass., to Miss Sallie M'Lain, of White township, Indiana county.

On the 22d inst., at Loretto, by Rev. Mr. Pryor, Mr. Charles M. Reilly to Miss Luella M. Trexell.

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.

A DEARTH OF INTELLECTUAL ENTERTAINMENT IN EBENSBURG—SOME SENSIBLE SUGGESTIONS ON THE SUBJECT.

EBENSBURG, Feb. 25, 1867.

To the Editor of The Alleghanian:

Has it never occurred to you that our borough has many wants that might be supplied with very little trouble or expense to the citizens? Among them might be named a Public Library and a Lyceum, the advantages of which would be incalculable. There is now no public place for spending the evenings, except at the occasional Church and Society meetings, (which are good as far as they go, but do not cover the case,) and at the store loungers and in bar-rooms—the objections to which need not be discussed, as they are patent to every one.

A course of lectures by our capable citizens, which could be had for the requesting, and an occasional lecture by a professional lecturer, might be a feature of the plan, and a source of revenue. But it is unnecessary in this article to go into detail. The object is to bring the matter before the people and have it discussed, feeling that if that is obtained, we will certainly have a Public Library and Lyceum. NEMO.

APPROVED.—The President has approved of the bill accepting League Island as a naval station; he has also approved of the bill charged for his last suit of clothing from J. M. Thompson's cheap cash store, Ebensburg. He says the clothing and bill are satisfactory, and that he will not veto anything like that.

GO TO V. S. BARKER'S!—If you wish to purchase the best quality of winter goods of any and every description, at the very lowest prices, go to V. S. BARKER'S cheap store. In addition to his stock of dry goods, he keeps sorghum, molasses, fish of all kinds, oils, paints, &c. *

REMEMBER THE PLACE!—Remember that the place to buy cheap ready made clothing is at E. J. Mills', P. O. building, High st., Ebensburg. His stock of handkerchiefs, cotton and woolen hose, and everything in the notion line, has just been replenished. *

EXHIBITION.—The exhibition of cheap goods at A. A. Barker's still continues, and those who have not witnessed it should do so at once, to see the exceedingly low prices at which he disposes of his goods, even if you do not wish to purchase. *

GO AT ONCE.—If you want a pair of spectacles, gold, silver, or steel; plated forks, tea and table spoons, rifles, shot guns, pistols, revolvers, pistol and revolver cartridges, or anything you can possibly imagine, go to C. T. Roberts' jewelry store, Ebensburg. *
