LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE. WANTED—AN OFFICIAL STATEMENT OF THE PRESENT FINANCIAL CONDITION OF EBENSBERG BORO. EBENSBERG, March 12, 1867. To the Editor of The Alleghanian: A couple of weeks ago, you made a suggestion through your columns that our newly elected borough officials make out and publish a statement of the present financial condition of the borough. The suggestion struck me then and strikes me yet as a good one. It is a good rule to require of our servants prompt account of their stewardship. If a statement of the kind mentioned has been published within the past five or six years, I have failed to see it. I pay, in the course of a year, more or less of tax levied for borough purposes. Now, I have no doubt the money is rightly applied; but I feel a laudable curiosity to know where it goes? What is the money wanted for? What is there to show for its disbursement? In my opinion, the board of borough authorities that fails to publish each year a statement of the receipts and expenditures of the borough, and an exhibit of its general financial condition, is remiss in its duties toward the people. M.

WANTED!—By V. S. Barker, fifty persons to buy fifty suits of clothes at a reduced price. Price of suits reduced twenty per cent., to make room for new goods. This is a rare chance for any person wanting a suit of clothes at a bargain. All other goods at reduced prices, at the Cheap Cash Store.

THE TARIFF.—Owing to the fact that the Thirty-ninth Congress failed to pass a tariff bill, C. T. Roberts, at his jewelry store, framed and passed a bill reducing the tariff on clocks, watches, jewelry, &c., and now offers to the citizens of Ebensburg and vicinity a choice lot of bargains.

SPRING.—In order to make room for his spring goods, E. J. Mills is now disposing of his entire stock of ready-made clothing at cost. He also keeps a full assortment of boots, shoes, underclothes, &c., which he offers at reduced prices.

RECONSTRUCTION.—The intricate work of reconstruction goes nobly on at A. A. Barker's variety store, Ebensburg. He has entirely reconstructed his former prices and now offers goods at figures within the reach of all.

THE DUTY ON WOOL.—Since the legislation relative to wool, woolen goods of all descriptions have risen considerably in price; but such is not the case at J. M. Thompson's, who has reduced his prices, notwithstanding the rise in the cities.
