

A CALCULATING BRIDEGRROOM.—I've known some very mean men in my time. There was Deacon Overcrack; now he always carried a hen in his g-g-box when he traveled, to pick up the oats his horse wasted in the manger, and lay an egg for his breakfast in the morning. And then there was Hugo Himmelman, who made his wife dig potatoes to pay for the marriage license. I must tell you that story of Hugo, for it is not a bad one, and good stories, like potatoes, ain't nearly as plenty as they used to be when I was a boy. Hugo is a neighbor of mine, though considerably older than I be, and a mean neighbor he is, too. Well, when he was going to get married to Gretchen Kulp, he goes down to Parson Rogers, at Digby, to get a license.

"Parson," said he, "what's the price of a license?"

"Six dollars," said he.

"Six dollars?" said Hugo, "that's a dreadful sight of money! Couldn't you take less?"

"No," said he, "that's what they cost me at the Secretary's office at Halifax."

"Well, how much do you ax for publishing in church, then?"

"Nothing," said the Parson.

"Well," said Hugo, "that's so cheap I can't expect to get any change back. I think I'll be published. How long does it take?"

"Three Sundays," says Hugo, "well, that's a long time, too. But three Sundays only make a fortnight after all; two for the covers and one for the inside, like; and six dollars is a great amount of money for a poor man to throw away."

So off he went jogging toward home, selling about as mean as a newly sheared sheep, when all at once a bright thought came into his head, and back he went as fast as his horse could carry him.

"Parson," said he, "I've changed my mind. Here's the six dollars; I'll tie the knot to-night with my tongue that I cannot untie with my teeth."

"Why, what in natur' is the meanin' of all this?"

"Why," said Hugo, "I've been a cipherin' it out in my own head, and it's cheaper than publishin' after all. You see, sir, it's potato diggin' time; if I wait to be called in church, her father will have her work for nothing, and as hands are scarce and wages big, if I marry her to-night she can begin to dig our own to-morrow, and that will pay for the license and just seven shillings over; for there ain't a man in all Clements that can dig and carry as many bushels in a day as Gretchen can. Besides, fresh wives, like fresh servants, work like smoke at first, but they get lazy after a while!"

DIDN'T GO BACK.—Anderson the wizard met with a Yankee, who stole a march on him one day, after the following pattern:

"I say, are you Professor Anderson?"

"Yes, sir, at your service."

"Well, you're a tarantation smart man, and I'm something at a trick, too, kinder cute, deno ye know?"

"Ah, indeed, what trick are you up to?" asked the Professor, amused at the simple fellow.

"Well, I can take a red cent and change it into a ten dollar gold piece."

"Oh, that's a mere sleight of hand trick; I can do that, too."

"No you can't, I'd like to see you try."

"Well, hold out you paw with a cent lying in it. This is your cent, is it, sure?"

"It's nothing else."

"Hold on to it, tight—presto—change. Now open your hand."

Yankee opened his fist, and there was a gold eagle shining in his palm.

"Well, you did it, I declare; much obliged to you," and Jonathan turned to go out.

"Stay," said the Professor, "you may have my ten dollars."

"Yours! warnt it my own cent; and didn't you turn it into that yaller thing, eh? Good bye!"

JOHNSON'S RHEUMATIC COMPOUND! No medicine for the cure of Rheumatism has ever attained to such a high degree of favor and universality as JOHNSON'S RHEUMATIC COMPOUND. Although but one year before the public, this medicine has justly gained an unbounded popularity. When the originator first introduced it, he was convinced of its efficacy, but he little supposed it was destined to prove such an inestimable blessing to the afflicted. But "true merit" cannot be suppressed.—The attestation of hundreds who have been cured by its use, must prove the truth of the assertion. "THAT IT IS A RADICAL CURATIVE" FOR INFLAMMATORY AND ACUTE RHEUMATISM, GOUT, NEURALGIA, AND KINDRED DISEASES. We recommend it with confidence as THE GREAT INTERNAL REMEDY, For the Speedy and Positive Cure of the above Complaints. Messrs. R. E. SELLERS & Co. This is to certify that for the last sixteen years I have been severely afflicted with rheumatism, often confined to my house, and even unable to walk. Being in the Postoffice, about two months ago, Mr. Clark observed my crippled condition, and urged me to try a bottle of "Johnson's Rheumatic Compound." I followed his advice and now, by the blessing of God, and the use of half a bottle of your "Compound" I am free from all symptoms of rheumatism, and can walk without the aid of my staff, as well as ever. This alarming mortality loudly calls for increased watchfulness, and greater care in the selection of the remedy. LET PHYSICIANS SPEAK! SELLERS' VERMIFUGE THE BEST IN USE—HERE IS THE PROOF. Licking Station, Ky., Dec. 14, 1845. Mr. R. E. SELLERS—Your Vermifuge possesses more virtue than any I ever used. I will state a case where I gave one vial. My brother's child was pining and wasting to a mere skeleton. In thirty-six hours after I gave the Vermifuge, the enormous quantity of upward of six hundred worms were passed. The child that was given up for lost, is now as well as any in the neighborhood. AMBROSE ARNETT, M. D.

A CARD.—WITMER'S BRIDGE, Lancaster, Pa. July 30, 1865. Messrs. EVANS AND WATSON.—GENTLEMEN: The small size No. 1 Salamander, which I purchased from your agent, Mr. Adams Barr, in Lancaster City, on July 20th, 1865, has been subjected to a very severe trial, which it withstood in a most satisfactory manner. This Safe, containing all my papers together with valuable papers belonging to myself and some to my neighbors and friends, and representing a value of over Twenty thousand Dollars ($20,000) was in my millinery store destroyed on the night of the 25th of July, 1865, and passed through the flames unscathed. The Safe was on the second floor and fell to the basement of the Mill, and subjected for six hours to an intense heat among the ruins, which was greatly increased by the combustion of a large quantity of confined within the brick walls. After the fire the safe was opened and the books and papers taken out in a state of perfect preservation. The paper not even being discolored. This fact was, however, to many minds a better recommendation of your Safe than could be expressed in any other words. Yours Respectfully, [Jan 24] SAMUEL BARR.

A Large assortment of the above City of Fire and Thief Proof Safes always on hand and for sale at low rates as any firm, at EVANS & WATSON'S, No. 16 South Fourth st., Philadelphia.
