

EBENSBURG AND CRESSON RAILROAD. On and after Monday, Nov. 19, 1866, trains on this road will run as follows: LEAVE EBENSBURG—At 6.05 A. M., connecting with Day Exp. East and Balt. Exp. West. At 7.00 P. M., connecting with Phila. Exp. East and Mail Train West.

COURT PROCEEDINGS.—Following is an abstract of the Court proceedings for the second week: Wm. M. Cooper & Co. vs. George B. Wike and N. S. George—ejectment. Jury find for defendants.

Jacob Woolford, convicted of larceny, to pay a fine of $1.00 and costs, and undergo imprisonment in the county jail for three months. Wm. McDonald, convicted of larceny, to pay a fine of $5.00 and costs, and undergo imprisonment in the county jail for three months.

EMILY HOWARD, convicted of larceny, to pay a fine of $1.00 and costs, and undergo imprisonment in the Western Penitentiary for fifteen months. George W. Payne, convicted of assault and battery, to pay a fine of $5.00 and costs, and undergo imprisonment in the Western Penitentiary for two years.

CUT THIS OUT.—As the spring trade about opening up, we subjoin a list of business houses in Philadelphia and Pittsburg which our merchants will do well to patronize: T. C. Jenkins, dealer in flour, provisions, produce, refined oils, &c., 273 Liberty st., Pittsburg.

COOK BROTHERS & CO., provisions, flour, cheese, carbon oil, soap, candles, &c., 45 Liberty st., Pittsburg. Lippincott, Bond & Co., hats, caps, furs, and straw goods, 413 Market st., Phila.

HOME AGAIN.—Mrs. Jas. J. Oatman, Robert Devereau, and Thomas Davis, three young Ebensburgers who during the winter were in attendance upon lectures at Jefferson Medical College, have returned home, each armed and equipped with the coveted and fairly won diploma. We understand they all passed a creditable examination. We wish them success wherever they may hang out their shingles.

ETCHINGS.—Our friend Captain Palmer has released for a term of years that popular hotel in Johnstown, the Foster House. The traveling public should make a note hereof....The Legislature has passed and the Governor has approved a bill authorizing and requiring the Prothonotary of Cambria county to keep an extension docket....Major B. M. Morrow, of the 205th regiment P. V. during the war, and a gallant soldier, died in Scotch Valley, in Blair county, on the 6th inst. It is understood that ourboro. authorities intend removing the public weigh scales from their present location, in the East Ward, to a point at or about the center of the town....Eight thousand dollars have been subscribed by the citizens of Johnstown toward the purchase of a steam fire engine. One thousand dollars more are required....Capt. Doherty, the man stabbed by Farren in Hollidaysburg a few weeks since, is recovering....On Saturday and Sunday, we were visited by a regular old-style snow storm, which did not entirely seal up our railroad and cut off our communications east and west, but which came so near doing that same that six hours were required by the locomotive in which to plough its way to Cresson and back on Monday. As we write, (Tuesday,) the sleighing is excellent, and the merry jingle of the bells is heard on our streets.

ENGLISH.—The Freeman last week took occasion to find fault with our English. What does our critical editor think of the following?—"Editorialities," "we don't like to be too critic," "we commented on the Bill because we saw it and felt our duty to do so," "do what?" "during the last summer canvas the subject of United States Senator was a permanent question before the people of Pennsylvania." We get all these out of one copy of the Freeman. If Simon Cameron (concerning whom the words were written) is more corrupt than the last quotation from the Freeman, he should keep a sharp look out or the Freeman will soon deprive him of his pre-eminence.

HEGIRA OF MINISTERS.—Last week we announced that two of our Ebensburg pastors, Rev. Wilson of the Presbyterian church and Rev. Ellis of the Calvinistic Methodist church, had severed their connection with their respective congregations. Since then we learn that Rev. Wm. S. Lloyd, of the Disciples church, and Rev. D. Evans, of the Welsh Baptist church, have also resigned their pastorates. The former intends removing to Allegheny county in April. Rev. L. Powell, formerly pastor of the First Congregationalist church, also designs removing to some other locality shortly.

VISITOR.—Samuel D. Pryce, jr., formerly of Ebensburg but now of Iowa city, is in town on a visit. Seven years have passed since Sam went from amongst us. Half of that time was spent with Sherman in fighting rebels. The other half was spent in business pursuits, and so successfully that Sam is now a partner in a commission house in Iowa City, and is a rising young man. Luck be with him always!

COLLECTOR OF INTERNAL REVENUE.—Among the nominations for appointments sent into the Senate by the President on Friday last, was that of David Caldwell, of Huntingdon, to be Collector of this (17th) district. Mr. C. was nominated by the President for the appointment of Assessor, some weeks ago, but was not confirmed.

KILLED.—David Switzer, who left Juniata county last fall to seek a home in Missouri, was murdered in his own house, in that State, on the evening of the 25th ult., by two men, whose object was plunder. A dispatch says one of the murderers was afterwards captured and lynched by the citizens.

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE. LETTER FROM HEMLOCK—A "STRIKE" AND INACTIVITY IN THE COAL BUSINESS—FENIAN OPERATIONS—BASE BALL, &c. HEMLOCK, March 18, 1867. To the Editor of The Alleghenian: The mining portion of this community being on what is denominated a "strike" at present, the business men of town are having a very quiet time of it. The operators a few days ago notified their employees that owing to the decline in the price of coal and the small demand at the time for the article, they would be compelled to reduce the price of mining to correspond with that of coal. The miners not seeing the thing in that light, declined to allow any reduction in their wages unless the price of produce was also reduced; and the result is, the operators are holding out for a fall, while the miners insist on having the old price or a corresponding reduction in the price of the necessaries of life. We feel confident, however, that the matter will soon be arranged satisfactorily to all parties, when we hope to have better times than we have been enjoying the past six months.

It is said to be an ill wind that blows nobody good, and while the "strike" has proved a serious setback to the community in general and to the coal men in particular, it has been a God-send to the "Finnegans." Head Center Swenigan and General Malanigan have taken advantage of the situation, and are doing a lively business in the way of recruiting. I am informed the H. C. has been particularly active the past few days recruiting, furnishing supplies, and forwarding men to the field, and if the cause should fail, (and my prayer is that it may not,) it will be no fault of his. The General has likewise been most active in filling up his brigade, the home guard, and those who go to the front can rest assured that their friends behind will not be allowed to suffer.

I understand it is in contemplation to call a meeting to reorganize the Highland Base Ball Club of this place. Hope such is the case. Though I have not the honor of being a Highlander, yet I want to see the fun go on. The weather to-day is cold; snow about a foot deep, and sleighing tip-top. O.

BUDGET OF NEWS FROM CHEST SPRINGS—WINTER WEATHER—DOINGS IN LUMBER, &c. CHEST SPRINGS, March 18, 1867. To the Editor of The Alleghenian: We are now having a most beautiful fall of snow, and from all appearances, winter is not over yet, though most people have been predicting an early spring and warm weather. A week or two of good sledding, to afford the lumbermen an opportunity to get in more saw-logs, would be very acceptable, for this has been a hard winter to get in logs, on account of the deep snow. But despite all drawbacks, there will be a great quantity of lumber manufactured in Cambria county this season. The Messrs. Nutter, of this place, have made every preparation to manufacture the article on an extensive scale. They have had a large number of men employed all winter getting in logs for their mills and staves for their shoox shops. A great many logs have been put in the different creeks and runs of the county, to be floated down in times of high water to Lock Haven, Williamsport and Havre de Grace—but not so many as there would have been had the winter proved a favorable one.

THE LITTLE DAUGHTER OF MR. SOLOMON CHARLES, of this place, who was accidentally shot by her brother some two weeks ago, is fast recovering from her injuries, and will be able to be about again before long. Boz.

ANOTHER VETO.—Since spring has vetoed winter, and nature is budding forth again, V. S. Barker has made another reduction in the price of his heretofore cheap goods, in order to make room for his spring stock. He is determined to sell, and invites persons wishing cheap goods to call.

THE COMING CAMPAIGN.—Preparations are being made, and no pains will be spared to open out the spring campaign with the usual large display of fashionable spring goods of every description, at A. A. Barker's variety store, Ebensburg.
