MEMORANDA.—It was ascertained by actual measurement, last week, that the snow in the woods in this neighborhood is yet two feet deep. The balmy breezes that April can put forth will hardly be able to melt it all.... It is expected that the new English Lutheran church in Johnstown will be ready for dedication about the first of May. When finished, it will have cost over $30,000.... The roads have been placed by the Weather Bureau under a strong mud blockade.... It gives us pleasure to note that Mr. James Quinn, of Johnstown, has been commissioned a Second Lieutenant in the regular army.... Three or four subscription schools have lately been opened up in this place.
...Rev. David Albaugh, a German Baptist minister, died recently in Jackson township, aged over 80 years.... Huntingdon is again in trouble about her Postmaster. The fourth or fifth appointee of the President for that position, Mr. F. B.
Wallace, has just been rejected by the Senate.... How to tell whether coal oil is explosive or not: Fill a tumbler two-thirds full of water, and put into it about half a teaspoonful of the oil. Stir the water well, and light a match and hold it over the water on a line with the top of the tumbler. If the vapor takes fire, return the oil to the dealer from whom it was obtained. It is dangerous.... Considering the removal of the public weigh scales to a more central position in the city than they now occupy, a committee has been appointed by the Town Council to pass in judgment upon the question whether the scales are worth the money expended in the expense necessary to remove them! If they are not worth that much, they are worth nothing, and should be sold.... The name of Samuel J.
Eyer, Esq., of Johnstown, has been sent to the Senate by the President for confirmation as Collector of Internal Revenue for this district.... Argument Court concludes here to-day.... A patent has been granted to John Nagle, of Duaneville, Huntingdon county, for an improvement in the manufacture of artificial stone.... Less than the usual number of our citizens have deemed it necessary to "move" this spring, reading matter on every page.
POLICE AFFAIRS.—On Saturday last, individuals who had suffered themselves to drink too deeply of corn-juice in celebration of the return of spring, got up an argument on one of our street corners. The argument was brief, but very convincing, consisting of a word and a blow first. The dignity and authority of the boro. having been clearly established by these proceedings, the belligerents were summarily arrested by the police and carried before the Burgess.
The indignity, by the way, dispenses justice without fear, favor, or affection. Bel-liever No. 1 waived a hearing and was fined $5.00. Refuser "sock," he was handed over to the policeman, with instructions that he be shut up with lodgings in the jail overnight. This brought him to his senses, and "socked." Another charge was instituted against him for an infraction of the same boro. ordinance at a period anterior to the date of this occurrence, and he was prevailed upon to defend a second V with the Burgess. The belligerent concluded to stand a trial. The trial was had, with the result that the accused was found guilty as inter and form he stood indicted. He was fined $7.00, which he paid. A third party, who somehow got mixed up in the affair, was fined $5.00. Law and order must be maintained!
LUETTO MARBLE WORKS.—Mr. Jas.
Luetto, proprietor of the Loretto Marble Works, has just completed a new style of monument, which in chasteness of design and excellence of workmanship cannot be called anywhere. It is octagonal in shape with a base of three feet six inches, and a height of eight feet, the apex being decorated with a cross, while the sides are adorned by tasteful carvings and rich sculpture. All in all, it is a masterpiece of art, and worthy a visit to see.— It does not confine himself to the erection of monuments, but holds himself ready to also fill all orders for caskets, gravestones, table and bureau tops, &c. We take pleasure in recommending him to the public.

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.
STAGNATION IN COAL—ACTIVITY IN LUMBER—MAPLE SUGAR—FIRE—COLD WEATHER, &c.
HEMLOCK, April 1, 1867.
To the Editor of The Alleghanian: Notwithstanding the stagnation in coal here, business is looking up. The lumbermen are becoming very active. Messrs.
Frank Conrad & Co. in town, John Wil-kin below town, and John Hamilton above town, are all doing a good business, while Messrs. Miller & Boice, of Indiana county, are erecting a steam saw-mill a short distance from here, which is expected to be put in operation in a few days. Our neighbors, the farmers, have turned their attention to making maple sugar, with rather good success.
Quite an excitement was created on Saturday by the kitchen of the Laurel Run Exchange taking fire very mysteriously. The flames were extinguished, however, before any serious damage had been done.
Yesterday was a pleasant day, but this morning is cold and blustery. The robin and bluebird have disappeared, and of spring's feathered choristers there remains to us only a single woodcock, whose melancholy warbling is heard all day long.
"Moving day" to-day, and everything topsy-turvy. O.
FOR MANY YEARS there has been an urgent call for a reliable Live Stock Insurance Company; but the difficulties which always stand in the way of establishing a new insurance system seems to have precluded all respectable attempts to establish a substantial office of this kind. At length attention has been turned to the matter in the right quarter and Hartford has started an office partaking of the solid features which charac-terize that great insurance centre.
The Hartford Live Stock Insurance Company originated with Geo. D. Jewett, and its management will be guided by a diverse and enlightened insurance experience. The history of the business in England for half a century has been thoroughly investigated, and the rates have been calculated from extensive data. It is scarcely necessary to urge upon the reader the utility of such an office.
To numerous cases it will before long be found an indispensable safeguard against loss which might be irreparable. To the poor teamster, farmer, &c., all the reasons which enforce fire insurance apply with two-fold force to live stock insurance. The company insures against loss by death from any cause, and also against loss by theft.
The list of assets affords ample guarantee for certain indemnity in the event of loss.
As might have been anticipated, the business of the Hartford Live Stock Company has rapidly extended west and east. A large relative proportion of the policy holders are wealthy owners of most valuable animals.— Dexter, Dan Rice, Lucy, Stonewall Jackson, and many other of the most noted horses in the country are insured in this company.— The owners of such horses are congratulating themselves that at last an office has been found with whose security they could be satisfied.—American Exchange and Review.
CHARACTERISTIC.—C. T. Roberts is astonishing the natives at the extremely low rates for which he is disposing of goods at his jewelry store. Persons in need of watches, clocks, jewelry, or any kind of notions, or stationery, should call soon and receive a bargain.
PERSONAL.—Those persons who have not yet called at Mills & Davis' store, (room formerly occupied by E. Hughes & Co.) should do so at once and examine the fine stock of spring goods being opened out.— They are determined to establish a reputation for selling goods cheap.
WORTH KNOWING.—The place where you can get the best quality of goods at the lowest rates is decidedly worth knowing, and if any of our readers desire information on this subject, they are referred to A. A. Barker's variety store, where goods of every description are kept.
FASHIONABLE AND SEASONABLE.—V.
S. Barker is just opening out, at his cheap cash store, a choice assortment of spring goods, of all the desirable and most fashionable qualities, which he is selling at surprisingly low prices, and to which he invites the attention of the public.
CHEAP GOODS.—Any of our readers desiring dry goods of any description, quality, or price, should call at J. M. Thompson's cheap store before purchasing elsewhere, as he intends in the future, as in the past, to keep one of the cheapest stores in town.
ITCH! ITCH! ITCH!—SCRATCH!
SCRATCH! SCRATCH!—Wheaton's Ointment will cure the Itch in 48 Hours. Also cures Salt Rheum, Ulcers, Chilblains, and all Eruptions of the Skin. Price 50 cents. For sale by all Druggists.

Sole Agents 170 Washington street, Boston, Mass., it will be forwarded by mail, free of postage, to any part of the United States.
