To be in fashion, they coreluded they must have an organ. The congregation could not afford to pay an organist, so they got a self-acting organ, a compact instrument, well suited to the purpose, and constructed to play forty tunes. The sexton had instructions how to set it going, and how to stop it; but, unfortunately, he forgot the latter part of his business. Sunday came, and the choir sang four verses of a hymn, but the organ could not be stopped, and continued playing two verses more. Then, just as the clergyman had completed the words, "let us pray," the organ gave a click and started on another tune.

The sexton assisted by the male body of the choir exerted themselves energetically to find the secret spring by which to stop the organ. But in vain. It played on, on, on, as soon as one tune was finished, another beginning. So four of the stoutest men in the church shouldered the perverse instrument and carried it outside, where it continued clicking and playing until it had finished the entire forty tunes.

THEM'S 'EM .- We often hear of remarkable cases of absence of mind. The following is equal to anything of the kind on record :

"I say, Cap'n," said a little, keen eyed man, as he landed from the steamboat Potomae at Natchez, "I say, cap'n, this here ain't all my baggage.'

"That's all the baggage you brought on board, sir," replied the captain.

"Well, see now, I grant it all O. K. according to the list-four boxes, three chests, two ban' boxes, a portmanty, two hams, one of them part cut, three ropes of inyons, and a teakettle; but you see, cap'n, somehow or ruther it runs in my counted them nine times, and never took my eyes off 'em while on board, there's authin not right-somehow."

"Your baggage is all there," persisted the captain-"all you brought on board. Time's up; so hurry and bring your wife and children out of the cabin, and go ashore."

"Wife and children-them's 'em! Dod | D durn it, I knew I had forgot suthin !"

BAR ROOM RULES IN DENVER .- In a bar room in Denver, the following "rules" are conspicuously posted:

"No one is allowed to remain in the hall or passage any longer than five minutes without taking a drink, or in the sitting room ten minutes without doing like-

"Any one refusing to drink when asked will be ignominiously kicked out. "No gentleman is expected to eat the lemon peel in his cocktail, and if he does so, he will not be supplied with any more, and will not be considered a gentleman in | FLOUR. the future."

RENOUNCING THE WORLD .- Chatting with one of her neighbors the other day, Mrs. Smithers related her "experience"

"I used to be very gay, and fond of the world and all its fashions, till the Lord showed me my folly. I liked silks, and ers furnished with Price Current weekly. ribbons, and laces, and feathers, but I found they were dragging me down to hell-so I gave them all to my sister!"

site for a store. One Water Power Saw mill, within 10 rods of the P. R. R., one-half mile west of Portage, together with timber land, 100, 200, or 300 acres, to suit purchasers. The barns and houses on the same cost $1,500 when lumber was cheap. Or, I will sell the whole tract of 480 acres, with timber enough on the same to run the water mill for seven years. The property has 1,500 to 2,00 feet of side tracks connecting with the P. R. R. A general Warrantee Deed will be given on ten days notice for all the foregoing property, and possession of all houses, &c., given on the 1st April next. Call soon, as the property will be disposed of on or before the 1st April.

The improvements cost the subscriber

450 acres of the land is timbered with good Sugar, and the land itself is warranted to be as good as any in Cambria county. Three creeks pass through the land, viz-

Trout Run, M'Intosh Run, and Wright's Run. There is Coal on the land, and any amount of Cord Wood. The location is the only outlet to the coal lands of Burke and the Wm. M. Lloyd & Co. Two pieces of the land adjoin the land formerly owned by Hon. Thomas A. Scott, known as the M'Coy Farm.

One-third the purchase money will be required down; the balance in 3ix and twelve Ten per cent. will be deducted for cash payments. The property will be sold in preference to rented, as the subscriber has not time to collect rents. The house and lot, say I acre of land, at Portage, now occupied by Louisa Keepers, will be sold low if sold soon. Also, the store room at the same place, with 2 acres land, formerly occupied by Victor Voeghtly-sold to him at one time for $725 -- will now be sold for $600. The former will be sold for $350, cash, or its equivalent. CALL SOON !

TOHNSON'S RHEUMATIC COM-

No medicine for the cure of Rheumatism has ever attained to such a high degree of favor and universality as

JOHNSON'S RHEUMATIC COMPOUND.

Although but one year before the public, this medicine has justly gained an unbounded popularity. When the originstor first introduced it, he was convinced of its efficacy, but he little supposed it was destined to prove such an inestimable blessing to the afflicted. But "true merit' cannot be suppressed .-The attestation of hundreds who have been cured by its use, must prove the truth of the assertion,

"THAT IT IS A RADICAL CURATIVE"
