COAL MINERS' STRIKE AT AN END—GOOD NEWS IN HEMLOCK, AND PLENTY OF THEM—PLEASANT WEATHER, &c.

Hemlock, April 8, 1867.

The coal miners have gone to work, and business is active, and idle men are scarce.

Showing your readers the business character of this community, I would say we have no less than four hotels in all tide of successful operation.

The stationer, Mr. R. Detting, proprietor. Under Mr. D.'s efficient management, it will give satisfaction to hungry or thirsty mortals.

The next above the station, and on the bank of Bear Rock Run. It will prove a resort for sporting characters in quest of trout or game.

The third is situated in the village, at the foot of the plane, Mr. John Wilkins proprietor.

Under Mr. D.'s efficient management, it will give satisfaction to hungry or thirsty mortals.

shingles, boards, &c.; they have just started, and are doing well. Mr. John Wagner broke the engine of his mill the other day, and was obliged to send it to Zanesville, O., to have it repaired; it will be several months before he will be able to saw again.

The western fever is raging here considerably at present, and a good many of our most worthy citizens are leaving or are about to leave for west of the Mississippi, in quest of new homes.

JUDGE TAYLOR'S CHARGE RELATIVE TO DESERTERS.—Two weeks ago, the Johnstown Tribune gave currency to the statement that his honor, Judge Taylor, in his charge to the Grand Jury of this county at March Court, had affirmed the legality of the act disfranchising deserters, and had instructed the Jury not to find bills against any parties against whom suits had been entered for enforcing that law.

The Democratic prints of the county flatly denied the statement; and in answer to a letter of the editor of the Tribune, asking for information on the subject, the Judge has seen fit to give the following authoritative explanation of the construction placed by him on the law on the occasion referred to:

HURTINGDON, March 29, 1867. Editor Johnstown Tribune.—Dear Sir:—To yours of the 27th inst., calling my attention to a paragraph in a late number of the Tribune, prepared and printed "upon information derived from a friend,"—and desiring me to inform you whether it is a correct report of a portion of my late charge to the Grand Jury of Cambria county—I reply that it is not.

The error will be corrected and explained by a statement of what I did say on the occasion. I found on the usual list of offences for which bills would be laid before the Grand Jury, headed to me by the District Attorney, that of "willfully rejecting the vote of a qualified voter." This (after reading what the District Attorney had written descriptive of it) I instructed the Grand Jury as an indictable offence; reminding them, at the same time, that it must appear to have been a willful and consequently corrupt, to be a criminal rejection of the offered vote.

Premising that every human tribunal, called upon to decide any question, is fallible, it was not enough, I added, that it should be made to appear that they rejected a vote which should have been received. It must appear, also, that it was done willfully and corruptly. Error, if it was only error, would not be indicted and punished as a crime. I concluded by saying that if the evidence in any case before the Grand Jury proved plainly a willful and corrupt rejection of the vote of a legal voter, they should find the bill a true bill; if the evidence did not show such a rejection, they should find the bill not a true bill.

That is what I did say, and all that I said, as far as I can remember and report it. I think that all who heard me will recognize this as a verbatim report. I did not at the time know the facts or circumstances of any case which the District Attorney intended to lay before the Grand Jury.

Very truly, yours, &c., GEO. TAYLOR.

MEMORANDA.—It is reported that Mr. William Morgan, a private soldier in the 16th U. S. Infantry, was one of the garri- son lately massacred by the Indians in the far West. He was a son of the venerable Richard Morgan, of Cambria tp.... Mr. M. S. Harr and family departed hence on Monday for Rockville, Atchison county, Mo., where they intend taking up their residence for the future. Messrs. Evan Evans and Daniel J. Davis, two worthy citizens, with their respective families, have also gone to the same point to live.

The ground in this latitude was covered with snow on Friday last.... Mr. John Young, the head of the family in Blair county who were lately poisoned by eating biscuit into which tartar emetic had been introduced, instead of cream of tartar, has died.... Major George W. Todd, killed at the battle of Fredericksburg, has been brevetted a Lieutenant Colonel for gallant and meritorious services in the field. He was a native Ebensburg.... No business of importance was transacted at argument Court last week.... A second brakeman, in the person of Mr. Oliver O'Hara, has been added to the Eb. & Cresson train.

TAKING ADVANTAGE.—The people are taking advantage of the low prices at which goods are offered for sale at J. M. Thompson's cheap cash store. He is now offering goods at the nearest approach yet made to old time prices, and can furnish any style of goods from his large assortment. See advertisement in another column.

LIME.—We refer the reader to the card of Mr. Wm. H. Canan, dealer in lime, El Dorado, Blair county. The article of lime dealt in is reputed to be a very superior one. Orders filled with promptness.—We know Mr. Canan personally, and take pleasure in recommending him to the public as a correct and thorough-going business man.

MOPS.—Messrs. Lem and Sam. Davis, of Ebensburg, have secured the agency for the sale of "Tolhurst's Self-wringing Mops" in Cambria and Indiana counties. This mop is said to be infinitely superior to any other in use. Price $1.00, and cheap at twice the money. Buy one without fail.

DENTISTRY.—Dr. D. W. Zeigler has located permanently in Ebensburg as a dentist. Rooms above R. R. Thomas' store, High street.

A CANARD.—It appears from the following card that the story current on the street last week that the money stolen some weeks ago from Mr. Thos. O'Brian, Munster township, had been returned to that gentleman—the main features of which story found their way into these columns—is incorrect in the aggregate and in the detail:

SUMMIT, April 8, 1867. To the Editor of The Alleghanian:—You have made a great mistake in your last paper in telling the people that I got the money that was robbed from me. I wish you would correct the same. I got no money, nor any account of it. I would like to know the man that told you to put it in the paper. Thos. O'Brian.

GONE UP.—John Campbell, a son of Jacob Campbell, until lately of Blacklick township, Cambria county, was tried at the last Quarter Sessions of Alleghany county upon the charge of robbing the Great Western Gun Works at Pittsburg, and was convicted and sentenced to the Western Penitentiary for a term of years.

BASE BALL.—The regular monthly meeting of the Mountaineer Base Ball Club will be held at the office of C. T. Roberts, Ebensburg, to-morrow (Friday) evening, at 8 o'clock. By order of the President.

THIS WAY.—Do not fail to call and examine the large and varied stock of spring goods which have just been received at V. S. Barker's cheap cash store. All the latest styles are being constantly received. It is worth the time consumed, to drop in and sample his goods.

THE ACCEPTED TIME.—Now is the time to make cheap purchases of watches, clocks, jewelry, notions, stationery, &c., at C. T. Roberts'. He is selling cheaper than ever, and persons who once hear his prices do not feel satisfied until they have made a purchase.

TO SAVE MONEY.—If you wish to save money, go to A. A. Barker's variety store and purchase your goods. A large stock of spring goods just received, which will be disposed of at a very small advance on city prices.

THE LATEST EXCITEMENT.—The new firm, Mills & Davis, are offering a large stock of spring goods to the public. They cannot be undersold, neither can the quality of their goods be excelled. Give them a call!

SHOE STORE! SHOE STORE!! The subscriber begs leave to inform the people of Ebensburg that he has just received from the East and has now opened out, at his store-room, the
