

CHARLES LAMB'S WIT.—Instances of Lamb's humor, says Barry Cornwall, are easy to meet with. A school mistress once asked him for some sign indicative of her calling, and he recommended "The Murder of the Innocents."

Once said something which I thought possessed smartness. He commended me with a stammer: "Very well, my dear boy, very well; Ben (taking a pinch of snuff) Johnson has said worse things than that—and b-b-better."

His saying to Martin Burney has often been repeated: "Oh, Martin, if dirt were trumps, what a hand you would hold!"

To Coleridge: "Bless you, old sophist, who next to human nature taught me all the corruption I was capable of knowing!"

To Mrs. H., of a person eccentric:—"Why does not his guardian angel look after him? He deserves one. Maybe he has tired him out?"

To a Frenchman setting up Voltaire's character in opposition to Christ's: "Voltaire was a very good Jesus Christ—for the French!"

Once, while waiting in the Highgate stage, a woman came to the door and inquired, in a stern voice, "Are you quite full inside?" "Yes, ma'am," said Lamb, "quite; that plateful of Mrs. Gilman's pudding has quite filled us."

Mrs. K., after expressing her love for young children, added, "And how do you like babies, Mr. Lamb?" His answer, immediate, almost precipitate, was, "Boi-boi-boiled, ma'am!"

DROPPING THE "H."—A schoolmaster was hearing one of his pupils read, and the boy, when he came to the word "honor," pronounced it full; the master told him it should be pronounced without the H, as thus—"onor."

"Very well, sir," replied the lad, "I will remember for the future."

"Ay," said the master; "always drop the H."

The next morning, the master's tea, with a hot muffin, had been brought to his desk; but the duties of his vocation made him wait till it was cold; when, addressing the same boy, he told him to take it to the fire and heat it.

"Yes, sir," replied the scholar, and taking it to the fire, he ate it.

Presently the master called for his muffin.

"I have eat it as you bade me," replied the boy.

"Eat it, you scoundrel! I bade you take it to the fire and heat it."

"But sir," answered the lad, "yesterday you told me always to drop the H."

BADLY SOLD.—When Colonel Billy Wilson's Zouaves, of predatory notoriety, were encamped on Staten Island, in 1861, some benevolent persons in New York took up a collection to supply the lambs with hymn books and chewing tobacco.

The committee with the funds went down to Staten Island, passed through the camp, inspected the lambs in their tents, and finally came to Colonel Billy's headquarters. The chairman made a neat speech, then putting his hand into his pocket, discovered that the money was gone.

"I had it," said he, "when I reached the camp."

Says Colonel Billy, "I guess it's all right; some of the boys have got it.—Adjutant, just inquire who's lifted the swag from the old duffer in spectacles."

Adjutant went out to investigate, and returned with a report that Company K said they had relieved the old gentleman of his money for fear he might get fatigued if he carried it further.

JOHNSON'S RHEUMATIC COMPOUND. No medicine for the cure of Rheumatism has ever attained to such a high degree of favor and universality as JOHNSON'S RHEUMATIC COMPOUND. Although but one year before the public, this medicine has justly gained an unbounded popularity. What the originator first introduced it, he was convinced of its efficacy, but he little supposed it was destined to prove such an inestimable blessing to the afflicted. But "true merit" cannot be suppressed.—The attestation of hundreds who have been cured by its use, must prove the truth of the assertion.

"THAT IT IS A RADICAL CURATIVE" FOR INFLAMMATORY AND ACUTE RHEUMATISM, GOUT, NEURALGIA, AND KINDRED DISEASES.

We recommend it with confidence as THE GREAT INTERNAL REMEDY, For the Speedy and Positive Cure of the above Complaints.

Messrs. R. E. SELLERS & Co: This is to certify that for the last sixteen years I have been severely afflicted with rheumatism, often confined to my house, and even unable to walk. Being in the Postoffice, about two months ago, Mr. Clark observed my crippled condition, and urged me to try a bottle of "Johnson's Rheumatic Compound." I followed his advice and now, by the blessing of God, and the use of half a bottle of your "Compound," I am free from all symptoms of rheumatism, and can walk without the aid of my staff, as well as ever.

WORMS! WORMS! SELLERS' VERMIFUGE. This Worm Medicine HAS NO SUPERIOR, IF AN EQUAL, In this or any other Country.

Every year thousands of children die from this horrible evil. This alarming mortality loudly calls for increased watchfulness, and greater care in the selection of the remedy.

LET PHYSICIANS SPEAK! SELLERS' VERMIFUGE THE BEST IN USE—HERE IS THE PROOF.

Licking Station, Ky., Dec. 14, 1845. Mr. R. E. SELLERS.—Your Vermifuge possesses more virtue than any I ever used. I will state a case where I gave one vial. My brother's child was pining and wasting to a mere skeleton. In thirty-six hours after I gave the Vermifuge, the enormous quantity of upward of six hundred worms were passed. The child that was given up for lost, is now as well as any in the neighborhood.

A CARD.—WITMER'S BRONCHITIS Lancaster Tp. July 30, 1867. Messrs. EVANS AND WATSON: Gentlemen, The small size No. 1 Salamander safe I purchased from your agent, Mr. Adam Barr, in Lancaster City, on July 20th, 1867, has been subjected to a very severe trial which it withstood in a most satisfactory manner. This safe, containing all my papers together with valuable papers belonging to myself and some of my neighbors and friends, and representing a value of over Twenty thousand Dollars, ($20,000) was in my possession on the night of the 23rd of July, 1867, and passed through the flames unscathed. The safe was on the second and fell to the basement of the Mill, and subjected for six hours to an intense heat among the ruins, which was greatly increased by the combustion of a large quantity of confined within the brick walls. After the fire the safe was opened and the books and papers taken out in a state of perfect preservation, the paper not even being discolored. This fact was, however, to many, a better recommendation of your safe than could be expressed in any other words. Yours Respectfully, SAMUEL H. WITMER.

A Large assortment of the above variety of Fire and Thief Proof Safes always on hand and for sale at low rates as agents for at EVANS & WATSON, No. 16 South Fourth St., Philadelphia.
