DAN RICE'S GREAT SHOW.—It is a long time since we have had a visit from so renowned a circus and humorist, and the announcement in our columns of his coming, on May 3d, with his Great Show of Educated Animals, will be met with very general satisfaction and pleasurable anticipation. Dan has appeared as clown for several years, and we are positively assured he will play his unapproachable role on this occasion, and delight as of yore by his funny sallies. The corps of trained animals by which he is accompanied embraces some of the most famous equestrian, acrobatic and gymnastic "stars." Mr. Rice will introduce and lecture about his new and rare herd of Sacred Cattle—some of their kind ever exported to the far off land where strange millions worship them. The equine marvel, the blind talking horse, Excelsior, announced by Horace Greeley "a horse with a soul," the elegant thoroughbred Arabian trick horse, Stephen A. A.; the original and notorious comic horse, Pete and Barney, and a troupe of trained monkeys, will also be exhibited at each entertainment. Ample provision is given of a refined and amusing program, and the great Dan's tent will be crowded.

SABBATH SCHOOL CONVENTION.—At a meeting of the friends of Sabbath Schools, held in Johnstown, the pastors of the various churches were appointed a committee to make arrangements for calling a Sabbath School Convention to meet in Johnstown at an early day. The committee have discharged that duty, and would respectfully and urgently invite all Sabbath School teachers, and others interested in the great cause of Sabbath School instruction, in Cambria county and adjoining territory, to meet with us in mass convention, in the Lutheran Church, on Thursday morning, the 2d day of May, at 10 o'clock. We propose to spend two days in discussing the best method of teaching, conducting schools, &c.

MEMORANDA.—The match game between the "married nine" and the "single nine" of the Mountaineer Base Ball Club did not come off on Saturday last. It will be played next Saturday afternoon, weather permitting. Mrs. Mungold, a vendor of cakes and pies, was killed at the depot at Altoona one day last week, by being run over by a freight train. Mr. Aretus G. Barker, who eight years ago was a teacher in the Union schools of this place, died in Maine on Thursday last. A haversack, containing photographs, gold and steel pens, a diary, a conductor's account book, a yearly pass on the Penna. Railroad issued to John C. Everhart, $200 in U. S. bonds, and some small change, was picked up in Half Moon Valley, Center county, not long ago. It is thought the articles are stolen property. Mr. George Huff, of Altoona, and formerly of Ebensburg, was in town the beginning of this week. The store of Messrs. Hemphill & Beale, at Allegheny Forge, Blair county, was robbed of goods valued at $100 on Saturday night. A grand ball will be given at Christy's Hotel, Gallitzin, on next Tuesday evening, 30th inst. Our friend James Clark, of Pittsburgh, is in town. Presbytery convened in the Presbyterian church on Tuesday.

THE LONG AGONY OVER.—On Wednesday of last week, the President nominated Mr. Wesley J. Rose, of Johnstown, to be Collector of Internal Revenue for this (the 17th) district, and the same day the nomination was confirmed by the U. S. Senate. Mr. R. is understood to be an excellent Democrat as to politics. This fact will not affect the management of the office, however, for it is authoritatively asserted that the business will be transacted by Mr. Samuel J. Royer, the original incumbent.

DIED.—At his residence, near Ebensburg, on Monday, 22d instant, Mr. Edward Shoemaker, aged about 70 years. The deceased was one of our oldest and best citizens, and his loss is a public calamity. Peace to his ashes.

WANTED, IMMEDIATELY.—Everybody is invited to call at V. S. Barker's cheap cash store, and examine the immense stock of spring goods which he has just received and opened out. Don't fail to call, as you can be supplied with any quantity of any description of goods.

ANOTHER ARRIVAL.—Mills & Davis have just received at their store-room, on High street, a large and well selected stock of dry goods, suitable for spring and summer wear, which they are now offering at the lowest possible figures. Persons wishing to purchase should call.

DON'T NEGLECT IT.—All persons who wish to procure the best quality of goods at the lowest figures, should read J. M. Thompson's column advertisement, to be found in another column, and then test its accuracy by calling and buying a bill of goods.

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE. LETTER FROM LORETTO.—OBSERVANCE OF THE LENTEN SEASON.—BUSY TIMES WITH THE FARMERS.—THE WATERING PLACES GETTING READY FOR THE SUMMER CAMPAIGN.—AN AMUSING INCIDENT, &c., &c.

LORETTO, April 22, 1867. To the Editor of The Alleghanian: With us, the last few days have been quite lively. This is the last of the Lenten season, a time that is strictly observed by Catholics as a season of prayer, and as this is an almost exclusively Catholic community, the streets are each day thronged with people going to and coming from church. A stranger, ignorant of Catholic practices, coming into town, would be led to suppose our little village quite a business place.

The weather is very pleasant. Spring appears to have fairly set in, and the farmers are taking advantage of the fine weather, and are busy planting their grain. During the last week, there was much seeding done, and plowing has nearly been finished. The different watering places, hotels and boarding houses, are making preparations for a large crowd of visitors from the cities this season. It is expected there will be a larger turnout than usual on account of the cholera, which it is feared will prevail during the hot season. All of the rooms in several of our boarding houses are already engaged.

Quite an amusing incident occurred here on Saturday evening last. A few "ladies' men," whose fair ones would not "meet them by moonlight alone," determined to go "where their loves lay dreaming" and give vent to their "phelinks" in the sweet strains of music. They were as quietly as possible preparing their instruments for this purpose under the window of one of the charmers, when, lo! the window was hoisted, and a nightcap inquired "who's there?" The young men now discovered that they were "barking up the wrong sapling"—in fact, that they had got under a window they didn't want to get under—and unceremoniously ran off. The inmates of the house, thinking they were robbers, gave the alarm, arousing all in the neighborhood, who started in hot pursuit of the affrighted lovers. After running some distance, the pursuit was given over after a good, hearty laugh.

ACORN. FEARFUL TORNAO IN THE NORTHEAST OF THE COUNTY.—GREAT DESTRUCTION OF PROPERTY, &c., &c.

CHEST SPRINGS, April 22, 1867. To the Editor of The Alleghanian: This section was visited by a terrible tornado on Saturday evening last. The storm did not reach this town, but passed about one mile north. It appears to have passed entirely across Clearfield township. It was so violent as to tear down everything that came in its track. Mr. James Mulligan had the roof torn off his house; Francis Durbin's and Patrick Montgomery's houses were moved off their foundations, and the roof of William M'Mullin's house was blown off and his barn was torn down. I did not hear of any person being hurt. The tornado took its track nearly direct from west to east across Clearfield tp. It passed through one of the best timber sections in the township, tearing the timber out by the roots, breaking it off, and destroying many thousand dollars' worth. It tore everything down that came in its track, fences, trees, &c. It even tore the earth up in some places. An untold amount of damage was done to the farmers in Clearfield tp. Boz. [The tornado here spoken of also extended to Carroll and Blacklick townships, doing much damage in those localities.—Ed. Alle.]

HEAVY SENTENCE.—Matthews, the desperado who fired the barn and shot the horses of Mr. Goshorn, in Tall township, Huntingdon county, last fall, was tried for the crime at the late term of the Huntingdon Court, found guilty, and sentenced to fifteen years in the penitentiary.

MARRIED.—At the residence of the bride's father, in Blacklick township, on the 18th inst., by the Rev. J. W. Evans, Mr. Thomas W. Jervis, of Cambria tp., to Miss Phebe Wissinger.

THE WEATHER.—Wednesday, 24th April, snow two inches deep, and plenty more coming. Ugh!

IMPORTANT INFORMATION.—The most important information for every man or woman to be possessed of, is the oftly proven and now unquestioned fact that A. A. Barker keeps the largest stock of dry goods, groceries, &c., in Ebensburg.

NEW STYLES.—Have you called at C. T. Roberts' and examined his large stock of clocks, watches, jewelry, &c.? If you have not, you should do so at once. His stock has been greatly increased, and his prices have been decreased.

GROCERY STORE.—If you want anything in the grocery, provision, confection, or notion line, go to George Gurley's. He keeps a full assortment of everything, and his prices will suit every person.

GO TO THOMPSON'S AND SEE THE LARGEST, BEST SELECTED AND CHEAPEST STOCK OF DRY GOODS, DRESS GOODS, MEN'S AND BOYS' CLOTHING, &c., ALSO, A FULL LINE OF HATS AND CAPS, BOOTS AND SHOES, UMBRELLAS, TRUNKS, CARPET SACKS, CHOICE GROCERIES, &c.
