

A NEW BUSINESS.—The firm of Edwards, Griffin & Co. were lately brought before Court in Chicago, on the charge of being vagrants, when one of them made the following revelations: "These two gentlemen and myself are the firm of Edwards, Griffin & Co. We are proposers. By that I mean we propose to young ladies and help to get them married. We are benefactors. When we see a young lady who is not, and never has been engaged, one of us says to her: 'We will get you married for $—, payable after marriage.' Of course she says yes. For the time being, one of us is considered as engaged to her. We trumpet the fact abroad. Whenever the other two of us meet a young man who is not engaged, we say: 'What a lucky dog Griffin is!—He has won Miss X.' And we praise her. We encourage the young man to go in and cut Griffin out, for the fun of the thing. Being a fool, like most young men, he does it. He proposes to Miss X, knowing that she is engaged to Griffin, and hardly expecting that she will accept him. But she always does. And he can never cut loose from her. He must marry her or be tried for breach of promise. I myself have been engaged twenty-five times during the last year. We are doing so well that we think of hiring a clerk to do part of the work for us. I should not have told you this but for your atrocious threat about Bridewell. But as we have given false names, it does not make much difference."

HARD HIT AT THE HOME GUARDS.—During the last stage of the war, says the Richmond Enquirer, whilst the Confederate army was retreating through South Carolina, Sergeant M'D., of Western North Carolina, was sent on detail to the town of M—, where a regiment of home guards were stationed. The valorous heroes, seeing a soldier from the front, gathered around him, eagerly inquiring the news. "News!" said Mack solemnly, "I believe there is none. Yes, there is a little, too, but it's not of much importance; old Hardee burnt up a regiment of home guards at Florence the other day, to keep them from falling into the enemy's hands." Mack walked coolly on, and no more questions were asked.

A THIEF AND A ROBBER.—The English Independent says that Rev. William Thorpe, of Bristol, England, was so large that in preaching an ordination sermon he had to be hoisted into the pulpit over the side, the door being too narrow to admit him. Curiously enough, his sermon was on "The Importance of a Right Introduction into the Christian Ministry," and he founded his discourse on the parable in which it is declared that "He that entereth in by the door is the shepherd of the sheep; while he that climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber."

A CARD TO THE LADIES!—DR. DUPONCO'S GOLDEN PERIODICAL PILLS. In correcting irregularities, removing obstructions of the Monthly Turns, from whatever cause, and always successful as a Preventive.

It is now over thirty years since the above celebrated Pills were discovered by Dr. Duponco, of Paris, during which time they have been extensively and successfully used in most of the public institutions—as well as in private practice—of both hemispheres, with unparalleled success in every case, and it is only at the "urgent request" of the thousands of ladies who have used them that I am induced to make the Pills public for the alleviation of those suffering from any irregularities whatever, as well as to prevent an increase of family where health will not permit it. Females peculiarly situated, or those supposing themselves so, are cautioned against using these Pills while in that condition, as the proprietor assumes no responsibility after the above admonition, although their mildness would prevent any mischief to health—otherwise the Pills are recommended.

ONE BOX IS SUFFICIENT. Full and explicit directions accompany each box, which must be strictly followed, and all diseases peculiar to females may be speedily cured. Price $1 per box; six boxes, $5. Sold by one druggist in every town, village, city and hamlet throughout the world. Sold in Ebsensburg, Pa., by R. J. LLOYD, Druggist.

Ladies, by sending him $1 to the Ebsensburg P. O., can have the Pills sent (confidentially) by mail to any part of the country, free of postage.

Sold also by Roush & Taylor, Altoona; Johnson, Holloway & Cowden, Phila.; Demas Barnes & Co., New York; S. D. Howe, Sole Proprietor, New York. [april-ly]

A CARD.—WITNESS THE BRIDGE, Lancaster Tp. July 30, 1866. Messrs. EVANS AND WATSON: GENTLEMEN. The small size No. 1 Salamander safe which I purchased from your agent, Mr. Adam Barr, in Lancaster City, on July 20th, 1866, has been subjected to a very severe trial, which it withstood in a most satisfactory manner. This safe, containing all my papers, together with valuable papers belonging to myself and some to my neighbors and friends, and representing a value of over Twenty Thousand Dollars, ($20,000) was in my Mill which was destroyed on the night of the 23rd of July, 1866, and passed through the fiery ordeal unscathed. The safe was on the second floor and fell to the basement of the Mill, and was subjected for six hours to an intense heat, and the fire, which was greatly increased by the combustion of a large quantity of gunpowder confined within the brick walls. After the fire the safe was opened and the contents were taken out in a state of perfect preservation, the paper not even being discolored. This fact was, however, to many business men a better recommendation of your safe than could be expressed in any other words. Yours Respectfully, SAMUEL H. HAY, [Jan 24]

A large assortment of the above variety of Fire and Thief Proof Safes always on hand and for sale at low rates as any firm, at EVANS & WATSON, No. 16 South Fourth st., Philadelphia.
