flensburg

opp hutchinson, Editor. HUTCHINSON, Publisher.

WOULD RATHER BE RIGHT THAN PRESIDENT .- HENRY CLAY.

TERMS: \ $8.00 PER ANNUM. $2.00 IN ADVANCE.

DLUME 8.

ILLIAM KITTELL, Attorney at Law, Ebensburg, Pa.

Ebensburg, Pa. office opposite the Bank.

RGE M. READE, Attorney at Law, Ebensburg, Pa. ffice in Colonnade Row.

TIERNEY, Attorney at Law, gbensburg, Cambria county, Pa. fice in Colonnade Row.

STON & SCANLAN, Attorneys at Law, Ebensburg, Pa. fice opposite the Court House. [jan24] J. E. SCANLAN.

ES C. EASLY, Attorney at Law. Carrolltown, Cambria county, Pa. Architectural Drawings and Specifi-

A. SHOEMAKER, Attorney at Law, Ebensburg, Pa. ular attention paid to collections. office one door east of Lloyd & Co.'s [jan24

EL SINGLETON, Attorney at . Ebensburg, Pa. Office on High west of Foster's Hotel. ctice in the Courts of Cambria and tends also to the collection of claims against the Government. [jan24 RGE W. OATMAN, Attorney at aw and Claim Agent, Ebensburg, Pensions, Back Pay and Bounty, and tary Claims collected. Real Estate reements, Letters of Attorney, Bonds, atly written, and all legal business attended to. Pensions increased, alized Bounty collected.

WATERS, Justice of the Peace and Scrivener. fice adjoining dwelling, on High st. [feb7-6m

INKEAD, Justice of the Peace and Claim Agent. fice removed to the office formerly y M. Hasson, Esq., on High street

D. R. Zeighen, having opened an he rooms over R. R. Thomas' store, professional services to the citizens [ap18-4m TISTRY undersigned, Graduate of the Ballege of Dental Surgery, respectfully ofessional services to the citizens rg. He has spared no means to acquaint himself with every imin his art. To many years of perence, he has sought to add the aperience of the highest authorities Science. He simply asks that an ty may be given for his work to wn praise. SAMUEL BELFORD, D. D. S. es: Prof. C. A. Harris; T. E. Bond, . Handy ; A. A. Blandy, P. H. Aus-Buitimore College. il be at Ebensburg on the fourth each month, to stay one wiek.

ID & CO., Bankersld, Silver, Government Loans and rities bought and sold. Interest n Time Deposits. Collections made ssible points in the United States eral Banking Business transacted.

24, 1867. M. LLOYD & Co., Bankers— ALTOONA, PA. a the principal cities, and Silver or sale. Collections made. Moned on deposit, payable on demand,

DYD, Prest. D. T. CALDWELL, Cash'r. NATIONAL BANK OF ALTOUNA. GOVERNMENT AGENCY,

ATED DEPOSITORY OF THE UNI-TED STATES. orner Virginia and Annie sts., North

ZED CAPITAL $300,000 00 TIAL PAID IN 150,000 00 iness pertaining to Banking done on il Revenue Stamps of all denominarays on hand. rchasers of Stamps, percentage, in will be allowed, as follows: $50 to per cent.; $100 to $200, 8 per cent. d upwards, 4 per cent.

J. LLOYD. Successor of R. S. Bunn, Dealer in AND DYE-STUFFS, PERFUME-ND FANCY ARTICLES, PURE

UGS AND MEDICINES, PAINTS AND BRANDIES FOR MEDI-POSES, PATENT MEDICINES, &c. Also:

, and Note Papers, ens, Pencils, Superior Ink, And other articles kept by Druggists generally. ap11-3m] rescriptions curefully compounded. on Main Street, opposite the Mounse, Ebensburg, Pa. Ijan24

JARRETTS DYSERT, House, gn, and Ornamental Painting, Grainand Paper Hanging. ork done on short notice, and satisusranteed. Shop in basement of

l, Ebensburg, Pa. [my9-6m AHAM BLAINE, Barber-

EBENSBURG, PA. 8, Shampooing, and Hair-dressing e most artistic style. den directly opposite the "Moun-Dan24 | wholeesle or retail.

EBENSBURG, PA., THURSDAY, MAY 23, 1867.

DRIVATE SALE! The subscriber will sell the following property at private sale : One House at Portage Station, on the P. IN FENLON, Attorney at Law, R. R., with 2 acres land. Suitable for a store room or a dwelling.

One House and 90 acres land, on P. R. R., one-half mile west of Portage, opposite the siding of the Union Mills of the subscriber, and at the terminus of the railroad of White

One House and 2 acres land at Portage, now occupied by Louisa Keepers. A good site for a store. One Water Power Saw mill, within 10 rods of the P. R. R., one-half mile west of Portage, together with timber land, 100, 200, or 300 acres, to suit purchasers. The barns and houses on the same cost $1,500 when lumber was cheap;

Or, I will sell the whole tract of 480 acres, with timber enough on the same to run the water mill for seven years. The property has 1,500 to 2,00 feet of side tracks connecting with the P. R. R. A general Warrantee Deed will be given on ten days notice for all the foregoing property, and possession of all houses, &c., given on the 1st April next. The improvements cost the subscriber 150 acres of the land is timbered with good Sugar, and the land itself is warranted to be as good as any in Cambria courty. Three creeks pass through the land, viz-

Trout Run, M'Intosh Run, and Wright's Run. There is Coal on the land, and any amount The location is the only outlet to the coal lands of Burke and the Wm. M. Lloyd & Co. Two pieces of the land adjoin the land formerly owned by Hon. Thomas A. Scott, known as the M'Coy Farm. One-third the purchase money will be required down; the balance in six and twelve

Ten per cent, will be deducted for cash payments. The property will be sold in preference to rented, as the subscriber has not time to col-

The house and lot, say I acre of land, at Portage, now occupied by Louisa Keepers, will be sold low if sold soon. Also, the store room at the same place, with 2 acres land, pose you, if you like." formerly occupied by Victor Voeghtly-sold to him at one time for $725 -- will now be sold for $600. The former will be sold for $350, cash, or its equivalent.

WM. R. HUGHES. Wilmore, January 31, 1867.

CHOE STORE! SHOE STORE!

The subscriber begs leave to inform the people of Ebensburg that he has just received rom the East and has now opened out, at his store-room, the ever brought to town. The stock was made expressly to order by the BEST SHOE MANUFACTORY IN PHILA the subscriber having gone to the trouble and expense of visiting that city especially to order it. The work is warranted not to rip-if it rips, it will be REPAIRED FREE OF CHARGE!

LARGEST AND BEST ASSORTMENT OF WOMEN'S AND CHILDREN'S BOOTS AND SHOES OF ALL KINDS!

A visit to his establishment will satisfy any one that he can not only sell a BETTER ARTI-CLE than all competitors, but that he can CHEAPER THAN THE CHEAPEST! He also continues to manufacture Boots and Shoes to order, on short notice and in the most workmanlike style.

A VERY SUPERIOR LOT OF REAL FRENCH CALF SKINS ON HAND!

Ber Stand one door east of Crawford's Hotel, High street, and immediately opposite V. S. Barker's store. JOHN D. THOMAS.

SADDLERY AND HARNESS!—
The undersigned keeps constantly on terest, or upon time, with interest | hand and is still manufacturing all articles [jan24 | in his line, such as

FINE SINGLE AND DOUBLE HARNESS, DRAFT HARNESS. RIDING BRIDLES, BLIND BRIDLES,

CHECK LINES. HALTERS, WHIPS, BRICHBANDS, &c., &c. All which he will dispose of at low prices

His work is all warranted, and being experienced in the business, he uses only the best of leather. Thankful for past favors, he hopes by attention to pusiness to merit a ontinuance of the patronage heretofore so liberally extended to him. [jan24 Shop above the store of E. Hughes & Co.

TALUABLE REAL ESTATE FOR

can be accommodated. HUGH A. M'COY.

SALE! The subscriber offers at private sale the Farm on which he now resides, situate in Cambria Township, Cambria county, containing about 50 acres, nearly all of which are cleared, and having thereon erected a Two-story Frame Dwelling House, a new Frame Barn, and all the necessary Outbuild- on in this way. Don't ask me what I somebody. ings. There is a good Orchard on the Farm, and an excellent Well of Water at the kitchen door. Only five minutes' walk from the Railroad Depot. Terms moderate, and title indisputable. Apply to the undersigned on the premises, or address SAMUEL TIBBOTT,

Ebensburg, Pa. PBENSBURG LITERARY DEPOT.

JAMES MURRAY, dealer in BOOKS, STATIONERY, CIGARS, TOBAC-CO, PERFUMERY, FANCY SOAPS, &c. In the room formerly occupied by Dr.

Lemon as a Drug Store, High st., EBENSBURG. Keeps-Blank Books. Magazines, Envelopes, Paper, Newspapers, Novels, Histories, Pens, Ink, Pocket Books, Prayer Books, Pass Books, Toy Books, &c. and Cigare sold either Stationery

THE ENGINEER'S STORY.

I am an engineer. Ever since - road promise and my resolution. was laid. I've traveled it every day, or nearly every day, of my life.

For a good while, I've had the same engine in charge-the San Franciscothe prettiest engine on the road, and as well managed, if I say it, as the best.

It was a southwestern road, running, It was morning. A waiter stood ready so we will say, from A to Z. At A, my to brush my coat. I saw a grin on his put by for a rainy day. I was an odd | the depot ! engine, watching with all your eyes and not fit to take charge of an engine? heart and soul, inside and out, don't make | could not answer. I ought to have asked a man talkative.

My wife's name was Josephine, and I my hat and rushed away. called her Jo. Some people call me unsociable, and couldn't understand how a man could feel friendly without saying morning sun. From my post, I could ten words an hour. So, though I had a hear the people talking-bidding each few friends-dear ones, too-I did not other good-by, promising to write, and all bave so many acquaintances as most pco- that sort of thing. Amongst them was ple, and did not care to have. The house an old gentleman I knew by sight-one which held my wife and baby was the of the shareholders; he was bidding two States: dearest spot on earth to me, except the | timid girls adieu. old house that held my mother, up at A.

I never belonged to a club, or mixed myself up with strangers in any such way, and never should, if it had not been for Granby. You see Granby was one of neer. I wouldn't be afraid to trust every the shareholders; a handsome, showy mortal I love to their keeping. Nothing fellow. I liked to talk with him, and we could happen wrong with the two towere friends. He often rode from Z to A, and back again, with me, and once he said:

"You ought to belong to the Scientific Club, Guelden."

"I never heard of it," said I. "I am a member," said he. "We meet once a fortnight, and have a jolly good time. We want thinking men like you. be myself again. We have some among us, now. I'll pro-

ideas that I fancied might be worth some- more, and we would have a collision .- | cied resemblance to that island. thing. But the engineer don't have Somebody told me so. I laughed. I nights or days to himself, and the club heard him say, respectfully, would have one evening a fortnight from

"I'll ask her. If she likes it, yes." "Ask whom?" said he.

"Jo," said I. "If every man had asked his wife, every man's wife would have said, 'Can't spare you, my dear,' and we should have no club, at all," said Granby.

But I made no answer. At home, I told Jo. She said: "I shall miss you, Ned; but you do love such things, and then, if Granby belongs, they must be superior men." "No doubt," said I. "It isn't everybody who could be made a member," said Jo. "Wky, of course, you must say yes." So I said yes, and Granby proposed me.

the rooms. The real business of the even- stood upon the ground between the track ing was the supper, and so it was every | and the river's edge, and gazed at my I'd always been a temperate man. I club table, I found it put steam on .-After so many glasses, I wanted to talk; after so many more, I did.

were so ready. My little ideas came out, whispered "Murder!" and were listened to. I made sharp hits; even came to puns. I heard somebody friends. The dead were stretched on the Easter Sunday. say to Granby, "By George, that's a man grass. I went with some of the distracted worth knowing. I thought him dull at to find their lost ones. Searching for an issippi territory, admitted into the Union first." Yet I knew it was better to be old man's daughter, I came to a place as a State in 1819. The name is of quiet Ned Guelden, with his ten words under the trees where five bodies were Indian origin, signifying "here we rest." an hour, than the wine-made wit I was. | lying in rigid horror-an old woman, a after, I stumbled up stairs, to find Jo Was it fancy, born of my anguish? No. 1800, from the great river on its western waiting for me with her baby on her Oh, heaven! they were my old mother, line. The term is of Iudian origin, mean-

"You've been deceiving me," said Jo. "I suspected it, but I wasn't sure. A scientific club couldn't smell like a bar- No one could answer. I grouned; I owned the territory.

in the middle of the room like a signal her who gave me birth, on the lovely French prefix "are," bow. flag at a station, and seeing two Joes. Persons wishing good and substantial Harness and locked herself and the baby in the spare bed-room. One club-night, as I was dressed to go, Jo stood before me. to find with you before. You've been self before it. I felt it crush me and river which traverses a great portion of kind, and good, and loving always; but grind me to atoms. I should be sorry we ever met, if you go mean. You know." "Jo," said I, "it's only on club night."

"It will grow," said she. Then she put her arms around my neck. so much like a bottled up and strapped first. She repeated the question. day, mark my words, not only Thursday no pain !" night, but all the days of the week will be the same. I've often heard you won- said my wife; "why, Ned!" der what the feelings of an engineer who I tried to move-there was nothing the them away. Ned, if you don't care for could be the matter? my love, don't ruin yourself."

"Don't be afraid, child. I'll never pain pened!" [mer7.3m | you again."

Already, I felt my brain reel as it had with your dreadful talk." never before. In an hour, I was in a kind of stupor.

good old mother lived; at Z, I had the face. My heart seemed ready to burst; sweetest little wife under the sun, and my hand trembled. I looked at my a baby, and I always had a dollar or two watch-I had only five minutes to reach kind of man. Being shut up with the Jo's words came to my mind. Was I some sober man. As it was, I only caught happened should never occur again. It bill, and yet I should not. When I re-I was just in time. The San Francisco glittered in the be-"The engineer was drunk!"

"Good-by, Kitty-good-by, Lue," I heard him say; "don't be nervous. The San Francisco is the safest engine on the line, and Guelden the most careful engigether."

I said to myself, I'll get through somehow, and Jo shall never find fault with me again.

I reeled as I spoke. I heard the signal. We were off. Five hours from L. to D.; five hours

I was fond of such things, and I had train at the wrong place. Two minutes in the Mediterranean, because of a fan-

"Of course, Mr. Guelden, you know what you are about!" Then I was alone, and wondering whether I should go faster or slower. I did something, and the cars rushed on at a fearful rate. The same man who had spoken to me before was standing near me. I heard some question. How many miles an hour were we making? I didn't know.

Rattle, rattle! I was trying now to slacken the speed of the San Francisco. I could not remember what I should do. Was it this, or that? - laster, or slower? I was playing with the engine like a child.

Suddenly, there was a horrible roar-a crash! I was flung somewhere. I was in the water. By a miracle, I was so-Thursday fortnight, I went with him to bered, not hurt. I gained the shore. I work.

The engine was in fragments, the cars actually did not know what effect wine in splinters, and the dead and dying were would have on me; but coming to drink strewn around-men, women and chilmore of it than I ever had before, at the dren, old age and tender youth. There were grouns and shricks of despair. The maimed cried out in pain; the uninjured bewailed their dead. A voice, un-I seemed like somebody else, the words | heard by any other, was in my ear, and it

I was sure of it when, three months young one, a baby, and two tiny children. the province of Louisiana. So named in my wife, my children-all cold in death ! | ing "long river." What chance had brought this about? France, who for some time prior to 1763 "Which means I do," said I, wavering my hair. I gazed in the good old face of an word for "smoky water," with the features of my wife, and on my innocent was no answer. They were dead! As I comprehended this awful truth, there thundered up the track another train. Its red eye glared

"His head is extremely hot," said I opened my eyes and saw my wife.

"How do you feel?" said she; "a lit- the lake to a fish-trap. tle better?" I was so rejoiced and so astonished at down demon as steam is, is fit to put into "I must be crushed to pieces," said I, signifying "tribe of men." the hands of a drunken man? And some | "for the train went over me; but I feel

"There he goes again about the train," has about the same as murdered a train matter with me. I was in my own room. full of people must be, and you'll know Opposite me was a crib in which my two if you don't stop where you are. A stea- children were asleep, and beside me was dy hand and a clear head have been your a tiny bald head. My wife and children blessings all these years. Don't throw were safe! Was I delirious, or what ter."

"It's nine o'clock," said Jo. "You remance, in which an imaginary island of of silver plate.

And I meant it; but at twelve o'clock came home in such a dreadful state from that name is described as abounding in that night, I felt that I had forgotten my the club that I couldn't wake you. You gold. weren't fit to manage steam and risk peo-I couldn't get home to Jo. I made up ple's lives. The San Francisco is half Indian oregon, "river of the west." Othmy mind to sleep on the club sofa, and way to A. by this time, I suppose, and ers consider it derived from the Spanish leave the place for good, the next day .- you have been frightening me to death "oregano," wild marjoram, which grows

> And Jo began to cry. It was all a dream, a horrible dream. But I had lived through it as though my experience were reality. "Is there a Bible in the house, Jo?"

"Give it to me this moment, then." She brought it, and I put my hand on it and took a solemn oath that what had never has. And if the San Francisco collect that the codfish aristocracy of Alever comes to grief, the verdict will not bany is not worthy of a decent red herring, Names of the States.

The following are the derivations and meaning of the names of the different

MAINE-So called from the province of Maine, in France, in compliment of been said, owned that province. NEW HAMPSHIRE-Named by John Mason, (who with another obtained the grant from the crown,) from Hampshire county, England, in 1639. The former name of the domain was Laconia.

VERMONT-From the French word mont, or green mountain, indicative of the mountainous nature of the State. This name was first officially recognized Jan.

MASSACHUSETTS-Indian name, signiback. On the last heat, I knew I should fying "the country about the great hills," i. e. the Blue Hills.

ta-cut, which signifies "the long river."

York, under color of title given him by the English crown in 1664.

Channel. PENNSYLVANIA-From Admiral Penn, the father of the founder of the colony, meaning "Penn's woods."

DELAWARE-In honor of Thomas West. Lord Delaware, who visited the bay and died there in 1619.

queen of Charles I., of England. VIRGINIA -- So called in honor of Queen Elizabeth, the "virgin queen," in whose reign Sir Walter Raleigh made the first attempt to colonize that region. NORTH AND SOUTH CAROLINA Were originally in one tract, called California, after Charles IX., of France. Subsequently, in 1665, the name was altered to gentlemen, but that is not the worst of it.

Georgia-So called in honor of George II., of England, who established a colony in that region in 1732. FLORIDA-Ponce de Leon, who discovered this portion of North America in 1512, named it Florida in commemoration of the day he landed there, which was the The news had gone to A., and the peo- Pasques de Flores of the Spaniards, or

> ALABAMA-Formerly a portion of Miss-Mississippi - Formerly a portion of

How did they come on that train? - Louisiana-From Louis XIV., of screamed; I clasped my hands; I tore | ARKANSAS - From "Kansas," the Indi-

TENNESSEE- Indian for "river of the "And look like one," said Jo; and went | children. I called them by name; there | big bend," i. e., the Mississippi, which is the Western boundary.

KENTUCKY-Indian for "at the head of the river." Оню-From the Indian, meaning "Ned," said she, "I never had a fault on me with a baleful light. I flung my- "beautiful." Previously applied to the > its borders. MICHIGAN-Previously applied to the lake, the Indian name for a fish weir. So called from the fancied resemblance of Indiana. - So called in 1802, from the American Indians. "Ned," said she, "do you think a thing | the sight of her that I could not speak at | ILLINOIS-From the Indian "illini,"

> Wisconsin-Indian term for a "wild rushing channel." Missouri-Named in 1821, from the great branch of the Mississippi which > flows through it. Indian term, meaning

"muddy." Iowa-From the Indian, signifying "the drowsy ones." MINNESOTA-Indian for "cloudy wa-

OREGON-According to some, from the abundantly on the Pacific coast.

A Funny Legislator.

The humorist of the New York Legislature is one John Oakey, member from Kings county, and the way Mr. Oakey "Are we heathen?" said Jo, reproach- does things may be inferred from the following report of a speech made by him on the bill for the erection of a new capitol building in Albany :-

"Mr. Chairman, I intend to favor this I am tempted to say, 'Oakey, don't make an ass of yourself by voting for the new capitol bil,' and yet I shall. I will vote for the bill, not because I like Albany. but because I love the State.

"Mr. Chairman, I once thought that to be member of Assembly was to be high cockalorum at a world's poultry show. I have lived to see my mistake. An As-Queen Henrietta, of England, who, it has semblyman is some pumpkins in New York. He is looked upon as a Cicero in Duchess county, and a Lycurgus in Scoharie. But it is not so in Albany. In this city of sturgeons and stuckups, legislators are small potatoes and few to the

"The first day after I reached Albany,

I hunted around, with a shot-gun and a pointer, to find a boarding house. I found one, kept by a French nightcap and mammoth waterfall, the widow of a defunct gentleman heavy in West India goods. I asked the widow of said defunct if she desired another boarder. She replied, I saw a red flutter, but never guessed RHODE ISLAND-This name was adop- 'that depends on circumstances.' I inwhat it was until we were past the down ted in 1644, from the island of Rhodes, formed her that I was a member of the Legislature. She became as cold as an iceberg, and informed me that respectable CONNECTICUT-This is the English | boarding houses did not desire patronago orthography of the Indian word Quon-eh- from Assemblymen or colored people .-She shut the door, and I retired. I NEW YORK-Named by the Duke of sought another lady. She was more complacent, and said she did not mind boarding one or two Assemblymen, provided NEW JERSEY-So called in honor of they would pay in advance or give secu-Sir George Cartaret, who was Governor rity. Is this the way, Mr. Speaker, to of the island of Jersey, in the British treat the successors of Solon? I fancy not. But while I am down on the people of Albany as a community, I have found some individual exceptions who deserve the highest marks of my esteem. A few weeks ago, a gentleman, loud in praise of the new capitol, said to me, 'Oakey, let's go to Peck's and get some oysters.' In MARYLAND -- After Henrietta Maria, reply, Oakey said, 'Nothing would afford me more pleasure.' We went to Peck's. We ordered oysters, venison steaks, green seal, and all that sort of thing. My friend left the room to obtain some cigars -fifty cents apiece. He did not come back. He has not come back yet. He never will come back. He left Oakey to pay the whole bill, $17.63! You may laugh, He got four fifty-cent eigars and had them charged to me l

"Last week, I gave eight shirts out to be washed. They came back in the shape of five collars, four 'dickies,' and one corded skirt. Now what do I want with a corded skirt? I am not an old granny, like my friend over there, who believes the Erie Canal injured the State, I indulged in repartee; I told stories; I ple came thronging down to find their "Feast of Flowers," otherwise known as nor am I a female brother, like Susan Anthony, or those other specimens of unfeathered poultry, who cackle at Hen Conventions. I do not want that skirt.

"A short time ago, I visited the Baptist Church, one of the great washing machines of the city. An elderly gentleman addressed the Sabbath School children, and, pointing at this building, said-'My young friends, that is the Lunatic Asylum, to which 128 crazy men are sent every year, to make laws for three millions of gulls.' I could stand no more. I seized my hat and left the edifice. I don't suppose I could have carried it along, if I had tried, but I did not try. As I said before, I left the edifice. But, while I cannot and will not go much on the Red Herring aristocracy of Albany, I must be allowed to say that I have received nothing but kindness from the Representatives of Albany on this floor. Robinson never smoked a cigar without asking me to 'smell its flavor,' and Smith never sips a glass of Madeira, without saying, 'Oakey, chew the corkscrew.' Robinson and Smith are clever fellows-so are Smith and Robinson. They are both clever fellows, especially Smith and more particularly Robinson. "There is an unknown gentleman who resides in the Bowery, to whom I am also under obligations. To every chicken men, and the French suffix "ois," together dispute and dog fight that has come off in that part of the city, this unknown friend of a new capitol, has sent me no less than twelve free passes, one for myself, three for Dan Wood, four for Parker, and the other four for reporters of leading and influential papers, like the New York Tribune and Independent. But I will nos detain the House any longer."

-At a fashionable wedding at Norfolk. last week, the bridal presents were valued CALIFORNIA-The name given by at $10,000. Among them were a $5,000 "Jo," cried I, "tell me what has hap- Cortes, the discoverer of that region. He roll of greenbacks, two sets of diamonds, probably obtained it from an old Spanish | a camel's hair shawl, and large quantities

NUMBER 18.