

THE PITTSBURG GAZETTE.—On last Monday, the commencement of the second year of the paper under its present management, the Pittsburg Gazette was considerably enlarged and improved. It is now equal in size to any paper published in Pennsylvania, and is surpassed by but few in the Union, while as a vehicle of news and general information it takes the foremost rank. It is so eminently sound and reliable in politics that we wish it had one hundred subscribers in this neighborhood. Notwithstanding its enlargement, the subscription price of the Gazette remains as heretofore. Terms, $8.00 for the daily. The price of the weekly is $1.50, with a reduction to clubs. Address The Gazette, Pittsburg, Penna.

A DISAGREEABLE SUMMER PREDICTED.—French scientific men predict that the coming summer will be a cold, wet and disagreeable one. They base the prediction on the theory that immense masses of ice have broken and are yet breaking away from the polar regions, which masses will float down into our oceans and seas, producing cold and vapor. Our friend, Richard Morgan, Esq., who is fully conversant with all the mysteries of meteorology, entirely coincides with the French savants in the opinion that the summer will be exactly the reverse of the kind of one we all hope and pray for, but we believe he has not yet promulgated the theory upon which he bases the opinion.

A DECEASED.—A man named Kaufman, a saddler, employed in Curwensville, Clearfield county, made love to a daughter of a respectable citizen of that place, and the two were engaged to be married. Before the ceremony came off, however, it transpired that Kaufman had a wife living somewhere in Blair county, and was absolutely out to pieces. Kaufman, with his legs, his right arm, his hand, and the whole top of his head off. The new Lutheran church in Altoona, which cost $30,000, has been sold for the last dollar. More than half of the farmers in the vicinity of Altoona, says the Tribune, are Germanists, while of the remainder, probably half are Mennonites. A Good Templar named Felty Smith, of Newton Hamlet, Mifflin county, took some medicine which contained brandy. The idea of drinking brandy distressed him so much that he afterward attempted to commit suicide by cutting his throat, but unsuccessfully. J. D. Hicks informs the Hollidaysburg Leader that there are "over a hundred whiskey selling shops in Altoona." Mr. R. R. Thomas has moved out a vegetable store in connection with his grocery establishment, on High street. Fresh vegetables received from east and west daily. Patronize him. We are glad to learn that John Porter, of Hemlock, who has been quite late, has so far recovered as to be able to go about. Cecil R. Banks, of Hollidaysburg, has been appointed a second lieutenant in the regular army. More or less rain has fallen every day this month excepting three or four. Machine seems now to have returned, and farming and gardening have commenced.

THE POLITICAL SITUATION.—Dear Sir: Since the appointment of the day meeting of the Democratic Convention to nominate a county ticket, aspirants for office are springing up in that party in every direction. At present, the indications are that there will be one office for every one hundred askers. Many consider themselves called, but few few will be chosen. An important question here presents itself. Is cold, damp weather peculiarly favorable to the growth of candidates? On the other hand, does it require sunshine to develop to the fullest degree a crop? If the former, all right—the cold, damp weather has seemingly come to a close, and we may possibly be able to stand the present pressure. But if the return of sunshine will come a swarm of candidates, what then?—I ask the question through tears and with trembling—what then?

THE ALTOONA TRIBUNE.—A short time since asked us to show wherein the argument of Hon. L. W. Hall in favor of construing the Christian religion was fallacious. We endeavored to comply with its request; and, much to our astonishment, we appear to have found it open to conviction, for, in its last issue, it ventures not a word in defence of the attitude it had previously assumed.

A GENERAL VARIETY.—Some of our readers may not be aware of the fact that, in addition to his large stock of clocks, watches and jewelry, C. T. Roberts keeps a large and full assortment of notions, &c., constantly on hand.

NOTICE.—Mr. John Humphreys gives notice through our advertising columns that he will deliver "Figge's Horse Hay Fork and Pulley" on certain days at certain places.

THE LETTER OF OUR CHEST SPRINGS CORRESPONDENT came to hand too late for insertion this week.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS this week.

Do You?—Do you wish to purchase any description of dry goods, clothing, or groceries? If so, go to V. S. Barker's cheap cash store and examine the large stock which he keeps constantly on hand and which he offers at the most reasonable figures.

TO HOUSEKEEPERS.—We would call the attention of housekeepers to the fact that George Gurley keeps a large and well selected stock of groceries, notions, confectioneries, hardware, &c., which are being disposed of at most reasonable rates. Give him a call!

MAX. PAROLED.—It is officially announced that the Mexicans have granted Maximilian a parole, in order to allow him to come and purchase a new suit of ready-made clothing from the large assortment kept constantly on hand at J. M. Thompson's.

PERSONS who purpose attending Court next week, should bear in mind that a full and general assortment of summer clothing and dry goods, is kept at A. A. Barker's variety store, and before leaving town, should call and examine it.

ELEGANT CLOTHING.—Messrs. Mills & Davis are now offering at their store, on High street, a splendid stock of ready-made clothing, of all the latest styles. Their stock is manufactured to order and cannot be surpassed.

"Let not your heart be troubled," lady, fair; those tresses, the pride of your beauty, the honor and the ornament of your person, need not be taken from you by the "crushing hand of time"—nor need their raven glories, their auburn and golden beauties turn prematurely to the ashen hues that mark the period of dissolution—Barrett's Hair Restorative will give you back the lustre of your locks. "Let not your heart be troubled."

ITCH! ITCH! ITCH!—SCRATCH! SCRATCH! SCRATCH!—Wheaton's Ointment will cure the Itch in 48 Hours. Also cures Salt Rheum, Ulcers, Chilblains, and all Eruptions of the Skin. Price 50 cents. For sale by all Druggists. By sending 60 cents to WEEKS & POTTER, Sole Agents, 170 Washington street, Boston, Mass., it will be forwarded by mail, free of postage, to any part of the United States. January 24, 1867-6m*

HOME LIFE INSURANCE CO.—We direct attention to the card of this company, published in another column. Mr. Benj. E. Davis, the traveling agent of the Company, will visit Ebensburg in a few days, to pay to the executors of E. Shoemaker, deceased, the amount of a policy in the Home Company held by them on the life of the decedent, when he will call upon our citizens and present to their consideration the advantages of life insurance in all its various forms, and the peculiar claims upon the confidence of the public of the company he represents.

FIRE WORKS.—A little after dark on Friday night, six car loads of oil took fire as a train was going down the mountain near Kittanning Point, on the Penna. Railroad, and about two hundred barrels burned up. The flames illuminated the entire valley between the Alleghenies and Brush Mountain, and formed a most beautiful sight. The fire is supposed to have been communicated to the oil by a spark from the locomotive. About an eighth of a mile of the track was destroyed for the time being.

MAY PARTY.—The school of Miss Lizzie Roberts closed on Monday, and on Tuesday the pupils indulged in the luxury of a May party in Lloyd's Grove. We have the assurance of a number of the young 'uns that the occasion was a most pleasant one. In this connection, we beg to return our thanks to the school for a basket of sweet things which found their way into our possession through their kindness and thoughtful consideration.
