

A CURIOUS ANECDOTE.—M. Feynert gives his readers of the Paris Temps a curious anecdote in regard to the Day & Martin's blacking, which has been advertised throughout the world, and even on the Egyptian Pyramids:

One afternoon, Day, then a poor workman, was drinking his mug of half-and-half in a London ale-house, when a poor and ragged individual entered, and, addressing himself to those present, said—

"Who will give me a pint of ale for a good recipe for blacking?"

"I will," said Day, and he ordered the pint of ale for the new comer.

"Now let us have it," said he, and his new friend gave him the desired document.

"Good!" said Day; "now I will give you another pint," which the unknown drank and then took his leave.

The next morning Day sought one of his friends, a commercial traveler named Martin, and showed him the recipe. They made a quantity of the blacking, and filled all the old bottles they could obtain with the mixture.

This done, a friend of the partners went to all the grocers and blacking merchants of London, and addressed to each one the question, "Have you Day & Martin's blacking?"

And all the shopkeepers naturally enough answered "No."

The next day, another friend went the rounds, and to each merchant he propounded what his predecessor had done, and in each case he received the same answer.

The next day, another friend went to each merchant, but this time the question was, "Would you like to buy some of Day & Martin's blacking?"

All the merchants answered, "Willingly," and the fortune of the house of Day & Martin was made.

They adopted for their label the picture of a cat engaged in seeing his image reflected in the polished surface of a boot, as in a mirror, and this label has become world-famous. It only remains to be said that Day, on the occasion of his daughter's marriage, was enabled to give her as a wedding gift the nice little sum of two hundred thousand dollars.

A REMARKABLE CASE.—A correspondent last week writes as follows to the editor of the Meadville (Crawford county) Democrat: "The little boy of W. B. Pfeiffer, of whom you published the fact of his being drowned (some three weeks ago) in your last week's issue, has been found. The circumstances of the finding of his body are very remarkable. A young man, nephew to Esquire Rupert, of Woodcock borough, dreamed on Saturday night last, that he found the little boy at a particular spot in French creek; the dream being impressed upon his mind, he went next morning, Sabbath, to the spot where he had dreamed he found the body, and there, strange as it may appear, found little Edward. There is another remarkable incident or circumstance in the drowning of this little boy. When he was last seen, or when he left home, he had a stick in his hand. That same stick was found in his hand when his body was discovered."

JOHNSON'S RHEUMATIC COMPOUND!

No medicine for the cure of Rheumatism has ever attained to such a high degree of favor and universality as

JOHNSON'S RHEUMATIC COMPOUND. Although but one year before the public, this medicine has justly gained an unbounded popularity. When the originator first introduced it, he was convinced of its efficacy, but he little supposed it was destined to prove such an inestimable blessing to the afflicted. But "true merit" cannot be suppressed.—The attestation of hundreds who have been cured by its use, must prove the truth of the assertion,

"THAT IT IS A RADICAL CURATIVE" FOR INFLAMMATORY AND ACUTE RHEUMATISM, GOUT, NEURALGIA, AND KINDRED DISEASES.

We recommend it with confidence as THE GREAT INTERNAL REMEDY, For the Speedy and Positive Cure of the above Complaints.

Messrs. R. E. SELLERS & Co: This is to certify that for the last sixteen years I have been severely afflicted with rheumatism, often confined to my house, and even unable to walk. Being in the Postoffice, about two months ago, Mr. Clark observed my crippled condition, and urged me to try a bottle of "Johnson's Rheumatic Compound." I followed his advice and now, by the blessing of God, and the use of half a bottle of your "Compound," I am free from all symptoms of rheumatism, and can walk without the aid of my staff, as well as ever.

Every year thousands of children die from this horrible evil. This alarming mortality loudly calls for increased watchfulness, and greater care in the selection of the remedy.

LET PHYSICIANS SPEAK! SELLERS' VERMIFUGE THE BEST IN USE—HERE IS THE PROOF.

Licking Station, Ky., Dec. 14, 1845. Mr. R. E. SELLERS:—Your Vermifuge possesses more virtue than any I ever used. I will state a case where I gave one vial. My brother's child was pining and wasting to a mere skeleton. In thirty-six hours after I gave the Vermifuge, the enormous quantity of upward of six hundred worms were passed. The child that was given up for lost, is now as well as any in the neighborhood.

A CARD TO THE LADIES!—DR. DUPONCO'S GOLDEN PERIODICAL PILLS FOR FEMALES.

In correcting Irregularities, removing Obstructions of the Monthly Turns, from whatever cause, and always successful as a Preventive.

It is now over thirty years since the above celebrated Pills were discovered by Dr. Duponco, of Paris, during which time they have been extensively and successfully used in most of the public institutions—as well as in private practice—of both hemispheres, with unparalleled success in every case, and it is only at the "urgent request" of the thousands of ladies who have used them that I am induced to make the Pills public for the alleviation of those suffering from any irregularities whatever, as well as to prevent an increase of family where health will not permit it. Females peculiarly situated, or those supposing themselves so, are cautioned against using these Pills while in that condition, as the proprietor assumes no responsibility after the above admonition, although their mildness would prevent any mischief to health—otherwise the Pills are recommended.

ONE BOX IS SUFFICIENT. Full and explicit directions accompany each box, which must be strictly followed, and all diseases peculiar to females may be speedily cured. Price $1 per box; six boxes, $5. Sold by one druggist in every town, village, city and hamlet throughout the world.

A CARD.—WITNESS'S BRIDGES. Lancaster Tp. July 30, 1866. Messrs. Evans and Watson: Gentlemen. I purchased from your agency, Mr. A. B. r, in Lancaster City, on July 20, 1866, has been subjected to a very severe manner which it withstood in a most severe manner. This safe, containing all my papers together with valuable papers belonging myself and some to my neighbors and representing a value of over twenty thousand Dollars, ($20,000) was in my Mill was destroyed on the night of the 27th of July, 1866, and passed through the fire and fell to the basement of the Mill, and subjected for six hours to an intense heat among the ruins, which was greatly increased by the combustion of a large quantity of confined within the brick walls. After the fire the safe was opened and the contents taken out in a state of perfect preservation, the paper not even being discolored. The fact was, however, to many persons a better recommendation of your safe than could be expressed in any other words. Yours respectfully, SAMUEL HAST.
