

ALL NATIONS BUT ONE.—The day before the Cunard steamers arrive in port, being the last of the voyage, is one the passengers generally improve as an occasion for a sort of farewell and grand dinner, at which songs are sung, jokes cracked and speeches made, every one at the table being expected to contribute something to the entertainment. Upon a recent occasion it chanced that quite a large party of gentlemen, representing a great many nationalities, were celebrating the end of the voyage by proposing toasts.—Everything passed off pleasantly till at last an American, rising in turn, proposed: "Here's to all nations but one."

This, as may be supposed, created some sensation, each suspecting that his nation was the one referred to, and prepared to resent an indignity thus publicly offered. "Monsieur does not mean la belle France?" said a Frenchman, first breaking the silence that followed.

"Not at all; vive la France," said the Yankee, raising his goblet. "Senior's remarks do not apply to Spain?" said a dark mustached individual, interrogatively. "Certainly not; the health of Queen Isabella."

"Germany was always good friend of America," observed a pilgrim from Vaterland. "The best. I do not refer to her; nor Russia, whom we honor. A bumper to Russia," said he, as the blue eyes of a Muscovite lighted up with pleasure.

"Nor Austria," continued he, as a young man of that country fidgeted upon his seat. "Well, sir," said a sturdy John Bull, rising to his feet, "it is pretty obvious to me in what direction your sentiment is leveled, and as an Englishman, if it is intended to be an insult to England, I demand a proper apology, for I'll not sit here in sight of my native country and hear her insulted, least of all by a Yankee."

The Briton grew red in the face, and grasped a decanter; matters looked ominous, for the American rose promptly to his feet. "Spoken like a man," said he to the Englishman; "but England was not the nation I alluded to."

"Name—name—give us the name," cried the company, now thoroughly excited. "Certainly," said the American, "with this proviso, that the first one who meets the representative of that nation shall inform him of the slight."

"I gave to all nations but one; the nation that I excepted was—damnation!" John Bull sat down amid the universal shout of laughter that followed the announcement, with the not very charitable wish that the author of this sentiment might be well toasted by the representative of the nation he had slighted.

AN OUT-TRAVELED TRAVELER.—They have out at Atlanta a hotel keeper named Thompson, who is considered rather sharp at a joke, but he sometimes meets his match, as the following story goes to prove: A traveler called very late for his breakfast and the meal was hurriedly prepared. Thompson, feeling that the food was not quite up to the mark, made all sorts of apologies around the eater, who worked away in silence, never raising his head beyond the affirmative influence of his fork, or by any act even acknowledging the presence of mine host. This sulky demeanor rather vexed the landlord, who, changing the range of his battery, stuck his thumbs in his arm-holes and said:— "Now, mister, confound me if I haint made all the apologies necessary, and more, too, considering the breakfast and who gets it; and I tell you I have seen dirtier, worse looking, and a devil of a sight smaller breakfasts than this is several times!"

The wary, hungry one laid down his tool, swallowed the bite in transitu, and modestly looking up at the fuming landlord, exclaimed, "Is what you say true?" "Yes, sir." "Well, then, I'll be blamed if you haint out-traveled me!" said he.

BAD ENOUGH.—Not long since, an Irishman in New Jersey was on Sunday driving a horse with a wagon toward Easton, when he was met by a clergyman who was going to church. The clergyman took occasion to chide the traveler for his apparent breach of the Sabbath.

"My friend," said he, "this is a bad way you are in." "Och, honey!" said the Irishman, "an' isn't it the turkpie?" "Yes," replied the minister; "but what I mean is that you are in a bad state." "Be me sowl!" returned the Irishman, "and that's true enough, yer worship. It's a cussed bad state, and I'll get into Pennsylvania as soon as I can. Get up, old beeswax!"

DIARY FOR AUGUST.—Sunday—day of rest; of course nothing can be done. Monday—being early in the week, don't be too precipitate in beginning anything. Tuesday—determine not to let the week go by without achieving something brilliant. Wednesday—resolve on vigorous measures for to-morrow. Thursday—mature yesterday's deliberations. Friday—rather too late in the week to do anything. Saturday—give yourself up to society, and consult friends (who know best) what is to be done next week.

A QUAKER gentleman, riding in a carriage with a fashionable lady, who was decked with a profusion of jewelry, heard her complain of the cold. Shivering in her lace bonnet and shawl as light as a cobweb, she exclaimed: "What shall I do to get warm?" "I really don't know," replied the Quaker, solemnly, "unless thou should put on another breastpin!"

HARTFORD LIVE STOCK INSURANCE COMPANY. CASH CAPITAL.....$500,000. We are now prepared to insure Live Stock against both Death and Theft in this live and reliable Company. Owners of Stock have now the opportunity, by insuring with this Company, of obtaining security and remuneration for the loss of their Animals in case of Death or Theft.

OWNERS OF HORSES. Manufacturers, Expressmen, Teamsters, Physicians, and in fact all who are to any extent dependent upon the services of their Horses in their daily avocations, should insure in this Company, and thus derive a protection against the pecuniary damage they would sustain in the loss of their Animals, which are in many cases the sole means of support of their owners.

FARM STOCK. Farmers and others owning Cattle should avail themselves of this means of saving the value of their Stock, and secure an equivalent for the loss which would otherwise fall heavily upon them in being deprived of their Cattle by insuring in this Company—the Pioneer Company of America. By insuring in this Company, you exchange AN UNCERTAINTY FOR A CERTAINTY! No man can tell whether his Animal may be stolen or die, through some unforeseen calamity.

A CARD TO THE LADIES!—DR. DUPONCO'S GOLDEN PERIODICAL PILLS FOR FEMALES. In correcting Irregularities, removing Obstructions of the Monthly Turns, from whatever cause, and always successful as a Preventive. It is now over thirty years since the above celebrated Pills were discovered by Dr. Duponco, of Paris, during which time they have been extensively and successfully used in most of the public institutions—as well as in private practice—of both hemispheres, with unparalleled success in every case, and it is only at the "urgent request" of the thousands of ladies who have used them that I am induced to make the Pills public for the alleviation of those suffering from any irregularities whatever, as well as to prevent an increase of family where health will not permit it. Females peculiarly situated, or those supposing themselves so, are cautioned against using these Pills while in that condition, as the proprietor assumes no responsibility after the above admission, although their mildness would prevent any mischief to health—otherwise the Pills are recommended. ONE BOX IS SUFFICIENT.

Full and explicit directions accompany each box, which must be strictly followed, and all diseases peculiar to females may be speedily cured. Price $1 per box; six boxes, $5. Sold by one druggist in every town, village, city and hamlet throughout the world. Sold in Ebensburg, Pa., by R. J. LLOYD, Druggist.

Ladies, by sending him $1 to the Ebensburg P. O., can have the Pills sent (confidentially) by mail to any part of the country, free of postage. Sold also by Roush & Taylor, Altoona; Johnson, Holloway & Cowden, Phila; Demas Barnes & Co., New York; E. D. Howe, Sole Proprietor, New York. [ap11-ly]

A CARD.—WIMBOR, BRIDGE, LANCASTER TP. July 20, 1867. Messrs. EVANS & WATSON'S Grocers. The small size No. 1 Salamander brand which I purchased from your agent, Mr. A. B. Barr, in Lancaster City, on July 20th, 1867, has been subjected to a very severe test which it withstood in a most satisfactory manner. This Safe, containing all my business together with valuable papers belonging to myself and some to my neighbors and friends, and representing a value of over Twenty Three hundred Dollars ($23,000) was in the mill which was destroyed on the night of the 23rd of July, 1867, and passed through the fire unscathed. The Safe was on the second story and fell to the basement of the Mill, and subjected for six hours to an intense heat among the ruins, which was greatly increased by the combustion of a large quantity of confined within the brick walls. After the fire the safe was opened and the contents papers taken out in a state of perfect preservation, the paper not even being discolored. This fact was, however, to many business a better recommendation of your Safes than could be expressed in any other words.

Yours Respectfully, SAMUEL RANG. A large assortment of the above quality of Fire and Theft Proof Safes always on hand and for sale at low rates as usual at our firm. AT EVANS & WATSON'S, No. 16 South Fourth St., Philadelphia.
