New Book -" Beyond the Mississippi," complete history of the new States and mitones, from the Great River to the reat Ocean, by Albert D. Richardson, is the National Publishing Company, malists and writers. No other man traveled over so much of our vast ern domains, and we know of no one can so well describe what he has He is always interesting, generally ing, and, better still, invariably ful. The volume is accompanied by lecurate and minute map of the entire beyond the Mississippi, and is eleprinted and profusely illustrated engravings from original photographs sketches. It is a credit, both to serican art and authorship, and is not the most valuable work from Mr. chardson's pen, but by far the best and ost complete history of the great West er issued. It will be sold only by sub-e published.

DISTINGUISHED VISITORS .- On Satlay morning last, Governor Geary, empanied by Secretary Jordan, visited sasburg, and remained throughout the The distinguished gentlemen put the Mountain House, where they visited by large numbers of our citwithout distinction of party. The ernor formerly resided in this county, appeared to be entirely "at home" g old friends and old associations.

VORACITY AND CURIOSITY .- The astown Tribune tells of a man in enty-two hundred and twenty-eight erries, stones and all, and adds that a aful count of the number of cherries Juart shows that he must have eaten at two gallons of that fruit. Both the who ate the cherries and the one who we the "careful count" still survive.

A FEARFUL INCIDENT .- A WOMEN whose name we have forgotten, lies, or lately did lie, very sick at Hemlock, this county. A few days ago, in the daytime, the watchers, returning to the room after a temporary absence, were horrified to find a huge snake coiled on the pillow of the sick woman, and very near her head. The woman was asleep. What to do, was the question of terrible import recommended to the watchers. The woman was weak from illness, and any sudden excitement would surely kill her. It was therefore thought unsafe to attack the snake while she was asleep, because an excitement would thereby be communicated to her system which might prove fatal while, for a like reason, it was thought equally unsafe to wake her up to a realization of the danger menacing her. The question, in all its terrible bearings, was discussed by the watchers in a moment, while their blood ran cold, and it was decided to maintain, like M'Clellan before Manassas, a masterly inactivity. If the woman remained asleep and motionless, she might escape. There was a chance that the reptile might withdraw, without doing any harm. After a few minutes, which seemed like hours to the lookersfirst, the Mountains were victorious; on, the slimy thing moved-first one fold, then another-it slid from the bed to the floor-it crawled rapidly though the room and hall, and out into the garden. It was then killed. The woman slept calmly throughout the trying scene, and was spared an experience the mere recital whereof is enough to blench the cheek and cause the blood to curdle.

BASE BALL .- An interesting game of base ball was played here on last Saturday afternoon, between the married and the single nine of the Mountaineers. The game was closely contested throughout, and was a creditable display of batting and fielding on either side. After a play of two hours and a half, victory perched on the banners of the single nine-as will be seen by the following score: Hutchicson, 1b... 4 3 Jones, c........... 4 3

Of all the good fellows in the world, ewspapers in this State in which the Dunnegan is the best, and it is a pleasure blic acts and resolutions of Congress to us to wish him well. May he be hapall public foreign treaties entered py! May he live a hundred years and and ratified by the United States are be happy all the time! May he and his be happy ever, and prosperous as happy. Give's your hand!

Welcome !- Our young printer friend Ed. James, who is a graduate of The Alleghanian office, and who removed hence title of a handsome volume just issued to Ohio about a year ago, has come back among us on a visit. In his western Minor street, Phila. The author is home, he is one of three editors and proknown as one of our most brilliant | prietors of an excellent weekly paper, the Cardington Republican. We are glad to know he is doing well in business, and hope his stay here may be both long and pleasant.

> PAINTING, &c .- For a specimen of superior painting, graining, paper hanging, &c., the reader should take a look outside and inside at Mr. P. Collins' new house, immediately below the Mountain House. The work was executed by Mr. T. Sharretts Dysart, one of the best painters in the State.

> Poor House Steward .- It is current report that Mr. James J. Kaylor, for several years past Steward of our County Poor House, has resigned that position, and that the Board of Directors have accepted his resignation.

M. B. B. C .- A stated meeting of the Mountaineer Base Ball Club will be held in the Court House, Ebensburg, Friday evening, 9th instant, at 8 o'clock. A full attendance is requested. By order of the President.

HISTORY OF THE PENNA. RESERVE CORPS.—This interesting book has just been published, and subscriptions will be received by Mr. Silas H. Davis, the agent for this place. It contains a complete record of the organization of the different companies, regiments and brigades; descriptions of marches, aland township who lately swallowed skirmishes and battles, together with biographical sketches of officers, and personal record of each man during his term of service; and in fact, it contains a minute description of every movement of this famous organization from the time it entered the service until it was mustered out. The history is well printed, contains 724 pages, and should find p. m.

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE. LETTER FROM JOHNSTOWN-INTERESTING BUD-GET OF NEWS FROM THE SOUTHERN END. JOHNSTOWN, Aug. 5, 1867.

To the Editor of The Alleghanian: Picnics are the order of the day here. The Turner Society celebrated their first anniversary on Wednesday, 31st ultimo, by a picnic at Luenan's grove, on which occasion they were presented with a beautiful flag, valued at $200, by their lady friends. One side of the flag represented our National colors, the Stars and Stripes; the other was red, black, and gilt, representing the colors of the German Republic. The Kiskiminetas Tribe of Red Men No. 66 held a grand picnic on Saturday, 3d instant, at Woodvale grove. The affair proved an entire success.

A parcel of "drunks" enjoyed themselves in a free fight at the Franklin House last Saturday. They smashed things promiscuously for a time, when our Burgess happened along and arrested two of the principals, whom he permitted to cool down in the stone jug. The next morning, they paid for their accommodations to the tune of $12.

A special election was held here on the 29th ult., to fill vacancies in the borough Council. The following persons were elected: Second Ward, A. J. Hawes; Fourth Ward, George Carroll, Airwine Metz; Fifth Ward, Alexander Kennedy, John Everhart.

Married, by Rev. Mr. Brown, Tuesday, July 30th, Mr. Peter Confer, of Conemaugh, to Miss Cecile Koon, of Johns-

Died, at the residence of her parents, in Indiana county, Saturday, 3d instant, Eliza, daughter of our former townsman, James Downey, aged 14 years.

Wn. Aschom, of this place, met with a painful accident on the 30th ultimo by having a pick drove through one of his hands.

BRIGHAM IN TROUBLE. - Advices from Utah indicate that an irrepressible discord has broken out among the saints, and that the problem of Mormonism will soon solve itself. We also have late advices from V. S. Barker's cheap cash store, which state that he is disposing of his large stock of goods at unusually low prices.

SPECULATION.-Late reports have it that John Morrisey made $200,000 last week by speculating in stocks in New York city .-Any of our readers wishing to enter into a speculation, should go to J. M. Thompson's and purchase a bill of goods from the large selection he keeps on hand.

LITERATURE .- Persons who wish to procure reading matter, either fictitious or historical, should go and examine the large collection which C. T. Roberts has now on hand. He has just received full setts of Dickens' and Scott's novels.

DURING the recent session of Congress many bills of importance were passed by the members thereof. But the most important bills of the day, however, are those charged for the cheap goods now offered for sale at A. A. Barker's, Ebensburg.

Go to Mills & Davis' for your dry goods, ready-made clothing, groceries, hardware, &c., &c. They are determined to undersell all competitors. "Quick sales and small profits" is their motto. Go and see them, at their store on High street.

"He hath a daily beauty in his life, That makes me ugly."

"His beauty consists principally in his fine head of hair. My features and form are as good as his, but the unfortunate premature greyness of mine and the early tendency to baldness have made me ugly.' A thorough course of toilet treatment with Barrett's Hair Restorative would have prevented such a misfortune. No person has a right to be any uglier than nature makes him.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Jan. 15, '67. MESSES. WARDWELL & CLARK, Genl. Agents Hartford Live Stock Insurance Co. Gentlemen :- I wish to acknowledge the receipt of $200 for loss of my horse "Char-coal," one of my stock of 50 horses insured in your Company. This horse was accidentally killed on the 28th ult., and I thank you for the prompt payment of my claim. I am convinced of the value and certainty of the insurance which I have effected.
