

CONSEQUENCES OF WEARING A NEW HAT.—The following queer story is copied from the correspondence of the Chicago Tribune:

Let me relate an adventure that an honest Frenchman from the rural districts had not many days since. About three weeks ago a well-dressed gentleman, speaking French with a decidedly English accent, entered a hatmaker's shop on the old Boulevards, and left an order for six stiff-brimmed hats. He wanted them made alike—a model of a peculiar shape, which he brought with him, and to be trimmed with a ribbon of a certain color. He left a separate measure for each. The order was called for by the stranger.—The hatmaker, thinking that the hats were a fashion just out in London and that there might be a demand of the same sort, had manufactured two additional ones. These he placed in the show case which he had at the exposition, duly labeled, "the latest English style."

Well, the honest Gallic countryman referred to, who had come to Paris with his spouse to see the wonders of the Champ de Mars, happened to pass the window, saw the hats in the show-case, and taking a fancy to them, bought one on the spot. The next day, while again sauntering through the Palace with his better half, adorned with his new headgear, an unknown individual suddenly rubbed against him, whispered some unintelligible words in his ear, and then rapidly passed on.—The Frenchman did not know what to make of it, but finally came to the conclusion that the stranger had made a mistake, and continued his walk. After a while he felt like giving his nose the habitual tickle with a dose of snuff, and put his hand in his outer pocket for his box. To his astonishment he felt another object besides the latter. He pulled it out, and lo! he beheld a fine gold watch and chain. Puzzled beyond measure at the discovery, he made for a policeman whom he noticed near by, and told him his adventure.—The latter smiled significantly, told him that he thought he understood the case, and invited him to go to the police headquarters in the periphery of the Palace. On entering the room of the "Commissaire," the first person he saw was the individual that had accosted him so unceremoniously a few minutes before, wearing, as he now observed, an exact counterpart to his hat. The "Commissaire" soon solved the mystery for him. The fellow with the fac simile hat was a member of a band of English pickpockets who had adopted the peculiar style of head cover for better mutual recognition.—Seeing the Frenchman's hat, but not his face, he thought he was one of the band, and slipped the watch he had just stolen into his pocket for safe-keeping. A few minutes later he was caught in the act of trying to steal another watch, and immediately conducted to the "Commissaire's" office. The Frenchman lost no time in going home and ridding himself of his hat.

BASE BALL has been carried over to the Sandwich Islands. A game was some time since played between two lines, composed of natives, during which some very queer antics were indulged in, so it is said. A player finding it impossible to reach his base, was determined not to be put out, and started up the town at full speed, closely followed by the baseman.—The latter, after a short chase, finding himself falling behind, mounted a horse near by, and thus overtook the player.—After this little deviation from the rules, they returned to the grounds, and the game went on as before.

A CARD TO THE LADIES!—

DR. DUPONCO'S GOLDEN PERIODICAL PILLS FOR FEMALES. In correcting irregularities, removing Obstructions of the Monthly Purges, from whatever cause, and always successful as a Preventive. It is now over thirty years since the above celebrated Pills were discovered by Dr. Duponco, of Paris, during which time they have been extensively and successfully used in most of the public institutions—as well as in private practice—of both hemispheres, with unparalleled success in every case, and it is only at the "urgent request" of the thousands of ladies who have used them that he is induced to make the Pills public for the alleviation of those suffering from any irregularities whatever, as well as to prevent an increase of family where health will not permit it. Females peculiarly situated, or those supposing themselves so, are cautioned against using these Pills while in that condition, as the proprietor assumes no responsibility after the above admonition, although their mildness would prevent any mischief to health—otherwise the Pills are recommended. ONE BOX IS SUFFICIENT. Full and explicit directions accompany each box, which must be strictly followed, and all diseases peculiar to females may be speedily cured. Price $1 per box; six boxes, $5. Sold by one druggist in every town, village, city and hamlet throughout the world. Sold in Ebensburg, Pa., by W. J. LLOYD, Druggist. Ladies, by sending him $1 to the Ebensburg P. O., can have the Pills sent (confidentially) by mail to any part of the country, free of postage. Sold also by Roush & Taylor, Altoona; Johnson, Holloway & Cowden, Phila.; Demas Barnes & Co., New York; S. D. Howe, Sole Proprietor, New York. [ap11-ly

A CARD.—

WITMER'S BRIDGE, Lancaster Tp. July 30, 1860. MESSRS. EVANS AND WATSON: GENTLEMEN.—The small size No. 1 Salamander safe which I purchased from your agent, Mr. Adam R. Hartz, in Lancaster City, on July 20th, 1858, has been subjected to a very severe test, which it withstood in a most satisfactory manner. This safe, containing all my books, together with valuable papers belonging to myself and some to my neighbors and friends, and representing a value of over Twenty Thousand Dollars, ($20,000) was in my Mill which was destroyed on the night of the 27th of July, 1860, and passed through the fiery ordeal unscathed. The safe was on the second floor and fell to the basement of the Mill, and was subjected for six hours to an intense heat among the ruins, which was greatly increased by the combustion of a large quantity of grain confined within the brick walls. After the fire the safe was opened and the books and papers taken out in a state of perfect preservation, the paper not even being discolored. This fact was, however, to many bystanders a better recommendation of your safe than could be expressed in any other words from me. Yours Respectfully, SAMUEL RANCK. [jan24]
