Capt. FRANCIS M. FLANAGAN, White. JURY COMMISSIONER. JAMES COOPER, Taylor township. POOR HOUSE DIRECTOR. Sergt. JOHN S. OGDEN, Johnstown. AUDITORS. JOHN VAN SCOYOC, White, 3 years. CHARLES BUXTON, Jackson, 1 year. CLERK. Capt. GEO. B. STINEMAN, Richland.

Keep it Before the People!

The following is an extract from Judge Sharswood's opinion in the case of Borie vs. Trott:

"On the whole, then, I am of opinion that the provision of the act of Congress of February 25th, 1862, declaring the notes issued in pursuance of the act to be lawful money, and a legal tender, is unconstitutional. This renders it unnecessary that I should consider the other question which has been made, as to the effect of the special agreement to pay in lawful silver money of the United States. I am in favor of entering judgment for the plaintiff, but as a majority of the court are of a different opinion, judgment for the defendant."—Copied from the Philadelphia Age of 23d of February, 1864, where the opinion is published in full.

It may also be found in the Legal Intelligencer of March 18, 1864, page 92.

In the same copy of the Age is a carefully prepared copy of the Judge and this opinion, in which is the following:

"Judge Sharswood reasons upon and decides the case as if he were some lofty spirit sitting far above and out of the contentions and strifes of the world."

Will not the holders of greenbacks and Government bonds consider the Judge as quite too elevated and ethereal for such earthly honors as a seat on the Supreme Bench?

Those "Gains."

Time was when the only consolation open to a Republican, about the time the election returns were forwarded from point to point, was to cipher out the gains. Of late years, however, all the elections in the Northern States have been so overwhelmingly Republican and the Democracy so confounded at the results that they could not so much as apply themselves to gain-counting. They could only cry out, like the elfin page in Scott's Lay of the Last Minstrel, "lost! lost! lost!" Since the result of the elections this fall in two or three of the States has been announced, they have set up a wonderfully jubilant cry, as though even the Japanese were about to become Democrats. The chief cause of all this is the result of the late election in California, and the next the result of that in Maine. Were due attention paid to the causes that have given a temporary triumph to our opponents in California and produced a reduction of our majority in Maine, there would be no room for boasting.

The election of the Democratic candidate for Governor of California was secured through the agency of Republicans, for the purpose of rebuking a clique and a nominee whom the people considered corrupt; and to this end, many Republicans voted for the Democratic candidate, who was an ardent advocate of the late war against the rebellion. So long ago as the middle of last June, the triumph of the Democrats was plainly foreshadowed through Republican sources. A dispatch under date of June 16th to the New York Tribune clearly declared the triumph of the Democracy through the determination of many Republicans not to be controlled by the faction that made the nominations.

In Maine, our majority is reduced, not because the people are going over to A. Johnson and his supporters, but because the Legislature of that State passed at its last session a prohibitory liquor law so stringent as even to proscribe the use as a beverage of cider. The main question in the canvass was, whether this law would or would not be sustained.

In Massachusetts, a question similar to that in Maine has been and is still undergoing discussion. All prominent Democrats and some Republicans are advocating a license law in regard to the sale of liquor, while the mass of those voting the Republican ticket are in favor of total prohibition. We by no means doubt the election by Massachusetts of the Republican candidates, but we venture to assert that their average majorities will be considerably reduced. So in Ohio, the issue being whether the seven thousand or more negroes of that State shall be enfranchised or not, there is but little doubt that our majority will be less than formerly.

What Democrats have to boast of in the incidental benefit which they derive from these resic conditions of affairs is not of a permanent nature, nor worth half the exultation which they display.

A Sectional Party.

Whoever wishes to vote for a sectional party will vote the Democratic ticket.—That ticket is sectional in the truest, strictest sense of the word. The Democratic party, judging it by the acts and words of its acknowledged leaders, has to-day no existence as a national party, nor has it any claim to be called such.—It is emphatically a party of sections, having in the different sections of the country different policies, adapted to the prejudices of each section. It is the party that, outside of New England, habitually ridicules and defames that section, and ascribes to it the chief responsibility for the nation's troubles, and more than intimates the presence of that section in the Union as the prime cause of disturbance in our country. It excites, whenever it is possible so to do, the hatred of the unlearned and the ingenious against the sons of New England, and uses the name "Puritan" (than which there are few nobler to be found) as a synonym of meanness, hypocrisy, and lust.

The Democratic party is the sectional party of the country, because it nominates a well known State rights Calhoun Democrat for the highest judicial position in the gift of the State; because while now pretending to have been in favor of the war for the Union, it makes the National debt and the National taxes a by-word and reproach upon Republicanism, altho' the National debt and taxes were as necessary to carrying on the war for the Union as was the steadiness of our people, the skill of our Generals, or the valor of our soldiers. It is the sectional party, because, while in Pennsylvania it opposes negro suffrage, in the Southern States it invites negroes into its conventions, solicits their votes, and upholds an apostate President who has recently wanted a negro to become the Chief of the Freedmen's Bureau!

Sharswood on Legal Tenders.

"In the case of Borie against Trott, Judge Sharswood decided that a man who agreed to pay a debt in gold should pay it in gold. Was not this right? He did not decide the question of the power of Congress."

The foregoing paragraph, copied from the Philadelphia Age, and published in all the Democratic papers of the State, is very adroitly and not very honestly written. It is true that Judge Sharswood did decide what the paragraph states, and did not decide the power of Congress, but only gave his opinion in regard to it.—Judge Sharswood, at perhaps the most critical period ever experienced by his country, did not choose to content himself in this case of Borie against Trott with simply deciding the point at issue, but argued and declared as his opinion that the act authorizing the government to issue greenbacks and to make them a legal tender is unconstitutional, and made that opinion the basis of his decision.—There were other grounds, as the Judge himself plainly intimates, on which the decision could have rested, but at that most critical time, when the goodness of the government currency was identical with our success over the rebellion, Judge Sharswood chose to declare as the basis of his decision the unconstitutionality of the legal tender act.

WHAT do those Democrats of New England who have made their homes in Pennsylvania think of the Democratic reproaches cast upon our candidate, Judge Williams, because he was born in Connecticut? What do they think of the usual slang cast at New England and her sons, (and which forms part of the stock in trade of nearly every Democrat outside of New England,) whenever an opportunity occurs or can be manufactured? Do they join in this upbraiding of their brethren and of their native States? Are they going to indorse these calumnies by continuing to vote the Democratic ticket?

You hold a 5-20 or a 10-40 bond, the interest is payable in gold. The Government agreed to pay you in gold. The Radicals and their Judges say the Government may pay in paper. Judge Sharswood holds that a contract to pay in gold should be enforced. Which best suits you? Which is the more honest?—Democratic paper.

The proposition to pay the interest on our bonds in paper is a Democratic proposition, originating with Hon. G. H. Pendleton, late Democratic candidate for Vice President, and is warmly supported by such Democratic papers as the Pittsburg Post.

GALLANT PHIL SHERIDAN, summoned from Leavenworth to Washington last week by General Grant, met with an ovation at every point at which he stopped on his route. President Johnson, traveling the same road, would meet only the heartiest scorn and contempt.

BE ASSESSED! See to it, Republicans, that you are assessed on or before next Saturday, 28th instant. Let not a single vote be lost to our cause through neglect of this duty.

Calhounism.

We publish on our outside to-day, as matter of news, the election proclamation of the Sheriff of Cambria county. It will be noticed that that functionary, in imitation of the efforts of John C. Calhoun in a somewhat similar direction, has deliberately nullified the supplement to our election laws disfranchising deserters, and has omitted it from his proclamation. The Sheriff may be a very good Sheriff, and is beyond controversy an able Democrat, but we submit that he is not the Supreme Court, nor a Judge thereof, neither is he above the law. He is not empowered to pass upon the constitutionality of a law, and to accept or reject it at pleasure. His sole duty consists in executing such laws as he may find upon the statute-book, and executing them just as he finds them. Above and beyond this, he is mercifully required not to go.—With a view to the proper informing of the several election boards throughout the county, we subjoin the supplement omitted by the Sheriff:

A further supplement to the Election Laws of this Commonwealth. Whereas, By the act of the Congress of the United States, entitled "An act to amend the several acts heretofore passed to provide for the enrolling and calling out the National forces, and for other purposes," and approved March 2d, 1865, all persons who have deserted the military or naval service of the United States, and who have not been discharged or relieved from the penalty or disability therein provided, are deemed and taken to have voluntarily relinquished and forfeited their rights of citizenship, and their rights to become citizens, and are deprived of exercising any rights of citizens thereof; And whereas, Persons not citizens of the United States are not, under the Constitution and laws of Pennsylvania, qualified electors of this Commonwealth;

Sec. 1. Be it enacted, &c., That in all elections hereafter to be held in this Commonwealth, it shall be unlawful for the judge or inspectors of any such election to receive any ballot or ballots from any person or persons embraced in the provisions and subject to the disability imposed by said act of Congress, approved March 2d, 1865, and it shall be unlawful for any such person to offer to vote any ballot or ballots.

Sec. 2. That if any such judge or inspectors of election, or any of them, shall receive, consent to receive, or any such unlawful ballot or ballots from any such disqualified person, he or they so offending shall be guilty of misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, in any court of quarter sessions of this Commonwealth, he shall, for each offence, be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than one hundred dollars, and to undergo an imprisonment in the jail of the proper county for not less than sixty days.

Sec. 3. That if any person deprived of citizenship, and disqualified as aforesaid, shall at any election hereafter to be held in this Commonwealth vote, or tender to the officers thereof, and offer to vote, a ballot or ballots, any person so offending shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, in any court of quarter sessions of this Commonwealth, shall, for each offence, be punished in like manner as is provided in the preceding section of this act, in the case of officers of election receiving such unlawful ballot or ballots.

Sec. 4. That if any person shall hereafter persuade or advise any person or persons, deprived of citizenship and disqualified as aforesaid, to offer any ballot or ballots to the officers of any election hereafter to be held in this Commonwealth, or shall persuade or advise any such officer to receive any ballot or ballots from any person deprived of citizenship and disqualified as aforesaid, such person so offending shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, in any court of quarter sessions of this Commonwealth, shall be punished in like manner as is provided in the second section of this act, in the case of officers of election receiving such unlawful ballot or ballots.

SOLDIERS! Do not forget that when the bill giving you the right to vote in the field was before the State Senate, Senator Wallace, now Chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee, said: "I vote against this bill from principle. A voter disfranchises himself and ceases to be a citizen when he takes upon himself the duties of a soldier." Soldiers! remember that 106,000 Democratic votes were cast in this State against the constitutional amendment conferring the right of franchise upon you. Remember this on election day!

MONTANA is ruled and peopled principally by late rebels. At its last election, it went Democratic by a thousand majority. A correspondent writing from there says that blue fire bursts out in many places from the surface of the ground, and because thereof it is popularly termed Hell. Democracy looking toward Montana for majorities, is naturally casting its eye homeward.

The proposition advanced by Geo. H. Pendleton, and supported by many Democratic papers, as well as by Gen. Butler, for the government to pay the interest of its notes in paper money, and thereby break its promise to pay in gold, meets, as it will meet, with no encouragement from the people.

BLACKBURNE, the rebel fiend who proposed to introduce the yellow fever into the North by means of infected clothing, has been pardoned by the President.—Just in time to get home to vote the Democratic ticket at the election!

SIX of the Republican candidates in this county were soldiers in the late war. Soldier with a vote to cast, remember your old comrades on election day. Vote for Singleton, Ryckman, McDermit, Flanagan, and the rest.

The Antietam Celebration.

The late celebration at Antietam was an affair noticeable in more respects than one. It was noticeable chiefly not because of the living, but of the dead, and next because those who had the management of the affair were successful only in belittling it by their base endeavors to make it subserve party purposes. No other man occupying the Presidential chair than Andrew Johnson could have done as he did on that occasion. The great apostate, after alluding to the sleeping in peace in their graves of both rebel and Union dead, or, as he was wont to express himself, the "illustrious dead," the "brave men on both sides," seemed anxious to insult our dead and our living soldiers by his attempt to slight Pennsylvania's Governor. True, the insult recoiled on his own head, and from what he sowed as humiliation there sprang up honor. Governor Geary was one of the actors on the bloody field of Antietam, an actor on the side of the Union. He led, and bravely led, some of the soldiers of our State during the carnage of that conflict; so that, if any man, either an invited guest or an active participator in the celebration, had a valid claim to respect, it was Governor Geary. He was the representative of Pennsylvania, and of the soldiers of Pennsylvania, not only of those who to-day live to rebuke and resist the perfidy of Andrew Johnson, but of those who sleep beneath the soil of Antietam; and when Andrew Johnson offered his insult to our Governor, he no less offered it to our living and dead soldiers. It was evidently in this light that the people present at the dedication ceremonies beheld his action. They cared nothing for the President. He is lower than Buchanan ever got or could get. Buchanan towards the close of his administration was contemned by the people, but Johnson has sunk beneath their contempt.—The wrath of the people on that occasion, and their vindication of all that was represented in and by Governor Geary, fitly foreshadows the greater rebuke that he will receive at their hands in the coming October elections.

The New York Tribune, in an article on the Pennsylvania election, tenders the following sound advice: "Until their unexpected success in California, the Democrats had no hope of carrying Pennsylvania; but since that event, they have mustered courage and are growing quite confident. It is certain that they will poll a heavy vote, and we warn our friends to prepare for a hard fight. They can win by twenty thousand majority if they do their duty; but to do this—in fact, to win at all—the vote must be got out. So far, the canvass has been tame. Let our friends wake up! The gain of Pennsylvania would give the Democracy substantial cause for hope in the next Presidential contest; and should it be carried with a half disguised repudiator at the head of the successful ticket, the damage to the public credit would be deplorable. There are not quite two weeks of working time left, but a great deal may be done in that period. While we have no fears of the result, we repeat the suggestion that it will require hard work and constant vigilance to secure the victory which is clearly our due."

The election tickets are printed in one slip, but in two sections. The first section is headed "Judiciary Ticket," with the name of the candidate for Supreme Judge only; the second section is headed "County Ticket," with the names of the candidates for Assembly and the county offices to be voted for. The ticket is cut apart before being voted, and is deposited by the election board in boxes labelled respectively "Judiciary" and "County."

The Democracy will now have a splendid opportunity to crow out of the other side of their mouths. After all their fuss, and parade, and self-satisfied felicitations, it appears that the Republicans have a majority of two on joint ballot in the California Legislature. The election of a Republican United States Senator in the Golden State may therefore be looked upon as an accomplished fact.

The Republicans of Cambria county will not do their full duty at the election unless they cast at least 2,600 votes for their candidate for Supreme Judge. Get out the full vote! The success of the great and eternal principles at stake must not be imperiled through supineness or neglect.

The men who denounced the war for the Union, and declared that the South ought not to be and could not be "subjugated," will vote the Democratic ticket straight on election day. Will you?

TICKETS! The Republican election tickets for the north of this county will be ready for distribution from this office the beginning of next week.
