

The Alleghanian.
THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 26.
LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

EBENSBURG AND CRESSON RAILROAD.
On and after Monday, April 29, 1867, trains on this road will run as follows:
LEAVE EBENSBURG
At 6.05 A. M., connecting with Day Exp. East and Phil. Exp. West.
At 7.15 P. M., connecting with Phila. Exp. East and Mail Train West.
LEAVE CRESSON
At 9.25 A. M., on departure of Phil. Express West.
At 10.40 P. M., on departure of Phila. Express East.

APOLOGY.—The present number of The Alleghanian has been got out under a combination of peculiar difficulties. On last Thursday, the Publisher was prostrated by a dangerous illness, from which he is still suffering, necessitating our presence with him much of the time. As it happens, there is not a single unemployed printer in town, upon whom to fall back at this hour of need, so we have had, in preference, to "run the machine" unaided and alone, and do the best we could "between times." This will account for the late appearance of the paper. Much as we regret to say it, it will be simply impossible to issue a paper from this office next week.

MEMORANDA.—We notice by a late Leavenworth, Kansas, paper that our young friends Ernest D. Rhey and Chas. W. Dougherty, both formerly of Ebensburg, have bought out an extensive hat and fur establishment in the former city, with the intention of devoting their time and attention to that business hereafter. Success to them! A boy named Boyd attempted to jump on a heavily loaded wagon in Bolivar, Westmoreland county, the other day, but missed his footing and fell. One of the wheels of the wagon passed over his neck and head, killing him almost instantly. The school teachers of Indiana county, whose wages seem to not "fit easy," are talking of forming a protective union. A man named McKillop, of West Mahoning township, Indiana county, while harrowing in one of his fields, had one of the horses of his team struck by lightning and killed. The immortal J. N. was booked to deliver a speech at Altoona on Friday last. The paddlers of Hollidaysburg have struck for higher wages. They were getting seven dollars a ton, and want eight. The State fair was opened on Tuesday, at Pittsburg. Two cows were killed by the locomotive on our branch railroad within the last week. The examination of teachers for the Ebensburg schools, to have been held last Tuesday, was unavoidably and indefinitely postponed by reason of the non-appearance of the County Superintendent. A man, whose name we have not learned, was run over by a passenger train on Tuesday evening, a short distance east of Cresson, and was killed. The new Catholic church being erected in this place is progressing favorably. It will be put under roof before the snow comes. We are sorry that our friend and everybody's friend, A. J. Rhey, Esq., is lying at his home in this place, quite ill from a lung affection. We hope he may have a sure and speedy convalescence. A picnic was held at Carrolltown on Tuesday last, which is said to have been a most enjoyable affair. A social reunion of all persons connected with the old Portage Railroad, in whatever capacity, will be held at the hotel of Mr. James Riffel, on the Summit, next Tuesday, Oct. 1st. It will be a rare, and a very gathering. Mr. A. Hamman, of Lock Haven, was killed by a railroad collision on the Canandaigua branch of the Northern Central railway on the 18th instant. He was a brother of Mrs. F. A. Shoemaker, of Ebensburg.

WILLIAM KITTELL, son of our townsman, Wm. Kittell, Esq., departed for Rome on Sunday of last week, whether he goes as a student of the Propaganda. Ferdinand, another son of Mr. Kittell, is already a student in this institution. Thomas P. Paulon, Esq., formerly of Ebensburg but now of Leavenworth city, is chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee of Kansas. The Fenians of Hollidaysburg are going to have a grand picnic on the 5th prox. A young man named Wm. Water jumped on the train at Bell's Mills, Blair county, and rode a short distance, and then jumped off. In jumping his foot struck a stone and he fell, his head coming in contact with the ground with such force as to produce concussion of the brain, resulting in speedy death. The Huntingdon county fair, which commences on the 2d proximo, offers a premium for the best base ball club. Mr. Martin Gates, of Duncansville, Blair county, was severely wounded in the chest during the late war. He came home and was well. The other day, he extracted a large brass button from the wound. The button, which was flattened, had been driven into his body by the bullet, and he remained there fully three years.

BASE BALL.—Following is the score of a game of ball played between the Ionian club of Chest Springs and the Elm club of Loretto, at the latter place, on last Saturday:

MARRIED.—On the 5th inst., in Clayville, Pa., by the Rev. A. McCarrell, Mr. Robert Smith, Jr., of Blairsville, Pa., to Miss Susan D. Bancroft, of New Haven, Connecticut.
At St. Vincent's Abbey, Westmoreland county, on the 17th inst., by Rev. V. Lobmyer, Mr. Andrew Foster to Miss Barbara Geis, of Johnstown.

On the 12th ultimo, by Rev. J. W. Evans, Mr. Jos. W. Walker, of Schuylkill county, to Miss Matilda Wagner, of Blacklick township, Cambria county.
On the 18th ultimo, by the same, Mr. David Williams, of Cambria township, to Miss Eveline Reese, of Blacklick tp.

TAKEN TO THE PENITENTIARY.—The Pittsburg Chronicle says that Wm. Johnson, of Altoona, convicted of dealing in counterfeit money at the recent term of the U. S. District Court and sentenced to the penitentiary for a period of seven years, was taken to that institution last Thursday by the U. S. Marshal. Johnson is sixty-five years old. He was almost completely overcome, and wept bitterly upon entering the prison. Efforts are being made to secure a pardon for him, but with what measure of success is not known.

WHEATON'S OINTMENT.—Wheaton's Ointment is an old and well tried remedy, which keeps constantly increasing in popularity as its merits become known. It has been before the public for more than sixty years, and is universally acknowledged to be the most certain and speedy cure ever discovered for salt rheum, ulcers, chilblains, tetter, pimples, blotches, and all eruptions of the skin, while it is a sure cure for the itch, and will eradicate the most obstinate cases in forty-eight hours. See advertisement.

MAKE A NOTE OF IT.—Ebensburgers visiting Johnstown should not fail to pay a visit to the "Oak Hall Clothing Store" during their stay in the latter place. The best and most fashionable styles of ready-made clothing are sold there, and at prices considerably lower than those ruling in any other similar establishment in the county. The store is on Main st., in the busiest portion of town. E. Leopold & Bro. proprietors. Make a note of this, and give them a call.

DIED.—In White township, on the 15th instant, Mr. Benjamin Walters, son of Geo. Walters, Esq., aged 28 years.
In Pittsburg, on the 12th instant, Wm. E. Emerson, son of the late Dr. E. P. Emerson, of Blairsville, aged 39 years.

PITTSBURG MARKET.—T. C. Jenkins' latest circular gives the following quotations for flour:
Dayton Snow Flake, White Winter.....$11.50
Jenkins' Eclipse..... 11.50
Jenkins' Lilly Mills..... 10.75
Sears' best..... 10.50

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.
LETTER FROM LORETTO—DEDICATION OF A NEW CHAPEL—BURGLARIOUS ATTEMPT, &c.
LORETTO, Sept. 25, 1867.

To the Editor of The Alleghanian:
Notwithstanding the fact that our little village has been very quiet for several weeks, yet I have picked up a couple of items which may interest some of your readers.
Yesterday, the new chapel just finished by the Sisters of Mercy was dedicated. The Right Rev. Bishop Domec, of Pittsburg, and a number of priests from the neighboring parishes, were here, and participated in the ceremonies, which were solemn and imposing.
On last Wednesday night, a burglarious attempt was made on the convent of the Sisters of Mercy by a band of wandering scoundrels. At about half-past 8 o'clock in the evening, two very hard looking fellows, exhibiting revolvers, made their appearance at the door and demanded admittance, but were refused. They thereupon left, flourishing their weapons, and making use of violent threats. They were not seen again until about midnight, when they reappeared before the door, reinforced by five other fellows, and endeavored to break in. The doors and windows, however, proved to be too securely fastened, and the marauders went away as empty-handed as they came.

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.

LETTER FROM JOHNSTOWN—BASE BALL MATTERS—THE FIRST GUN OF THE CAMPAIGN—ACCIDENTS—VARIETY.
JOHNSTOWN, Sept. 23, 1867.

To the Editor of The Alleghanian:
An exciting game of base ball was played here on Friday last, between the Kickenapawlings and Junior Independents. At the beginning of the game, the impression was general that the Kicks would have things all their own way, but it proved a delusion, for at the close of the fifth inning the Juniors led the score five runs. Game was called at the end of the seventh inning, on account of the rain, which came down in torrents. The score stood a tie, 35 to 35.
The promised games between the Juniatas of Hollidaysburg and the Irons and Kicks of this place did not come off last week, owing to the failure of the Juniatas to come to time.
A large Republican meeting was held on the public square on Saturday. It was ably addressed by B. F. Lucas, Esq., of Pittsburg.
Pat. McDonald, whom I noticed some time ago as having been hurt in the mines here, still lies in a very critical condition. It is thought he cannot recover.
John Mauck, a driver for the wholesale firm of T. G. Stewart & Co., of this place, while lately on a visit to his home in Bedford county, was accidentally shot by a comrade while out gunning. The charge passed through his arm and side. He is doing as well as could be expected.
The man Hornick and wife, who were sent to the Western Penitentiary from this county some thirteen months ago, for robbery, have returned to their home in this place.
Proposals are advertised for the building of the stone work of the new Union Hall structure.
The Beethoven troupe of this place will give a vocal concert, comic and sentimental, on Monday evening, 30th instant, at the Presbyterian church. A rich treat is promised.
The firm of Rist & Kost, of this place, are becoming famous for the excellent quality of the article of lager beer manufactured by them. Your saloon keepers would do well to introduce it up there. I feel confident that it would take.

THOMAS ON THE UNDERSTANDING.—Mr. John D. Thomas, at his store on High street, has just received probably the largest and best appointed stock of ladies' boots and shoes ever brought to Ebensburg. The stock was made expressly to order, and each separate pair of shoes is warranted to be as represented—by far the best and most serviceable before the public. The ladies are requested to give him a call and take a look at the stock. They will be sure to be pleased.

BRANCHING OUT.—In order to make room for his largely increased business, C. T. Roberts, of the Ebensburg Jewelry Store, has lately built an extensive addition to his store-room. He says he thinks he can now accommodate all the customers that can pour in on him.

GAME.—Pigeons are said to be so plenty in the woods hereabout that you can shake a stick at them, while bargains are so plenty at A. A. Barker's mammoth store that you can get them for the asking. Go and see!

BEYOND DISPUTE.—It is beyond dispute that Mills & Davis' new store is the neatest and prettiest in town, and it is equally indisputable that the goods they sell are the best to be got in the market and their prices the cheapest.

CIGARS AND TOBACCO.—Do you, dear reader, smoke? Do you chew? If you are addicted to the use of the "vile weed" in any shape or form, go to Jim Thompson's to buy it. His stock of cigars is especially fine.

NICE THING.—The English, Welsh, and German languages are spoken, and spoken fluently, by the salesmen at V. S. Barker's store. Englishmen! Welshmen! Germans! go there to make your purchases!

A RELIEF.—An Ebensburger, attending the State Fair, had his pocket picked in Pittsburg on Thursday of $70.00.

RESIGNED.—Mr. J. Frank Condon has resigned the Superintendency of Common Schools of Cambria county.
