EBENSBURG AND CRESSON RAILROAD. _On and after Monday, Apl. 29, 1867, trains on this road will run as follows:

LEAVE EBENSBURG-At 6.05 A. M., connecting with Day Exp. East and Phil. Exp. West. At 7.15 P. M., connecting with Phila. Exp. East and Mail Train West. LEAVE CRESSON-

At 8.40 P. M., or on departure of Phila. MEMORANDA .- Nicholas Vandevinder was tried at the late Quarter Sessions of Indiana county for the murder of his sonin-law, John B. Bowers, and was acquitted on the ground of insanity. The jury were out twenty-six bours before arriving at a verdict ... They are talking of founding an academy at Altoona The half foot of dust covering our streets was successfully laid on Thursday night last by a heavy rain storm ... A little boy named Foust was instantly killed at Altoona a few days since by being run over by an engine. Judging from the number of faial accidents occurring in that place, He must be held by a very uncertain tenure there A catfish twenty inches in length and weighing sever pounds was caught on an outline at Lewistown a few nights since... A very important announcement is made in the closing paragraph of Mr. H. A. McCoy's advertisement, in today's paper. See it !... A young man named Cain, a resident of Huntingdon county, was lately killed on the Tyrone & Clearfield railroad by being run over by a freight train A man named William McHenry was killed in a coal bank near O-ceola, Clearfield county, on the 27th ultimo, by a slip of the coal....Probably some of our readers will remember a story, published in the papers a few months since, to the effect that one Hans Graff had died in Holland and left to his descendants, some of whom are said to live in this State, a fortune of $75,000,000. A late letter from the Minister to the addressed on the subject, conveys the information that the report, especially in so far as the fortune is concerned, is entirely groundless A man in Lewistown has in his possession an English Bible which was printed in 1634, 233 years ago A few days ago, a man, while standing in Woodberry township, Blair county, shot an eagle off a tree in Catharine township. The bird measured six feet one inch from tip to tip.... A man from the rural districts either lost his pocket book or had it stolen in this place on Friday last. It contained about $55 ... The Freeman, as a last eard before the election, stated that "last fall The Alleyhanian asserted that no man can be deprived of a vote because he is what is called a deserter." The election is now over, but it is still probably not too late to say that the foregoing statement, like a great many other statements emanating from the same source, is not true.... Henry R. Shaffer, of Conemaugh township, was substituted on the Democratic county ticket as a candidate for Auditor, in place of Mr. Allen, who truly artistical, and their selections exceldeclined to run Argument Court met in this place on Wednesday of last week, and coctinued in session one day Mr. Jacob Nagle, of Clearfield township, had one of his legs fractured in two places on Sunday week by a horse which he was riding breaking through a bridge ... The State Fair at Pittsburg was largely attended Mr. Thomas J. Chapman has

But Governor Geary wasn't there We are requested to announce that the winter session of the public schools of Ebensburg will begin on next Monday, 14th instant ... We are glad to notice that our friend Jack Rhey has so far recovered from his late illness as to be able to be around again ... On the eve of the late election, a slanderous circular was distributed throughout the county, villifying and abusing in outrageous terms certain candidates for office and their especial political friends. The time hagone by for this species of electioneering. The people are no longer led by appeals practically useless, this circular was slanderous and disgraceful, and we hope never to see its like again....There was never a

Since the reconstruction of the Board of Directors by the election of Mr. Thomas in the stead of Mr. Orris, it is not improbable that the foregoing appointments will be-reconsidered.

A CHALLENGE.-The following challenge appears in last week's issue of the New York Clipper:

can beat any working man in a one or two hundred vards race, and not knowing his ad-Hague, to whom letters of inquiry were dress, I write to say that I will back a man who works hard every day to run David Davis (I believe that's the name) of Johnstown, Pa., a race of one or two hundred yards for $200 or $300, to run in two weeks from the first deposit. An answer through the Clipper, or by mail, to Thos. Evans, Lochie! Iron Works, Pa., will be promptly attended to .-If this is not accepted, any other working man in the same place can have the same

THE BEETHOVEN TROUPE .- On Sat urday evening last, the Beethoven troupe of Johnstown gave a musical entertainment in this place. Their singing was lent. They were listened to with delight by a full house. On Monday the troupe sang at Carrolltown, on Tuesday at St. Augustine, on Wednesday at Loretto, and to-night they will again sing here. Let them be greeted by a full house.

BEAR IT IN MIND. - Messrs. E. Leopold & Brother, at their store, on Main street, Johnstown, are constantly receiving new and fashionable clothing for men and boys. They have now in store a very large stock of excellent coats, pantaloons, vests, shirts, drawers, and gents' furnishing goods. They sell very low. Ebensburghers visiting Johnstown should give them a call.

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE. ACCIDENT TO DR. S. S. CHRISTY-A SLIGHT

JOKE-BASE BALL, &C. LORETTO, Oct. 7, 1867.

To the Editor of The Alleghanian: Dr. S. S. Christy, formerly of your town, met with an accident on Tuesday night, at the Summit, which may prove fatal. He was standing on the steps of Riffell's hotel, leaning on his staff, when the staff gave way and he fell backward, striking his head against a stone with such force as to produce concussion of the brain. He was some better when I last heard from him, but was still very low.

There was a slight joke played on Mr. P. H. Shields, of this place, in Pittsburg, during the State Fair. The joke was in the shape of the extraction of the gentleman's pocket-book from his pocket without his knowledge or consent. The book contained a considerable sum of money.

Following is the score of a game of base ball played here on the 28th ultimo, between the "Elms" of this place and a picked nine from the Summit :

He has a full and complete assortment of ready-made clothing and other articles usually kept in a clothing store, all which he will bestow on customers at remarkably low prices. A good clothing store has long been needed in Ebensburg, and we have no doubt this one will be well patronized.

JOHNSTOWN ITEMS .- Mr. Michael Boland, of Millville borough, was killed at Blairsville Intersection on Wednesday of last week. He was attempting to pass from one car to another on a train on which he was riding, when he was thrown "MR. QUEEX-1 am informed that there is from a bumper and was run over. He had both legs cut off, and was otherwise terribly mutilated Mr. Samuel Shaffer had a thumb cut off by a circular saw on last Friday week.

Thomas has added a full invoice of men's and youth's boots and shoes to his already large stock of shoes, &c. He sells only a first-class article, and warrants all work leaving his store to stand any reasonable test. Our readers will do well to patronize him.
