A CONFIRMED GRUMBLER.—Some time ago, there lived in Edinburgh a celebrated grumbler, named Sandy Black, whose often recurring fits of spleen or indigestion produced some amusing scenes, which were highly relished by all except the brute's patient little wife. One morning, Sandy rose bent on a quarrel. The eggs and haddies, ordered by himself the previous evening, were done to a turn, and breakfast passed without the expected blow-up.

"What will you have for dinner, Sandy?" asked Mrs. Black.

"A chicken, madam," was the reply.

"Roast or boiled?" asked the wife.

"Confound it, madam," growled Sandy, "if you had been a good and considerate wife, you'd have known before this what I like!" and he slammed the door.

It was in the spring, and a friend who was present heard the little wife say—"Sandy's bent on a disturbance to-day; I shall not be able to please him, do what I may."

Dinner-time came, and Sandy took his place at the table. The fish was eaten in silence, when, on raising the cover of a dish and perceiving its contents, in a towering passion he called out,

"Boiled chicken! I hate it, madam. A chicken boiled is a chicken spoiled!"

Immediately the cover was raised from another chicken roasted to a turn.

"Madam, I won't eat roast chicken!" roared Sandy; "you know it should have been cooked."

A broiled chicken, with mushrooms, was placed on the table.

"Without green peas!" yelled the confirmed grumbler.

"Here they are, dear," and his wife sat the peas before him.

"How dare you spend my money for these things?" shouted Sandy.

"They were a present from a friend," said Mrs. Black.

Rising from his chair in a tempest of passion, he screamed, as he rushed from the room—"How dare you receive a present without my permission!"

NOT SO BAD AS HE THOUGHT.—The following story is told of a gallant naval officer: Twenty or thirty years ago, when missionary enterprise was in its infancy among the islands of the South sea, Captain Summers anchored his sloop-of-war off one of the Marquesas. The next morning, he saw an American flag on the beach. Down. This excited him fearfully, of course, and he sent off a boat at once to inquire into the matter. Presently the boat returned, bringing with it a grave-looking missionary. The Captain's anxiety ran high. He said:

"What's the trouble out there, quick?"

"Well, I am grieved to say, sir," said the missionary, "that the natives have been interrupting our sacerdotal exercises."

"No! Blast their yaller hides! I'll—what—what was it you said they had been doing?"

"It pains me, sir, to say they have been interrupting our sacerdotal exercises."

"Interrupting your—your—h—ll! Man them starboard guns! Stand by, now, to give 'em the whole battery!"

The astonished clergyman hastened to protest against such excessively rigorous measures, and finally succeeded in making the old tar understand that the natives had only been guilty of breaking up a prayer meeting.

"Oh, devil take it, man," said the Captain, "is that all? I thought you meant that they'd stopped your grog!"

A CARD TO THE LADIES!—DR. DUPONCO'S GOLDEN PERIODICAL PILLS FOR FEMALES.

In correcting Irregularities, removing Obstructions of the Monthly Turns, from whatever cause, and always successful as a Preventive.

It is now over thirty years since the above celebrated Pills were discovered by Dr. Duponco, of Paris, during which time they have been extensively and successfully used in most of the public institutions—as well as in private practice—of both hemispheres, with unparalleled success in every case, and it is only at the "urgent request" of the thousands of ladies who have used them that he is induced to make the Pills public for the alleviation of those suffering from any irregularities whatever, as well as to prevent an increase of family where health will not permit it. Females peculiarly situated, or those supposing them elves so, are cautioned against using these Pills while in that condition, as the proprietor assumes no responsibility after the above admonition, although their mildness would prevent any mischief to health—otherwise the Pills are recommended.

ONE BOX IS SUFFICIENT.

Full and explicit directions accompany each box, which must be strictly followed, and all diseases peculiar to females may be speedily cured.

Price $1 per box; six boxes, $5. Sold by one druggist in every town, village, city and hamlet throughout the world.

Sold in Ebensburg, Pa., by P. J. LLOYD, Druggist.

Ladies, by sending him $1 to the Ebensburg P. O., can have the Pills sent (confidentially) by mail to any part of the country, free of postage.

☞ Sold also by Roush & Taylor, Altoona; Johnson, Holloway & Cowden, Phila.; Demas Barnes & Co., New York; S. D. Howe, Sole Proprietor, New York. [apr11-1y

A CARD.—

WITMER'S BRIDGE,
Lancaster Tp. July 30, 1860.

MESSRS. EVANS AND WATSON: GENTLEMEN—The small size No. 1 Salamander safe which I purchased from your agent, Mr. Adam Barr, in Lancaster City, on July 20th, 1858, has been subjected to a very severe test, which it withstood in a most satisfactory manner. This Safe, containing all my books, together with valuable papers belonging to myself and some to my neighbors and friends, and representing a value of over Twenty Thousand Dollars, ($20,000) was in my Mill which was destroyed on the night of the 27th of July, 1860, and passed through the fiery ordeal unscathed. The Safe was on the second floor and fell to the basement of the Mill, and was subjected for six hours to an intense heat among the ruins, which was greatly increased by the combustion of a large quantity of grain confined within the brick walls. After the fire the safe was opened and the books and papers taken out in a state of perfect preservation, the paper not even being discolored. This fact was, however, to many bystanders a better recommendation of your Safes than could be expressed in any other words from me. Yours Respectfully, [jan24] SAMUEL RANCK.

☞ A large assortment of the above quality of Fire and Thief Proof Safes always on hand and for sale at as low rates as any other firm. at EVANS & WATSON'S,
