

EBENSBURG AND CRESSON RAILROAD. After Monday, April 29, 1867, trains on this road will run as follows: LEAVE EBENSBURG—At 6:05 A. M., connecting with Day Exp. East and Phil. Exp. West. At 7:15 P. M., connecting with Phila. Exp. East and Mail Train West.

AFTER THE ELECTION.—To many minds, a table of election returns is dull and uninteresting, and the long rows of figures composing it possessed of no significance whatever, save of determining the victory of one and the defeat of the other political party. Yet, when read understandingly, and by the light afforded by other returns, these same rows of figures become clothed with attributes of importance that sermons might be preached about them. They are found to be an indicator of any change occurring in public opinion as infallible as the weather.

Let us look a moment at the official returns of the late election in Cambria county. The Democrats claim an increased majority in the county of 300 over last year's majority. The figures will make this claim; but the question is, or ought to be, are the Democrats stronger than last fall? They are not. Examining 550 fewer votes were cast this fall than last.

Of those who failed to go the polls, there were Democrats, while 575 were Republicans. Now, if the reader will go to the trouble to cipher a little, he will find that if these 275 Democrats and 575 Republicans had voted, the Democratic majority now would be precisely what it was last year—652. The Democratic majority is increased, but it is through the fault of the Republicans that this is the case.

As there is always a good-natured rivalry existing, about election times, between the "north" and the "south" of the county, it may not be improper to mention that the Democrats gained about five-tenths of their increased majority in the election, and one-sixth in the former. The probably never was a quieter, less exciting canvass in the county than this. No meetings were held, no speeches delivered, and but precious few appeals made to the people to "vote and vote." Even the candidates caught the prevailing infection of apathy and indifference. In Susquehanna township, it was noticed, Williams gets 71 votes to the balance of the Republican ticket a dozen. This queer voting is accounted for by the fact that the bundle of ballots for that district were not delivered after the election. The candidates cared not to care whether their friends were provided with the necessary "paper" or not.

CONCERT ON THE TAPIS.—There is some talk that a grand musical concert will shortly be given in this place, under the auspices and in benefit of the "Mountaineer Base Ball Club." Our own native musical talent will be employed, than which there is none better in the State. Let the concert go on!

OUR SCHOOLS.—The public schools of this borough commenced on Monday last, for a four months term. The corps of teachers are: Room No. 1, G. W. Cope; No. 2, Miss Brookbank; No. 3, Miss Evans; No. 4, Miss Evans; No. 5, Mrs. Clark.

special contract with active men, thus: In 1865 the district polled 100 Democratic votes; in 1866, 120 Democratic votes. Now, for every Democratic vote over 110 polled we will pay you a fixed sum the day after the election. This is simply an incentive to bring men out, for the vote of 1866 shows they are there. See that your agents have all Democrats assessed, naturalized, and their taxes paid. Let me know what I can do for you. Send forward the lists rapidly. Be very careful of this paper; keep it entirely private. WILLIAM A. WALLACE, Chairman Dem. State Central Com.

To TEACHERS.—The County Superintendent will hold examinations of teachers for Cambria county as follows: Cambria township, in Ebensburg, on Thursday, 17th inst. Blacklick township, at Belsano, on Friday, 18th.

Clearfield and Chest Springs, at St. Augustine, on Thursday, 31st. White township, at Fallen Timber, on Friday, Nov. 1st.

ETCHINGS.—The prize ball offered by the agricultural society of Huntingdon county as a premium for the best base ball club was awarded to the "Alerts" of McConellstown. The Tyrone Bulletin says that the Huntingdon fair was an unmitigated failure. Mr. Reese J. Lloyd is putting a new front in the office adjoining his residence. When completed, he will remove the post-office thereto.

KILLED.—A young man named Keller, from Bedford county, and foreman of a shock shop at Ninevah station, Westmoreland county, met with a horrible death at the latter place on Wednesday morning of last week. He was in the act of stepping on a freight train to go to Johnstown on business, when an express train came along, at lightning speed, and struck the poor fellow on the back, mangle him in a shocking manner and killing him instantly. The deceased was a single man, and of excellent character.

LOST AND FOUND.—An old, demented man named John Buzzard, who was living with his niece in Susquehanna township, disappeared from home some two weeks ago. Though diligently sought for, he was not found for several days, when he was discovered in a thick woods close by, nearly exhausted. In anticipation of death, and following the bent of his crazed mind, he had built a monument of stones several feet high, which he intended as his mausoleum. He was cared for.

MAKE A MEMORANDUM.—Messrs. E. Leopold & Brother bear the reputation of being the largest, most fashionable, and the fairest-dealing clothiers in Johnstown. A full line of coats, pantaloons, vests, furnishing goods, &c., &c., is always displayed on their counters. Ebensburgers visiting Johnstown should call on this firm. It might be to their advantage.—Store on Main street.

RECEIVED A CALL.—The Rev. T. M. Wilson, formerly pastor of the Presbyterian congregation of Ebensburg, has been tendered the pastorate of the Presbyterian church of Sharpburg.

GAME.—The wild pigeons have become scarce in this neighborhood, but squirrels and pheasants are quite plenty. The sportsmen are having a gay time slaughtering them.

N. Y. OBSERVER.—We direct attention to the prospectus of this sterling sheet. It will be seen that the inducements to new subscribers are liberal.

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE. LETTER FROM JOHNSTOWN.—A QUIET ELECTION —LIVELY TIMES AFTERWARD—ARREST OF TWO SHOVERS OF COUNTERFEIT MONEY—SERIOUS ACCIDENT—PERSONAL. JOHNSTOWN, Oct. 14, 1867.

The election in this and the surrounding boroughs passed off quietly. The utmost good feeling seemed to prevail with both parties. For a wonder, only one man had the privilege of seeing the inside of the lock-up during the day.—He happened to be going around the street painting 15,000 Democratic majority on imaginary placards, and being somewhat noisy, was pulled up by the police.

There was a lively time on Canal street on Saturday evening. A large party, first having primed themselves with doses of fighting whisky, got up a regular "rough and tumble," and for a time battered heads and bruised faces were the order of the day. The police lodged five of the belligerents in the city hotel, from which they emerged next morning after paying a salty bill for their night's lodging.

Capt. James H. Gageby, of the 37th U. S. Infantry, is on a brief visit here. His many friends are sorry that the demands of duty will not allow him a long sojourn with us. He departs in about ten days for his present post on Staten Island.

On Saturday, two notorious shovers of counterfeit money, named George W. Water and John B. Wright, victimized parties in our town to the tune of two hundred dollars. The notes shored were tens on the First National Bank of Philadelphia. The two men were arrested in Pitsburg by the depot police, yesterday. Two hundred dollars of the counterfeit bills were found in their possession at the time of their arrest.

A man named Stewart, while on his way from this place to his home in Brush-valley, Indiana county, met with a serious accident at a point about one mile west of town. He was driving along the old tow-path, when his wagon went over the bank, throwing him out and fracturing his skull and otherwise seriously injuring him. His wounds were dressed by Dr. Marbourg.

Rev. B. L. Agnew has resigned the pastorate of the Presbyterian church of this place. He intends going to Philadelphia. DIO.

AUTUMN.—The fact that the season of the "sere and yellow leaf" is here does not affect the other fact that A. A. Barker has the biggest, and best, and cheapest assortment of fall and winter goods in town. No other fact, known or to be known, can affect the great and abiding fact here stated.

WAIT TILL HE COMES AGAIN.—C. T. Roberts has gone east to buy a new stock of watches, clocks, jewelry, notions, &c. When he comes back, and his bill of goods arrives, he will will have the most complete jewelry establishment in the county.

OVER.—The election is over, and the Republicans are over—the left. James M. Thompson's cheap cash store is also over—just over the way. Go over and drop in. Bargains there for everybody, and the latch-string always out.

THE MOULD OF FASHION.—Mills & Davis have the most elegant store-room in town, and they have also the most fashionable goods for ladies' wear in town. If any lady doubts this, she can go and see for herself.

LIST OF ARRIVALS.—Among the arrivals in town this week is Mr. V. S. Barker, who has just returned from the east with a splendid stock of fall and winter goods. Go and see! Go early, and go often!

THE HARTFORD COURT. THE HARTFORD LIFE STOCK INSURANCE CO.—This branch of insurance is something entirely new. This Company insures horses, cattle, etc., against death from any cause. It will be of great advantage to the teamster or small farmer, who has a large portion of his capital invested in his team, from which he derives his livelihood. The death of a horse, in such case, will often place the owner in comparative poverty, whereas, by the payment of a few dollars, he can now be secured against such calamity. The rich man can also provide against the loss of valuable stock in the same way. The Company has had application for Agencies from all points of the Union, and starts with every prospect of success.

I would not die in summer, I would not die in fall, And as I think about it, I would not die at all. For really it is not necessary if you commence in time and use "Barrett's Vegetable Hair Restorative," which will effectually prevent both baldness and gray hairs and obviate the necessity of any "dyeing." The best toilet article known as a "cloud of witnesses" have testified.
