

The Alleghanian. THURSDAY NOVEMBER 7. LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

EBENSBURG AND CRESSON RAILROAD. On and after Monday, April 29, 1867, trains on this road will run as follows:

LEAVE EBENSBURG—At 6:00 A. M., connecting with Day Exp. East and Phil. Exp. West. At 7:15 P. M., connecting with Phila. Exp. East and Mail Train West. LEAVE CRESSON—At 9:24 A. M., on departure of Phil. Express West. At 4:40 P. M., on departure of Phila. Express East.

TO OUR PATRONS.—Paper, ink, labor, everything entering into the composition of a newspaper, costs money. This being admitted, our patrons will not think it strange that once in a while we should need money, or that, needing it, we should appeal to them for aid. At least one-half our subscribers have not yet paid their subscriptions. This money is due us, and we would like to have it. To these delinquent friends, we make the following liberal proposition: If they pay up on or before December Court, the subscription price of the paper will be put at Two Dollars; after that, it will be Three Dollars. Let one and all take advantage of this offer.

ETCHINGS.—The Ebensburg post-office has been removed to the building formerly occupied as a drug store by Mr. Lloyd, the postmaster, and adjoining his place of residence. The building is in a central location, and, having lately been remodeled and improved, makes a tip-top office. The high wind on Monday morning blew down the scaffolding around a building in process of erection on Center st. Two carpenters went to the ground with the scaffolding, but were not much hurt. The first snow of the season fell on Wednesday night of last week. The next morning, the ground was completely covered with a mantle of white. A man named John Middleton, of Clearfield county, was found dead in his bed in Gaysport on last Saturday week. The verdict of the Coroner's jury was that the deceased came to his death from asphyxia caused by lying on his face during convulsions. An alarm of fire in this place on Wednesday night, creating much excitement, was caused by the burning of some shavings in a shoo shop in the northern part of town. A man named Lowry made his escape from the Huntingdon jail lately by unlocking the cell door with his finger! After which feat, he stole a horse from a meadow in the neighborhood and rode off so far that he has not since been heard of. A company has been organized in Williamsburg, Blair county, to engage in the manufacture of agricultural implements. Gardner & Hemmings' circus exhibited in Johnstown on Monday. The late fire in Altoona was a very extensive one. Four or five buildings in the business part of the town were burned down, and much portable property was destroyed. Supposed to have been the work of an incendiary. Messrs. Lloyd, Huff & Co., of Altoona, have opened a banking house in Latrobe. The business of the concern will be managed by the second named member of the firm, Mr. George F. Huff, which is a sure guarantee that it will be managed both correctly and successfully. The editor of the Johnstown Democrat refuses to accept a drink of election whisky offered him by the editor of the Johnstown Tribune, on the ground that the latter is not a "white man." By and by, when impartial suffrage comes to be the rule, we expect to hear few and faint protests from the Democrat man against drinking with a voter who is not white. Wade Hampton and other prominent Southern fire-eaters afford a shining illustration of the alacrity with which Democratic politicians can blind themselves to the color of a man's skin if his hand contains a ballot. A train of thirty cars was loaded with railroad iron at Johnstown last week, and despatched to a point on the Pacific Railroad five hundred miles west of Omaha, Nebraska. The entire distance to be traversed is over fifteen hundred miles. Rev. Wm. A. Fleming, of Marietta, Lancaster county, has accepted a call to become pastor of the Presbyterian church of Johnstown. The Hollidaysburg Standard says it is so that "the Republican party dare not trust its life to its past virtues." If the Democratic party trusted its life to either its past or present virtues, its days would be exceedingly short in the land. See advertisement of Mr. Elbridge Stiles, manufacturer of barrels, kegs, tubs, &c., Ebensburg. All orders given him will be promptly and faithfully filled. The streets and roads are almost impassable with mud. In the case of Purcell, charged with killing Monoghan in Pittsburg, the coroner's jury failed to agree. Purcell was held in $10,000 bail to answer at Court. See notice of Cambria County Fire Insurance Co.

ORIGIN AND HISTORY OF THE BOOKS OF THE BIBLE.—We have received a copy of Prof. Stowe's work on the Bible, (see advertisement,) and a careful examination convinces us that it is a valuable contribution to Biblical literature. It contains a mass of information ordinarily inaccessible to the common reader, clothed in language so plain and simple as to be understood without effort. From a large number of recommendations of the book from high sources, we select the following: [From Rev. George D. Boardman, Pastor of the First Baptist Church, Phila.] PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 30, 1867. To MESSRS. ZIEGLER, McCUNNY & Co.—Gentlemen: I have examined with special care, and with the deepest interest, Professor Stowe's volume on the "Origin and History of the Books of the Bible." Taking into account the purpose for which it was written, I can honestly say that I do not believe that there is, in the English language, or in any other, its equal in clearness of statement, fairness of treatment, or conclusiveness of argument. It is a masterpiece of common sense. Very respectfully yours, GEORGE D. BOARDMAN.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.—The new board of County Commissioners, consisting of Messrs. John Campbell, John Ferguson, and John Kennedy, met last week and organized. They made the following appointments for the ensuing year: Clerk, Wm. H. Sechler, Esq. Counsel, F. P. Tierney, Esq. Mercantile Appraiser, Alex. Skelly. Mr. E. R. Dunnegan, the retiring Commissioner, will reside hereafter at St. Augustine, where he purposes engaging in the mercantile business. He was one of the most efficient public servants ever in the employ of the people of Cambria county, and his retirement to private life will be greatly regretted.

THE DAVIS FAMILY.—It will be matter of interest to the Davis family, of which are many representatives in Cambria county, to know that Dr. Charles H. S. Davis, of Meridan, Ct., has commenced the publication of the "Davis Family Record," a monthly periodical, devoted to gathering facts and statistics of the family history and genealogy, in preparation for the publication of the whole in volume form. Among the information solicited is the place and date of the birth, marriage, and death of each and every member of the family. Capt. Dolar Davis, who came from England in 1634, is the progenitor of the family in this country. —Messrs. Davis, speak out!

THE JOHNSTOWN COUNTERFEITERS.—The case of John B. Wright and George W. Waters, charged with having passed counterfeit bills on a National bank in Johnstown last month, came up for trial before the U. S. District Court at Pittsburg on Monday. After arraignment, Wright plead guilty to the indictment. Waters plead not guilty, and underwent a trial. The charge was clearly made out against him by the testimony of witnesses from Johnstown, and the jury returned a verdict of guilty. Not sentenced.

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE. LETTER FROM JOHNSTOWN—ANOTHER MURDER—A BOY SHOT AND KILLED ON HALLOWEEN—ESCAPE OF THE MURDERER—MEDICAL AID AT A PREMIUM—A FLEET-FOOTED THIEF—NEW CITY HALL—POLICE ITEMS, &c. JOHNSTOWN, Nov. 4, 1867. To the Editor of The Alleghanian: A frightful tragedy occurred here on Thursday evening last. A party of boys were out celebrating Halloween in the customary manner, when a man named Cyrus Thompson deliberately fired a rifle into the crowd. The ball took effect on a little son of Daniel McDonald, of Cambria borough, striking him in the back and lodging in the abdomen. He lingered in great agony until four o'clock Friday morning, when he died. The boy was aged 14 years. Immediately after the commission of the deed, Thompson shouldered his rifle and made his escape. He was seen the same night by several persons who did not know of the murder, but has not since been heard of. In connection with this affair, I cannot refrain from saying that we have some very conscientious physicians in our town. Two of these, on being appealed to to attend the sufferer, refused point-blank, on the ground that they were not the regular family physicians! Such heartless cruelty should be remembered.

AUDITOR'S NOTICE.—Richard J. Hughes vs. Wm. R. Hughes. In the Court of Common Pleas of Cambria county, of June term, A. D. 1867, No. 91.—Pl. Fa. And now, to wit: the second day of October, A. D. 1867, W. H. Sechler appointed Auditor to distribute amount of sale in Sheriff Myers' hands in the above case among creditors entitled thereto. Per Cur. Extract from the Record of said Court. GEORGE C. K. ZAHM, Prothonotary.
