WHAT'S IN A NAME ?- Shakspeare asks this question, and then volunteers the assurance that "a rose by any other name would smell as sweet." All which may be. A rose, though called a cabbage, would undoubtedly retain all its original fragrance, and a cabbage, though called a rose, would still make good sauer kraut. Yet, that there is in the breasts of some a well-defined belief that all names are not as one, but, on the contrary, that a certain euphony of sound when spoken and agreeableness of character when written and general appropriateness when used in any manner or form which mark some names are utterly wanting in others, is evinced by the following advertisement copied from a county paper:

"Notice .- The petition of John Devil, of Cambria county, has been filed in the Court of Common Pleas of said county, praying that his name be changed to John B. Harney, which said petition will be presented to the Judges of said Court on the second Monday of December next, for decree, &c."

The Devil may not be as black as he is painted, yet there is this, at least, in a name, that no one wants to claim connection for life with an ill-starred combination of letters which must be a perpetual conjurer-up of ideas connected with fire, and brimstone, and galling chains, and all that sort of thing. The petition ought to

A MANY ADJECTIVED TEETOTALER. -The first number of the Temperance Vindicator, published at Williamsburg, Blair county, by Dr. James P. Thompson, has just been issued. The following is an extract from its columns:

The Doctor, in his combat with the demon intemperance, has evidently adopted the Chinese mode of warfare. He sounds his gong vigorously and most terrifyingly, and uses more and stronger adjectives that Father Mathew, John B. Gough and Horace Greely combined.

A THIEF CAUGHT .- For several weeks past, the proprietors of the "Mountain House" in this place have missed valuables, in the shape of money, cigars, and liquors, from their drinking saloon. On A man named Charles Ihmson, a brake- Thursday night last, they set a watch over the building, and early the next morning a colored hostler in the employ of the house was discovered making his way into the cellar. LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE. LETTER FROM JOHNSTOWN-RELIGIOUS ITEM-A CHAPTER OF ACCIDENTS, &C. JOHNSTOWN, Nov. 18, 1867.

To the Editor of The Alleghanian: The right reverend M. Domenes, Bishop of the Pittsburg diocese, administered the sacrament of confirmation in the Catholic churches of this place on Monday, the 11th instant, to about 400 persons. Several converts were among the number.

Michael Sullivan, an employee of the Cambria Iron Co., had several ribs broken the other day, while pulling iron out of a heating furnace. His tongs slipped, and he fell against a car-load of iron, with the above stated result.

A son of Samuel Douglas, Esq., received a severe cut in the face a few days ago by the falling upon him of a piece of slate from the roof of the M. E. church.

One of the men employed in putting a gravel roof on the Johnstown Mechanical Works received a severe injury by being struck on the head by a board which fell on him from the roof. His injuries were dressed, and he was removed to his home in Pittsburg.

J. F. Condon, Esq., had a narrow escape from severe injury one day last week. He was talking to one of the men engaged in the erection of Fronheiser's new brewery, when the hatchet of a workman flew out of his hand, striking Mr. C. on the foot, and cutting away a portion of

We were visited by a regular snow storm on Tuesday, but since that time we have had nice weather.

NEW GOODS .- J. M. Thompson has just received his stock of new goods for fall and winter. His shelves fairly groan under the new supplies, which have been selected with an eye single to the wants Those wanting to secure bargains should give him a call; and those wanting to get the pick of the bargains should call early.

No Use .- The other day, a fellow stole a coat from a gentleman in this place .-The result will be that he will probably explate his crime by going to the penitentiary for a season. The fellow might have saved himself this mortification by going to Mills & Davis' store, where he could have bought a good, bran-new coat for a mere song.

THE OLDEST .- The oldest newspaper in the world is said to be published in Pekin, China. It is printed on silk, and has appeared every week for at least a thousand years. The oldest, cheapest, and best store in Ebensburg is A. A. Barker's, wherefrom are dispensed one thousand bargains each week.

JEWELRY .- Do you want to buy any jewelry-a ring, pin, bracelet, a pair of ear-rings, or sleeve buttons, a watch or tob chain, anything in the ornamental line-go to Cham. Roberts'. He will sell you a good article, warranted, at a fair price. His stock of jewelry is undeniably the largest and best in the county.

How to Do It .- To avoid corpulence, quit eating. To gain time, steal a watch. To keep from stuttering, don't talk. To keep your doors from being broken open by burglars, don't close them. To keep out of debt, pay cash for what you buy, and buy what you need at V. S. Barker's.

IT IS NOT TRUE that R. H. Singer intends leaving town, as some would have it. But on the contrary, he intends to carry on the Blacksmithing in all its branches stronger than ever. To do so, it is absolutely necessary to have tools, hands, and iron, all which cost money. Therefore, persons indebted to Mr. Singer for work done in '65, '66, and the early part of '67 will please call round and settle the same. I feel satisfied that my customers will not let me stick.
